Omar Comes Home-- Omar C. Conger son of John Conger, the printer, returned yesterday from a trip into Canada and through Washington and Idaho. Mr. Conger, as reported at the time, while riding on the Northern Pacific railroad, a few miles west of Shelby station, fell from the train, receiving a severe shock. This happened August 26, and as his folks had heard nothing of him since, they were much worried. His safe arrival yesterday was the cause of much gratification.

Mrs. Joshua Smith and Mrs. Cynthia Dunlop returned from the national encampment at Los Angeles this morning.

PUBLIC SALE

OF

TEN ACRE TRACTS OF LAND

AT AUCTION!!!

Sept. 23rd at Harrisburg, Ore.

27 Ten Acre Tracts 27 Ten Acre Tracts

The remainder of the Morris Tracts will be sold to the highest bidder on Monday, September 23d, at Harrisburg, Oregon.

TERMS-- About one-fourth cash and the balance in three equal payments with interest at 6 per cent, and a discount of 5 per cent for cash. (Full details of terms will be given on day of sale). Remember you have three years to complete payment.

LOCATION-- This land is one and a half miles south and east of the Oregon Electric depot and also the same distance and direction from the Southern Pacific depot in Harrisburg, in the south part of the county of Linn, State of Oregon.

DESCRIPTION-- This land is one and one-half miles south and east of Harrisburg and within walking distance of High School, free from gravel and drible, a good, deep rich soil, and all in cultivation. This land is well adapted to the growing of any and all kinds of fruit, grain and grasses raised in the Willamette Valley, and is located in one of the richest and best agriculture districts. Each tract faces upon a well graded road.

Harrisburg is a thriving little city at the head of navigation on the Willamette river, and about 100 miles south of Portland, with two railroads, both steam and electric lines, two banks, two general mercantile stores, and a number of business houses, good schools, and several churches.

This land must be sold regardless of price, and this auction sale will be conducted by the people present, who will elect a committee from among their numbers to arrange all preliminaries. And each and every bid shall be absolutely bona fide, and there will be no by-bidders, and a reward of $100 will be paid to any person producing evidence proving any bid to be a by-bid.

The sale will take place on the grounds at 1 o'clock, sharp, where you can see what you are buying.

Automobiles will meet each and every train and take the people, free of charge, from the town and depot to the tracts of land and return.

The title guaranteed--no better title can be obtained. There will be music and entertainment. This is your opportunity to get one or more of these beautiful tracts at your own price.

Everybody Is Invited to Attend

Don't fail to attend, as this land must be sold, and will be sold to the highest bidder.

This sale will take place, rain or shine, Monday, September 23, 1912.

For reference address the First National Bank or the Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank of Harrisburg, Oregon.

For particulars regarding the land address the owner,
