A Chimney Fire—The fire department was called last night about 6 o'clock to the corner of Liberty and Union streets where it was found a chimney fire had caused some one to turn in an alarm. The department was not needed, but remained until the fire had done the work of cleaning out the chimney. Governor Loses His Dog—Governor West is loser of a thoroughbred Airdale pup which is believed to have been stolen last night from the state tuberculosis sanitarium where it was under the training of the engineer at that institution. The pup is four and a half months old and valued very highly by the governor. The dog was seen at midnight. They are built on a different plan and are far superior to all others. Buren & Hamilton. To Meet Friday—Woman's Home Industries League will meet Friday afternoon at 3:30 at Board of Trade rooms. All members and those wishing to join are welcome. His Father Ill—Ed Pugh, a former Salem resident, but of late of Portland, is in the city attending his father, D. H. Pugh, who is seriously ill at his home here. The older Mr. Pugh is 79 years old and for the past few weeks has been in a very poor state of health. Business Increasing—From the fact that the Imperial Furniture company has just received a carload of roll-top desks, it is evident that a large increase in the number of business firms in the city is expected. This firm believes there will be a great demand for the office furnishing before long and in order to be fully prepared, ordered a full carload from the east. Some Big Halibut—Some of the largest halibut ever shipped to this city are now on display at Fitts' fish market on Court street. These big fish arrived this morning and are attracting no small amount of attention. The shipment consists of nine fish and not one weighs less than 100 pounds, while some weigh as much as 130. Mr. Fitts reports that the salmon catch at present at Yaquina is unusually large and of a splendid variety. Sent to Asylum—Joseph E. Groshong, a farmer 45 years of age, of Scotts Mills, was committed to the state insane asylum yesterday afternoon by Probate Judge Bushey. The unfortunate man imagines that his wife would be better off without him and has been going away from home and exposing himself so that he might get sick and die in order that his wife, so he says, might get the insurance money on his life. There are no children. Groshong is a native Oregonian. Back From Switzerland—Mr. and Mrs. August Aufrance returned this morning from Orvin, Switzerland, where they went last year on a visit. Alfred Aufrance, a brother, returned with them, as did Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Aufrance, who while away were married in their native land. On their return they stopped to visit relatives at San Marcos, Texas; and Chico, Cal. Mr. and Mrs. Aufrance are parents of A. Eugene Aufrance, county recorder. Don't Need Snow—Thanks to the progressiveness of the residents along Lincoln street which leads up the Reservoir hill, youngsters residing in that vicinity are having the time of their lives now coasting down the long stretch of pavement recently laid. The street is about five blocks long and the incline is such that the wagon coasters with speed. A dozen or more vehicles of like nature were seen sailing down the big hill last Sunday and the antics of the kids in their attempts to hold fast to their wagons, afforded much amusement for the many visitors who witnessed the sport.

Keep Your Face Smooth—Sanitary massages. Davis' barber shop. New Program at the Bligh—Featuring Lucille, a big three-reel production. Big Bargains—In rugs for a few days only. Buren & Hamilton. The Most Delicate—Fabric made in safe with the Salem Steam Laundry. Weather's Getting Cold—Warm your house with one of the Imperial Furniture company's A1 heaters. Victor Gas Heaters—Use less gas and make more heat. Buy the heater for your bath room, bed room or office. Buren & Hamilton. Old Friend Visits Him—Mr. Edwin Draper, of Utica, N. Y., representative of the Jell-o Manufacturing Company, is in the city and is the guest of J. M. Lawrence, the two being old time friends back in Utica. See the Wheels Go Round—In Lockwood's window, 216 North Commercial. The electric exhibit well worth seeing. Shows how much you can save on your electric light bill by using the latest Shelby Mazda globes. Sent to Asylum—Lewia Hahn aged 49, the erstwhile preacher, has been recommitted to the insane asylum, the commitment having been made this forenoon. Why Spend 20c per Pound—For pork chops, when I sell luscious fresh salmon and halibut at 10c? Fish builds up the brain and stomach; meat only satisfies a temporary appetite. Salem Fish & Poultry Market, Phone 2125. Body Arrives—The body of I. N. Maxwell, who died in San Diego, California, October 19 1912, arrived this afternoon on the Shasta Limited and was taken to the undertaking parlors of Lehman & Clough. Arrangement for the funeral have not yet been made. Sheldon Talked to Them—Rev. Chas. M. Sheldon, of Topeka, Kansas, famous as the author of "In His Steps," and other books, addressed the students of the university at the chapel hour this morning. Governor Offers Reward—Incident to his campaign against vice, Governor West today issued a public proclamation offering a reward of $100 for information leading to the arrest and resulting conviction of any person violating the law of the state against the maintenance of vice apartments. Rev. Sheldon Here—Rev. Charles Sheldon, author of "In His Steps," is here and kept pretty busy. He spoke at the University and also in the high school this morning, and this afternoon at 3 o'clock delivered an address in the First Congregational church, where he will speak again tonight at 8 o'clock, at which time, and in connection with his address, Miss Helen Mack will sing. No charges are being made for admission, and everybody is invited. In Jack Johnson Class—A half-pulling match occurred at the corner of High and Court streets late last night in which two girls, that had had some difficulty at a dance a few nights before proceeded to settle the dispute much the same way as though they were men. The smaller of the two succeeded in getting her antagonist down, and then she broke her umbrella over her prostrate form. The altercation attracted quite a crowd but before the officers arrived the one underneath had about all she wanted and seemed satisfied to let the matter drop. It is reported that some teeth were knocked out but this could not be verified. No arrests were made. Bligh Is "Man of the Hour"—Thalia, the muse of comedy, and Momus, the god of laughter, have nothing on T. G. Bligh, the theatrical man of Salem. Not content with presenting to the amusement lovers of this city a program far superior to that ever undertaken before the erection of his play house, he has just enjoyed the most successful week by engaging Trevitt's military dogs, a band of animal actors trained to perform feats equal to those of a human being. In conjunction, Mr. Bligh competes with Momus, in that he has secured one, if not the most, laughable and interesting motion picture comedy ever presented in Salem. It is entitled "The Pleasure of Camping." Intermingled will be the Crawfords in travesty work, a 101 Bison picture entitled "The Penalty," "The Mail Clerk's Temptation" and "For the Love of Her." In all Mr. Bligh presents an extraordinary program this week, and his enthusiasm in the interest of Salem theatre-goers is commendable. The colonel will have to be hurt a good deal worse before he will cease to crave at least three big meals a day.

The New Steamer Grahamona to be Put on Route

The Oregon City Transportation Company's steamer Grahamona will reach Salem tonight, her first trip to Salem, she having been completed about a month ago. She will commence her regular run between here and Portland tomorrow morning, leaving her dock at the foot of Trade street at 6 o'clock. Sunday morning the company will send the handsome new steamer on an excursion down the river, leaving here at 9 o'clock, returning at noon. This is for business men and their families only. The Grahamona is one of the handsomest ever plying the Willamette. Her cabins are roomy, clean, beautifully furnished and well lighted, and while she will carry a big cargo of freight, she is also built for speed. The river trip to Portland is a delightful one, and every Salemite, should take it at least once. GOVERNOR MARSHALL IN SALEM. (Continued from page 1.)

danger of a one-man government. I regret, with the rest of you, the attempt that was made upon the life of Mr. Roosevelt, but a bullet cannot make a bad issue good, or a good issue bad. A government of the people is the only democratic government, and I appeal to the people of Oregon to return to that kind of government. Must Elect Congressmen. "With all my power I want to urge the election of Dr. Harry Lane to the United States senate, and also the election of the Democratic candidates for congress. Wilson will be powerless without their help, to bring about the reforms called for in the Democratic platform. I would rather see Woodrow Wilson defeated than to see him become the chief executive of this nation, but bound hand and foot by a Republican senate and a Republican house of representatives." Governor Marshall emphasized labor conditions as he observes them in the United States, declaring that he wants, and the Democratic party will bring about, legislation that is beneficial for the native workingman, but that he is against measures that merely protect foreign laborers, who send their money out of the country. At the conclusion of his address the governor and party took the first train to Portland, where Marshall speaks tonight. Vaudeville. On Friday and Saturday, October 25 and 26, the people of Salem will have an opportunity of witnessing a very unique vaudeville performance, consisting of eight acts of vaudeville numbers, including the great Skates Ray, who has just completed the Orpheum time. It is not necessary to go into particulars on this, as everybody acquainted with vaudeville will appreciate seeing this great act. The remaining acts are all good and in all the performance will be the best ever put on for the popular price of 15 and 25c. The troupe is controlled by the Comedy Bells Company, of Los Angeles, California, so don't judge this by other cheap vaudeville, as you will certainly receive your money's worth. In addition to the eight acts, you will witness two of the very best moving pictures. This will be a continuous performance, starting at 7:30 sharp. Tickets sold up to 10 p. m., making two and one-half shows. Special matinee Saturday beginning at 2:15. Admission 15c all over the house. Bring the children. This is a refined show, secured here as a fill in, as they are booked solid from Eugene south. Inspected Corps—Cynthia S. Dunlap, department senior vice-president, Oregon Woman's Relief Corps, has returned from Portland, where with the department president, Jennie C. Pritchard, they inspected the corps of Portland. Journal "Want Ads." bring results.
