THE PEOPLE'S PROGRAM.

The city politicians might as well make up their minds that there is a demand for more of a people's program in city affairs.

The way sewer matters are muddled up there is no way out of a square issue on that matter that will clear title to property. Anyone who will read the pleadings in the sewer litigation will come to the conclusion that there was very careless work.

All bond issues in the past but the water bonds, have been voted down because the popular loan plan has been abandoned. The old system by which all fees in state cases went into the city treasury has been switched, and in electing a new city marshal that should be borne in mind.

The people will get nothing they do not fight for, and the office holders should be asked to give the people some pledges.

These pledges are pretty well outlined in the resolutions adopted at the South and North Salem meetings.

What ails Portland? Streets quiet. Hotels restful with hundreds of empty rooms. Many, many houses to rent. Many, many stores empty. Business men cutting down forces of employees. Public officials driving nails in the coffin of the public service corporations. No street car lines being extended. Let up in the building trades. Speculative franchises being cracked through as the last profitable industry of the agitator in office. Sorry for you, but come to a city that is growing by leaps, and where everybody is not doing it to the corporations.

THE THIRD PARTY SITUATION.

All admit that the third party convention at Salem committed hari-kari, but there is no proof yet of who quered the situation. It is certain that men like Kellaher, Joseph and others have quietly withdrawn their support of the slate program.

The bitter roasting of Bourne and the denunciation of Oleott, direct primary and presidential preference leaders did it.

There is not only no newspaper support of the third party, but pretty general condemnation.

The only strong man on the ticket is Campbell, for congress, and he openly repudiated the action of the convention in turning down Bourne and Oleott.

There continues to be columns of reports of quarrels and dissensions in the ranks of the "Bull Moose" party in this state.

These quarrels have grown so bitter they have so injured the effectiveness of the campaign being put up by the third party that on Friday evening the Daily News of Portland, which has largest circulation of any paper in the state, openly supporting Teddy Roosevelt, admitted for the first time that Roosevelt might be third in the race in this state.

It said many other things under the caption "Teddy, You Are Double Crossed."

Theodore Roosevelt was the choice of this state for Republican nominee in the primaries last spring. But if Theodore wins in November it will be a wonder. * * * It is about thirty days to election; if the leaders of the Oregon Bull Moose party make as many fool mistakes in the next thirty days as they have in the last, Colonel Roosevelt will not run second, but THIRD in Oregon. * * *

Either the Bull Moose party in this neck of woods is going to wake up or the most awful slamming a ticket ever got is going to be handed out.

Like all new parties, the Moose party is suffering from the demonstrations of machine appetite on the part of the leaders.

The Astorian tells that town a lot of wholesome truth, and gets little but curses. The Capital Journal prides itself on giving the city advice to which it can always refer with pride and pat itself on the back for afterward. It advised the acquisition of Fairmount Park, the Northwest Stove Works and the Falls City lumber plant.

Western Oregon is famous for its long-wooled sheep, and the ease with which the politicians pull the wool over the eyes of the people.

INCREASING RAILWAY RETURNS.

Current reports of the revival of railway traffic are verified by the official returns for the month of July, compiled by the Bureau of Railway Economics from reports to the Interstate Commerce Commission covering 220,000 miles, about 90 per cent of the steam railway mileage of the country.

The increases in net revenue were not, however, universal. For the Eastern group of railways the increase over July, 1911, was 10.9 per cent, or $2.01 per mile of line per day; for the Western group 16.4 per cent, or $1.29 per mile of line per day.

The net revenue of the Southern group decreased 5.5 per cent or 41 cents per mile of line per day.

Taking the average per mile of line for the month for the country as a whole, total operating revenues increased $89 or 8.7 per cent; operating expenses increased $53 or 7.6; while net operating revenue increased $35.89 or 11 per cent.

Taxes amounted to $45 per mile of line, an increase of 8.5 per cent.

The aggregate of all net operating revenue for the month was $80,197,743, an aggregate increase of $9,037,016.

This net operating revenue per mile of line for the seven months of the calendar year continues less than for the corresponding seven months of 1911.

Net operating revenue is the amount available for taxes, rentals, interest on bonds, appropriations for betterments and dividends.

In the midst of numerous prosecutions in Linn county, the blind piggers seem to multiply. Brownsville is especially affected, and the governor may have to order a troop of cavalry up there armed with pickaxes and jimmies to break open the various illicit establishments and get after the pigs. That city has struggled heroically for twenty years to suppress the illicit traffic engendered by its citizens, some of whom regularly take their drinks and vote the rest of the community dry, as a kind of a bacchanalian joke. The town has appealed to the sheriff and county courts and officers in vain and now the military of the government alone will save them.

Stack the grain next year, gentlemen. Get ready now. Select a place, and out in the rainy days making racks to haul the grain to the stack.

Ben Oleott is attending to his duties as secretary of state, and the people will see to it that he is elected.

The Bull Moose convention threw away great opportunities in Oregon by not renominating Senator Bourne and Secretary of State Oleott. But some of the leaders preferred to paw the air and hallow to using their brains, which seems to be a Bull Moose privilege.

FOOTBALL SEASON IS NOW OPEN

- * * * * *
- * The following is this season's schedule:
- * Oct. 12—W. U. vs. U. of O.
- * Oct. 19—W. U. vs. Chemawa.
- * Nov. 5—W. U. vs. Vancouver soldiers.
- * Nov. 19—W. U. vs. University of Puget Sound.
- * Nov. 21—W. U. vs. Whitworth College.
- * Nov. 28—W. U. vs. University of Montana.
- * * * * *

The football season opened Saturday afternoon when a double-header, Salem high school vs. Alumni, and Willamette University vs. Alumni was played on the Willamette field.

The high school game was first on the program. The high school team, which is practically last year's second team, made a very creditable showing, but their speed and headwork were evenly matched by heavier and more experienced members of the alumni squad. Neither team made any sensational plays, the center of the field being the seat of the contest throughout the game. Neither was either side able to score, the game ending 0 to 0. The line-up:

Alumni—Eyre, center; Hofer, Chenoweth, guards; Barr, Watson, tackles; Holman, P. Smith, Krebs, end; C. Smith, quarterback; Gabrielson, Cross halfback; Barrick, fullback.

High school—Turner, center; Dunn, Wright, guards; Wann, Miles, tackles; Barnes, Randall, ends; Farmer, Brown, quarterback; Hendricks, Penn halfback; Raddiffe, full back.

Score, 0-0; length of quarters, 10 minutes; Referee, McKee; Umpire, Fielke.

In the second game the varsity squad found themselves facing the strongest team the alumni has ever put out. Every man in their line-up was an old-time star, and they outweighed the varsity about 10 pounds to the man, the largest difference being in the back fields.

First Quarter.—The alumni kicked off, Bolt receiving and returning it well to center. Varsity advanced by end runs and line plunges till within striking distance. Attempt to kick from placement failed. Saunders punts from 25-yard line. Varsity forced to punt and quarter ended with alumni's ball on 45-yard line.

Second Quarter.—Teams exchange punts, Homan nailed in tracks as he receives punt on 5-yard line. Rowland's attempt to kick to safety blocked by Nedson, who falls on ball behind line, scoring touchdown. Turner kicks goal. Score, Alumni 7, Varsity, 0. Bolt kicks off, quarter ends with Alumni's ball near center.

Third Quarter.—Nelson's kick-off run in to 40-yard line by Francis. Varsity make steady gains till fumble gives ball to Alumni. Quarter ends, Alumni's ball near center.

Fourth Quarter.—Rowland intercepts forward pass. Varsity advances till pass, Rowland to Hepp, takes ball to 5-yard line, Francis carrying ball over for touchdown and kicked goal. Score 7-7. Alumni kicks off. Unsuccessful forward passes and many fumbles mark remaining period of play.

The line-up:
Alumni—Nelson, center; Massey, Morgan, guards; Shanks Turner, tackles; Henkle, Reeves, ends; Miller, quarterback; Ford Bishop, halfback; Saunders, fullback.
Varsity—Blackwell, center; Deay, Drake, Dund, guards; Bolt, Bellinger, tackles; Francis, Young, Hepp ends; Homan, Small, quarterback; Erkin, halfback; Rowland, fullback.

Score, 7-7; time of quarter, 10 minutes; referee, McKee; umpire, Fielke; head linesman, McIntyre; timer, Gibson.
John D. Turner, who is trying to lick the high school kids into shape, played a fierce tackle for the varsity alumni.

GATHERING INFORMATION FOR SOLONS

University of Oregon, Oct. 7, 1912.—Governor West has secured the co-operation of the economics department of the university in carrying on systematic research work preparatory to the framing of certain measures which he proposes to submit to the next legislature. He has arranged with Professor Young, of the university, to have the original research work required of the seniors of that department done on subjects that are of practical importance to the state. The data secured in this way will form the basis of legislation to be proposed on the subjects involved. This is expected to result in more scientific law-making than we have had in the past since it will be based on a careful study of the needs of the state and the experience of other states.

The governor will visit the university next Wednesday to confer with the senior economics students and to lay his plans definitely before them. Work will then begin immediately so as to accomplish some material results before the assembling of the legislature.

Some of the subjects to be investigated are: The relative merits of a tax on unearned increments, and "single tax"; more uniform laws for the payment of the salaries of county officials; plans for conserving and developing the water power of the state; the formation of systematic state budgets like that of Wisconsin, and also the better regulation of county and city budgets; plans for the constant maintenance of the highways of the state, etc.
