

EXPRESS COMPANIES MAKE REPLY

That the Great Northern Express company will not knowingly permit the use of its facilities to aid others in violating the liquor laws or any other laws, is the reply D. C. Elliott, of St. Paul, head of the company, has sent Governor West, who Saturday night sent him a wire advising him that his company, together with others, were violating the law by shipping liquor into dry territory.

In his telegram to the governor he further says that the matter has not been called to his attention before and that he will immediately investigate it and advise him more fully later. Governor West Saturday night also sent similar messages to the eastern heads of other express companies, but has not yet received any replies from them, but expects to this afternoon.

The conference between the governor and railroad companies relative to the shipment of liquor into dry territory which was to have been held this week has been postponed owing to the fact that the governor must leave tonight for Detroit, with government officials to examine a tract of land of 56,000 acres which the government is willing to exchange for a similar acreage of land owned by the state, but which is scattered. Upon his return, which will be either the last of this week or the first of next, the conference will be held.

MEDFORD WOMAN IS NOW WITH HER HUSBAND

Medford, Or., Sept. 16.—Mrs. Wells Lounsberry, wife of the man who single-handed, held up and robbed a mail train near Topeka, Kansas, several weeks ago, arrived in Medford this morning, after a visit to her husband, who is in a Topeka hospital, suffering from a bullet wound received while resisting arrest.

Mrs. Lounsberry declined to talk beyond expressing explicit faith in her husband and recounting an accident which occurred some years ago when Lounsberry received a severe injury to his head.

COLONEL GIVEN AN OVATION

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 16.—Five thousand enthusiastic Bull Mooseers jostled for standing room at the Arcade station today to welcome Colonel Roosevelt. Accompanied by a band, they shouted campaign songs and otherwise worked off their enthusiasm while waiting for the biggest of the Bull Moose.

A murmur of disappointment swept through the crowd, when it was announced that, owing to his stop at Santa Barbara, the colonel would be late in arriving here.

Shortly after noon the streets along which the colonel was to pass were massed with humanity. It was estimated that 100,000 crowded the line of march.

Because of many threatening letters received by the police, Chief Sebastian dispatched four automobiles to the railroad station, each carrying four plain clothes men, armed with sawed-off shotguns, to guard the former president.

THE REGULARS ARE CHASING ROOSEVELT

San Francisco, Sept. 16.—On behalf of the candidacy for re-election of President Taft, J. Adam Bede, former congressman from Minnesota, and John M. Harlan, of Chicago, son of the late John M. Harlan, associate justice of the United States supreme court, will arrive here today and address mass meetings on both sides of the bay tonight.

The two speakers are following the wake of Colonel Roosevelt, progressive nominee, answering his arguments.

People who thought the crops were ruined should attend a few fairs, and cheer up.

Eugene has established a rock pile on which to exercise its hoboes.

CAR IS NOT HITCHED TO A STAR

Piqua, Ohio, Sept. 16.—Traveling to Chicago by the longest route and on a slow train, Governor Woodrow Wilson, the Democratic nominee for president, today denounced railroad officials for refusing to attach his private car to a fast train.

"No more private cars for me," said Governor Wilson here, "unless different arrangements can be made. Senator Gore left New York two hours before we did, and already is in Chicago. He could finish his business there and meet us en route back."

Governor Wilson's car was shunted back and forth in the Columbus yards for some time this morning. This gave the Democratic candidate an acute attack of "nerves." Then they attached his car to a train that makes all stops between here and Chicago.

At Urbana, Wilson was greeted by several hundred persons. He shook hands with those nearest the car, but did not address the gathering.

NICARAGUANS ARE VERY SORE AT AMERICANS

Bluefields, Nic., Sept. 16.—During an anti-American demonstration incident to the celebration of the anniversary of Central American independence, a party of American sailors from the gunboat Tacoma were fired upon in the streets. A mob of excited Nicaraguans was immediately formed, and for a time it was feared that bloodshed would result.

BURNED TO DEATH IN THEIR HOTEL

Raymond, Wash., Sept. 16.—C. D. Osborn, aged 72, and his daughter, Mrs. W. A. Davis, aged 30, were burned to death in a fire destroying the Germania hotel here today.

Mrs. Davis and her husband, W. A. Davis, are reported to have quarreled recently. He denied this, but the police are holding him, pending a full investigation.

HE STIRRED UP TROUBLE IN HOPYARD

Word was received by telephone at the sheriff's office about 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon of a riot at the hop yard of Sam Jones, about 12 miles north of Salem. The message stated that one Chinaman had been seriously injured, and that the lives of several others were in jeopardy. Deputy Sheriff William Eech and Dr. W. C. Smith left immediately for the scene, where they found a large number of women and children gathered in consternation and fear for their lives. The cause of the disturbance was traced to Tom Osborn, who had entered the Chinaman's house, and, it is alleged, assaulted him. The injured Celestial had a large gash over one eye, which the doctor dressed and bandaged up, making him as comfortable as possible under the circumstances. The Chinaman was cared for in his own home, and Deputy Eech brought the aggressor to Salem and placed him in the county jail. Gin Slug, the injured man, did not make formal complaint against Osborn, so the case was dropped this morning, and Osborn was given his freedom, after spending a day and two nights in jail.

ROOSEVELT GREETED BY BIG CROWD

Santa Barbara, Cal., Sept. 16.—Greeted by 10,000 men, women and children and amid a waving maze of red bandana handkerchieves, Colonel Theodore Roosevelt today delivered a 10-minute address here today. The colonel lauded the progressive party and its leaders in California, giving a personal guarantee for their loyalty to the principles he espoused. He said: "The state leaders of progressivism in California are men such as to inspire the utmost confidence, and if any of them are proven unworthy of his trust I personally will take the stump against him. What the progressive party wants is fearless men who will carry out every plank of the progressive platform."

The colonel then successively scored President Taft and Governor Wilson for what he termed their refusal to carry out the planks of their respective platforms. The platforms themselves he severely criticized.

Baby Mine Saturday.
If you appreciate a rip roaring comedy—don't miss seeing Margaret Mayo's "Baby Mine," which is the offering at the Grand Saturday evening, September 21.

"Baby Mine" is a play that has been a positive and legitimate success from its first production. The aim of the authoress and producer has been to create real fun, merriment and laughter, and they have succeeded almost to the limit. There has been nothing so strong, so fascinating and intense comedy during the present age at least. This comedy is a sensational success, as it abounds with situations and fun that produce cyclonic outbursts of laughter. There is unbridled gaiety created all the time, and there is not a dull or solemn moment in it.

The methods and acting of the young mother, and the deluded young husband are close to real happiness and impress most of an adult audience personally. It is rib-expanding fun and merriment, and the sentiment is so strongly fascinating that many are willing to see "Baby Mine" over and over again.

Its success has been enormous, a year in New York, eight months in Chicago, and nearly two years in London, is but a brief record of the comedy's run. Seats on sale Friday.

A BIG STRIKE IS THREATENED IN WEST VIRGINIA

Charleston, W. Va., Sept. 16.—Although the miners are willing, the coal operators in the Kanawha field today refused to participate in the arbitration plan suggested by Governor Glasscock.

It is predicted here today that a general strike of 75,000 West Virginia miners, union and non-union, will take place shortly.

May Order It.
Oskaloosa, Ia., Sept. 16.—President White, of the Miners' Union, declared here today that at the international officers' meeting to be held here tomorrow an order calling for a general strike in West Virginia would probably be issued.
