Prosecutor Turns Down Mr. Johnson

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]

Chicago, Oct. 21.—Curt refusal to accept any bond that Jack Johnson, heavyweight champion of the world, might furnish to effect the release of Miss Lucille Cameron, the 18-year-old white girl whom the negro fighter is charged with abducting, was made here today by United States District Attorney James H. Wilkerson. Miss Cameron is held as a material witness in the white slave case against Jeanette Dorr.

Johnson, talking over the telephone, told Wilkerson that he was prepared to furnish the $25,000 bail demanded for Miss Cameron's release.

"You are suspected in this case, too," Wilkerson answered the negro. "Did you know that? I want you to understand that I will not approve of any bond you may furnish."

Wilkerson also indicated that he would not approve any bond furnished by a surety company.

Johnson's attorney asked Federal Judge Carpenter to release Lucille Cameron on a writ of habeas corpus. The court refused to hear arguments on the subject, maintaining that the proceeding was useless as the girl is to be brought here tomorrow to testify before the grand jury.

THE OPEN FORUM

The Capital Journal invites public discussion in this department—Let both sides of all matters be fully brought out—It is not the purpose of this newspaper to do the thinking for its readers.

A Famous Socialist.

Fred D. Warren, editor of the Appeal to Reason will be in Salem Monday, October 21st, afternoon and evening, when he will speak at the Armory. The Appeal to Reason has the largest circulation of any newspaper in the world, and this fact is due because they have the most able editor in the United States at their head. Fred D. Warren is a class-conscious workingman, and holds the distinction of being the only man who ever received an unsolicited pardon from the president of the United States, and the only man who ever returned a presidential pardon to the occupant of the White House. Warren was up before the federal court on a charge of offering a reward for the kidnaping of ex-Governor Taylor, of Kentucky, and his return to the authorities. Haywood, Moyer and Pettibone had been kidnaped and taken from their home state to Idaho. Warren desired to show that kidnaping would be declared illegal if it was not a workingman and a labor unionist that was the victim.

Fred D. Warren.

After a long, tedious suit Warren was sentenced to serve six months in jail and a fine of $1500. Warren delivered himself to the authorities, but was told to await until they were ready to lock him up. Finally a pardon came from President Taft who also remitted all but $100 of the fine imposed. And to this day the $100 remain unpaid.

Warren is called "The Fighting Editor of the Appeal," and by some the "Human Bomb." It is true that he is a veritable arsenal of facts and figures, and understands the economic situation in the United States better than any other speaker on the platform. Mr. Warren will speak on the "Political Revolution of 1912," and, as a close student of political and economic subjects, he will doubtless be able to hand out some astounding information for the enlightenment of the voter. Questions will be solicited in regard to his talk and the Socialist philosophy, and any one who is in doubt about the subject will be well repaid, by having their problems solved by one who knows.

FRAGMENTISM IN POLITICS.

An English writer has recently pointed out that popular elections may go through the same development as did the jury system which, in the beginning, merely registered the opinions of twelve men, until it gradually became obvious that their opinions must be formed under fair procedure; then the process itself was so developed and the interviewing of witnesses so controlled that these processes finally became the really essential features of the trial.

America has long been concerned that the registration of the voter's opinion at election should be fairly done, and to this end has instituted the Australian ballot system and many another device, but has as yet done little to develop a careful method by which the voters might form a sound judgment.

The published accounts of the various efforts to manufacture opinion, which preceded the party conventions this year, and of the enormous expenditure of money which these efforts entailed, have made the public cautious, and as a result, all the parties are perforce driven to the pragmatic method, if one chooses to call it so. Politicians are ready, as never before, to conduct the campaign upon educational lines, to drop that oversimplification of current problems to which a campaign always tends, and to stem the flow of political eloquence by a painstaking presentation of fact.

The educational value of the current presidential campaign is most important to the American voter, irrespective of the party which claims his vote. A new method is being evolved freed from the old shibboleths and fitted to our industrial development.—Jane Addams, in The Survey.

If a man can do only very little things, he is not a failure if he does them well.

Varsity Defeats Chemawa

The Willamette football team secured the scalp of the red men from Chemawa to the tune of 29 to 0 in a fast but one-sided game played on the varsity field Saturday afternoon.

The Chemawa braves were completely out-generated by Coach Sweetland's eleven, and although they fought like demons from start to finish, the varsity lads were entirely too much for them.

The game was replete with spectacular plays from start to finish, such men as Francis, Rowland, and Erskine of Willamette and Saunders, Jones and Walker, of Chemawa, being continually in the limelight. The tackling by the red men was also very novel, many of them, since they could not use the flying tackle, which is barred by this year's rules, would plunge through the air, knocking off his feet the man carrying the ball, with their heads and shoulders.

Among the features of the game were two touchdowns by forward passes across the goal line, some long runs by Erskine and Francis, and several very clever delayed passes by the Indians. But straight line bucks and plunges, interspersed with end runs were the main plays used throughout the game.

The First Quarter.—Chemawa kicked off, Homan receiving on the 35-yard line and returning about 12 yards. Francis and Rowland's plunges fail to make yardage and Rowland punts. Saunders' line plunges net Indians much yardage, but ball is soon lost by fumble. Erskine makes end run for 25 yards. Efforts at line plunging are unsuccessful and Rowland is forced to punt. Willamette's line braces up and Indians are held for downs and Saunders punts. Varsity commences play in earnest, have continual success with line plunges and end runs. As Willamette nears goal, Indians redouble efforts and stand is made on 20-yard line, forcing Willamette to try place kick, which is cleverly executed by Francis scoring first 3 points. The Indians kick off, Francis returning to center through broken field. Few uneventful plays and quarter ends with ball on Chemawa's 70-yard line.

Second Quarter.—Willamette advances to striking distance by line plunges and kick from placement goes wide. Saunders punts from 25-yard line. Successful play brings ball back to Chemawa's 5-yard line when it is lost on fumble. Saunders punts out of danger. Varsity makes two unsuccessful plays and are penalized 15 yards for holding with fourth down and 32 yards to go. Rowland passes to Young for just the yardage needed. Francis goes 13 yards for first touchdown, then successfully negotiates with the goal posts for one point more. Indians again kickoff and Willamette makes steady gains to 1-yard line where they are held for downs. Saunders kicked to safety, but varsity immediately starts on return march. Half ends with ball on 15-yard line.

Third Quarter.—Willamette kicked off, Saunders returning 25 yards through broken field. Bolt intercepts forward pass, but ball is soon lost on fumble. Chemawa attempts another pass, Rowland intercepting it. Line plunges follow and forward pass. Rowland to Young, scores second touchdown. Francis kicks goal. Indians kick off, ball changes hands twice on account of fumbles, then Willamette gets under way, Erskine ending up with a 40-yard run for touchdown. Francis kicks goal, score totaling 23 points. Chemawa kicks off and rest of quarter uneventful.

Fourth Quarter.—Pass Rowland to Small, nets 20 yards. Attempt to make second pass fails and Rowland punts. 40 yards, man receiving being downed.

In tracks. Red men fumble, varsity recovering. Line plunges follow, then pass over goal line, Rowland to Hepp, sets final score. Homan punts out to Hepp, but try at goal is unsuccessful. Score, Willamette, 29; Chemawa, 0. Remaining period of play uneventful, game ending with ball in center of field. The line-up:

Chemawa—Center, Dunbar; guards, Crawford, McDonald; tackles, Stanger, Peone; ends, Jones, Powers; quarterback, Downey; halfbacks, Walker, Saunders; fullback, Eader.

Willamette—Center, Blackwell; guards Day, Lund, Drake; tackles, Bolt, Watson; ends, Young, Hepp; quarterback, Homan, Small; halfback, Francis, Erskine, Homan, Stearns, Small; fullback, Rowland. Referee, MacRae; umpire, McClellan; time of quarters, 15 and 10.

Following the first game was the game between the high school and Willamette second, resulting in defeat for the former, the score being 7 to 6. This game was a close, hard fight from the start and although the varsity second scored in the first few minutes of play, the high school never laid down for one minute. The varsity second recovered their own kick off right at the start of the game and bucked it right on over for the only score of the game. Quarterback Booth kicked the goal. From then on the play was in the center of the field, neither goal being seriously threatened. Those starting for the varsity seconds, were Booth, Doane, Chapelle and Rains, while Farmer, Bull, and Hendricks were shining lights for the high school. The line-up:

High School—Center, Reinhart; guards, Wright, McClellan; tackles, Wilson, Dunn, Wann; ends, Barnes, C. Wilson; quarterback, Farmer; halfbacks, Bull, Spalding; fullback, Hendricks.

Willamette Second—Center Shumway; guards, Rains, Nietual; tackles, Anderson, Jory; ends, Meek, Burdett; quarterback, Booth; halfbacks, Chapelle, Doane; fullback, Reynolds.

Referee, Bellinger; umpire, McClellan; time of quarters, 15 and 10.

He Is Creating a Scarcity of State Officials

To do away with the state board of sheep commissioners and the office of state veterinarian, and combining the functions of the two departments under one department, to be headed by a state stock inspector, is a scheme of Governor West's, as a part of his campaign to cut down expenses of the state. The governor figures that the change will save the state about $2500 yearly.

At present there is an appropriation of $2500 for the board of sheep commissioners, while the state veterinarian receives a salary of $2000 yearly and $1500 as expense money.
