

Meyers --- Salem's Big Department Store --- Meyers

About the Free Buick Auto
You have just 16 days left in which to guess for the Buick Touring Car. Some one will surely get it, and it may be yours if you try. A free guess with every $1.00 purchase. See the beautiful auto in our shoe section.

CHARACTER IN BUSINESS
The worth of a store, as of a man, depends on character. Growth is the sign manual of health and character. The essence of commercial health is fair dealing. Commercial growth is nourished only by honest and intelligent management and enterprise. Years of commercial health--- honest dealing in "Good Goods" at fairest prices, have given the Meyers store its sound constitution and its present high position in the business world. Quality first; after that, prices as low as we can make them.

About Mail and Phone Orders
The telephone and Uncle Sam's mail service are great time and trouble-savers. If you are unable to shop at Meyers in person, just phone or write and we guarantee to give you the same service as though you were at our counters. Satisfaction or money back.

Special Sale of Seasonable Dress Goods all this Week --- See Displays of Fine Linens for Thanksgiving

The Choicest Suits, Coats, Dresses and Furs are to be seen at Salem's Style Center

Now that the more severe weather has arrived and as you turn your mind toward supplying your needs of the season's new Suits, Coats and Dresses, please accept an invitation to come and inspect our excellent assortments.

We have taken particular care in getting a choice collection of garments for Fall and Winter---having searched many markets and inspected hundreds of garments, we are enabled to realize the excellent stock we offer to Salem women and we are sure that the styles, qualities and fabrics are not excelled anywhere. The prices are always reasonable.

The Usual Thing--Divorce--- Summons have been received at the sheriff's office from Dubuque, Iowa, for service upon Arthur Artus. The suit was brought by Katherine Artus, and an absolute divorce is asked for on the grounds of desertion.

Warning to Merchants--- Unauthorized and extravagant bills, having been charged against me, I hereby request all persons, merchants and dealers particularly included, not to sell any goods to any one whomsoever on my credit. John A. Carson. 10-21-31

Mt. Angel a Winner--- A game of football was played at Mt. Angel Saturday between the Mt. Angel college team and the team from the Woodburn Athletic club, which resulted in a victory for Mt. Angel by a score of 23 to 0. The Athletics played good ball, but the Mt. Angel team was too much for them.

Petty or Grand Larceny--- George O. Savage, an enthusiastic supporter of Woodrow Wilson, reports that some miscreant stole the picture of his standard bearer off his porch during the night time. George says if he will call during the day so he can get a chance at him he will call it square. He does not propose to be outdone, so has posted up another one.

Married at Vancouver--- Announcement was made in the evening Portland papers Saturday of a marriage license issued at Vancouver, Wash., to Esther M. Sayer and C. W. Stage, of Salem. Both parties are well known here, but it is understood that they will make their home in Portland, where the groom is manager of a grocery store belonging to "Lucky" Jack Peterson.

The Men All Right--- Dr. W. H. Byrd has just completed the physical examination of the motorists and conductors in the employ of the Portland, Eugene & Eastern Railway Co. The examination was made to test the sight and hearing of the men on whom the safety of the public depends, and resulted in every one proving himself satisfactory in every respect. There were 40 men examined, most of whom are old employes on the street cars of the city.

Reception at High School--- Friday night the high school was the scene of a very pleasant gathering in the shape of an informal reception by the city superintendent and principal of the high school to the board of education and teachers. The entire board was present, as were ex-members, Epley and Moores. A quartet, consisting of Mesdames Wheelock, Hinges and Babcock and Miss Bushnell, rendered two songs that were very much appreciated. Miss Kunz rendered a piano solo with rare technique and ability, while the high school orchestra, which is a new feature this year, rendered a number of splendid selections. Punch was served by the girls of the high school.
