SHE LOST HER HAIR AND GOT IT BACK WITH HERPICIDE

Don't become discouraged simply because your hair falls and is thin, weak and wispy, until you have tried Herpicide. "I first began to use Newbro's Herpicide three years ago, after a spell of fever, which caused me to become almost bald. Herpicide soon restored the quantity and natural color of my hair. I feel lost without a bottle of Herpicide in the house." Thus Mrs. Anna C. Layn, 821 Second Ave., Louisville, Ky., tells in her own words how she lost her hair and how she got it back. Mrs. Layn's experience has been duplicated a thousand times and can be repeated thousands more.

Newbro's Herpicide keeps the hair and scalp in a perfectly healthy condition. When the hair papilla has not been destroyed by the ravages of the dandruff germ, the hair will resume its suspended growth.

Newbro's Herpicide kills the dandruff germ and checks falling hair. The itching of the scalp stops almost instantly. Other imitate and make similar claims, but the original dandruff germ destroyer is Herpicide.

Applications of this wonderful remedy may be obtained at any good barber shop.

Send 10c in postage or silver for sample and booklet to The Herpicide Co., Dept. R, Detroit, Mich.

Newbro's Herpicide in 50c and $1.00 sizes is sold by all dealers who guarantee it to do all that is claimed. If you are not satisfied your money will be refunded.

Here is a woman who speaks from personal knowledge and long experience, viz., Mrs. P. H. Brogan, of Wilkeson, Pa., who says, "I know from experience that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is far superior to any other. For cough there is nothing that exceeds it." For sale by all dealers.

Latin-American malcontents who have the rebel habit may read a useful lesson in Admiral Sutherland's work in Nicaragua.

The epicure hates to waste his appetite on cheap food, and no wonder,

A. S. Jones, proprietor Lee Pharmacy, Chico, Cal., says: "I have been selling Foley & Company's medicines for years. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, I consider, has no equal and is the one cough medicine I can recommend to my friends as containing no narcotics or other harmful properties." Sold by Dr. Stone Drug Company.

In many places the campaign is just being opened or "launched." Just as well now as earlier.

Impressions made by the beauty are more than skin deep.

GIRLS! YOU MUST TRY THIS! HAIR WILL LOOK BEAUTIFUL

ALL YOU NEED IS A 25-CENT BOTTLE OF "DANDERINE"—HAIR GETS LUSTROUS, FLUFFY AND ABUNDANT AT ONCE.

Immediate?—Yes! Certain?—That's the joy of it. Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a Danderine hair cleanse. Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or excessive oil and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair.

A delightful surprise awaits, particularly those who have been careless, whose hair has been neglected or is scraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use of Danderine, when you will actually see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. ## A CASE OF SMALL POX AT CAPITOL

The development of a case of smallpox at the state house yesterday afternoon threw consternation into the ranks of officials and clerks at the capitol building and it is one of the chief topics of discussion therein today. A. C. Barber, chief clerk in the office of Insurance Commissioner Ferguson, is the victim, and attending physicians have removed him to the detention hospital, where he is resting easily. Where he contracted the disease is just as much of a mystery as where the two clerks in the office of the state engineer, which adjoins the office of the insurance commissioner's office, contracted it several months ago.

The office has been thoroughly fumigated, and it is not believed that further cases will develop.

ASSASSIN FIRES AT COLONEL

The assassin was prevented from firing a second shot by Albert H. Martin, one of Colonel Roosevelt's two secretaries. Colonel Roosevelt had just stepped into an automobile when the assassin pushed his way through the crowd to the street and fired. Martin, who was standing in the car with the Colonel, leaped to the man's shoulders and bore him to the ground.

Captain A. O. Girard, of Milwaukee, who was on the front seat, jumped almost at the same time and in an instant the man was overpowered and disarmed.

A wild cry of "lynch him" went up from the crowd. Colonel Roosevelt spoke to the people and told them to spare the would-be assassin.

The man was taken into the hotel and held there until he was removed to the police station.

In spite of the entreaties of physicians, Colonel Roosevelt insisted upon delivering his address.

"I will make this speech or die, one or the other."

Crowd Thrown Into Panic.

Harry F. Cochems, one of the Wisconsin Progressive leaders told the great crowd which had assembled in the auditorium that Colonel Roosevelt had been shot and asked the people to be calm. The crowd was thrown almost into a panic by the announcement, but Colonel Roosevelt calmed them by rising and assuring them that he was not badly hurt. Then he began his address. Several times he seemed to be growing weak, and members of his party rose to help him. He motioned them to sit down.

"Let me alone. I'm all right," he said.

At 10:30 o'clock Colonel Roosevelt was sitting on the operating table talking politics with the physicians while they were awaiting the arrival of an X-ray machine.

Colonel Roosevelt left the hospital at 11:25 p. m. He was able to walk unassisted. "I am feeling fine," he said.

Shot Fired Near Hotel.

The shooting took place in the street in front of the Hotel Gilpatrick. Colonel Roosevelt reached Milwaukee shortly after 5 o'clock, and making his way through the crowd at the station, entered an automobile and was driven to the hotel. He took dinner in a private dining room on the main floor with members of the party on his private car.

After dinner Colonel Roosevelt went to his room on the second floor of the hotel, and shortly before 8 o'clock he started for the auditorium. His automobile stood in front of the door and about it was a crowd of several hundred persons who were waiting to catch a glimpse of the Colonel as he started off.

Crowd Cheers Colonel.

With the Colonel were Philip Roosevelt, a young cousin; Mr. Cochems, Mr. Martin and Captain Girard. The crowd pressed closer about the Colonel and gave a cheer as he appeared. As the party reached the automobile Colonel Roosevelt's companions stood aside and he stepped into the car.

Martin entered directly behind him and sat on the further side of the car. Colonel Roosevelt stood up, waving his hat in answer to the cheers of the crowd. The assassin was standing in the crowd a few feet from the automobile. He pushed his way to the side of the car and raising his gun, fired.

Martin caught the flash of the revolver as the shot was fired and leaped over the car a second after the bullet sped on its way. Colonel Roosevelt barely moved as the shot was fired.

Athlete Feels Assassin.

Before the crowd knew what had happened Martin, who is six feet tall, and a former football player, had landed squarely on the assassin's shoulders and had borne him to the ground. He threw his right arm about the man's neck with a death-like grip and with the left arm seized the hand that had held the revolver. In another second he had disarmed him.

Colonel Roosevelt stood calmly looking on as though nothing had happened. Martin picked the man up as though he were a mere child and carried him the few feet which separated them from the car, almost to the side of the Colonel.

"Here he is," said Martin, "look at him Colonel!"

All this happened within a few seconds, and Colonel Roosevelt stood gazing rather curiously at the man who had attempted his life before the stunned crowd realized what was going on. Then a howl of rage went up.

"Lynch Him!" Cries Crowd.

"Lynch him! Kill him!" cried 100 men. The crowd pressed in an them and Martin and Captain Girard, who had followed Martin over the side of the automobile, were caught with their prisoner in the midst of a struggling throng of maddened men. It seemed for the moment that the assassin would be torn to pieces by the infuriated crowd, and it was Colonel Roosevelt himself who interfered on behalf of the man.

He raised his hand and motioned imperiously to the crowd to fall back.

"Stop, stop," he cried; "stand back, don't hurt him."

The crowd at first was not disposed to heed his words, but at length fell back and permitted Martin and Captain Girard to carry the man into the hotel. "After a short struggle the assassin gave up, and was carried without resistance out of the reach of the crowd."

Colonel Says Shot Missed.

"Are you hurt, colonel?" 100 voices called out.

"Oh, no," he responded with a smile. "Missed me that time. I'm not hurt a bit."

"I think we had better be going on," he said to the other members of his party, "or we'll be late."

No one in the party, including Colonel Roosevelt himself, entertained the slightest notion that the colonel had been shot. He felt no shock or pain at the time, and it was assumed that the bullet went wild. As soon as Colonel Roosevelt had assured himself the assassin was safe in the hands of the police he gave orders to drive on to the Auditorium.

They had driven hardly one of the four blocks from the hotel to the Auditorium when John McGrath, another of Colonel Roosevelt's secretaries, uttered a sharp exclamation and pointed to the colonel's breast.

"Look, colonel," he said, "there is a hole in your overcoat."

Blood Found Under Coat.

Colonel Roosevelt looked down, saw the hole, and then unbuttoned the big army coat which he was wearing and thrust his hands beneath. When he withdrew it, his fingers were stained with blood.

Colonel Roosevelt was not at all dismayed. "It looks as though I had been hit," he said, "but I don't think it is anything serious."

Dr. Scurry Terrell, of Dallas, Tex., Colonel Roosevelt's physician, who had entered the automobile just before it started off, insisted that the colonel return to the hotel. He would not hear of it, and the car was driven to the Auditorium.

As soon as they reached the building Colonel Roosevelt was taken into a dressing room, and his outer garments were removed. Dr. Terrell, with the help of Dr. John Stratton, of Milwaukee, and Dr. S. S. Sorrenson, of Racine, Wis., who were in the audience, and came to the dressing room on a call from the platform, made a superficial examination of the wound.

Roosevelt Insists on Talking.

They agreed that it was impossible to hazard a guess as to the extent of the colonel's injuries, and that he should by all means go at once to a hospital.

"I will deliver this speech or die, one or the other," was Colonel Roosevelt's reply.

After the great crowd in the Auditorium had been told of the colonel's injury, and reassured by Mr. Roosevelt himself that his wound was not serious, the colonel went on with his speech.

Doctors Use This for Eczema

Dr. Evans, Ex-Commissioner of Health, says: "There is almost no relation between skin diseases and the blood." The skin must be cured through the skin. The germs must be washed out and so salves have long ago been found worthless. The most advanced physicians of this country are now agreed on this, and are prescribing a wash of wiptergreen, thymol and other ingredients for eczema and all other skin diseases. This compound is known as D. D. D. Prescription for Eczema.

Dr. Holmes, the well known skin specialist writes: "I am convinced that the D. D. D. Prescription is as much a specific for eczema as quinine for malaria. I have been prescribing the D. D. D. remedy for years." It will take away the itch the instant you apply it.

In fact, we are so sure of what D. D. D. will do for you that we will be glad to let you have a $1 bottle on our guarantee that it will cost you nothing unless you find that it does the work.
