FULL LEARNED WIRE TELEGRAPH REPORT

JUST A MODEST CLAIM.

A FULL telegraphic report, received by any newspaper in a city is of immense importance to that city. The public generally does not realize this fact, for the American people have a habit of accepting things as they are without bothering to inquire into the cause. This full telegraphic service, such as The Capital Journal receives, is taken as a matter-of-course by the readers, and while this news service is at times not of the utmost importance, there are occasions when to be without it would be almost a political and civic crime. In times of calamity and disaster, when the public feeling is wrought up, the local paper with full telegraphic service, is at hand with the complete story, the full details, that otherwise would not be available for hours. It is there with the news long before the paper goes to press, putting on its bulletin boards the information the public is looking for.

As an illustration, Tuesday night The Capital Journal received full returns, the same full dispatches that were flashed to the big dailies of the great cities. Salem had the news just as complete and just as early as Portland or San Francisco, and it took the only means available of giving, not only to its own patrons, but to all who cared to see, the full returns. They were brief as shown by the aid of a stereopticon, but they were correct, and Salem knows Tuesday night, about the election results, all that it otherwise would have waited until next day for and then would have had to pay for by purchasing the Oregonian.

The Capital Journal is not patting itself on the back for giving the public this service, for that was its duty, as well as pleasure, as an up-to-date little city paper; but it calls attention to the fact, that it is filling and filling well its position as a purveyor of news. It calls your attention as wide-awake citizens of our rapidly developing city, that it is one of the many things aiding in this growth; that its telegraph service, the very best possible to get, is something Salem would rudely miss should it be cut out and it points out that it is worthy of your hearty support and patronage—your help in maintaining its high standard of news service, and therefore feels that it is not over-stepping the bounds of modesty, or asking more than should gladly be given it by every Salemite, when it suggests that it should go into every Salem home. Try it a month, and you will not be without it.

BUT WHAT'S THE USE.

THERE are two things the newspapers of the whole country have advocated, pleaded for, wrote about, insisted on, done everything that human ingenuity could conceive, to accomplish, and yet they have never succeeded. One of these is to get the election boards of the counties, in sending in the ballot boxes and returns to the county clerk, after election, to mark a ballot with the total results, so that the papers and the public could learn the results before the board meets and canvasses the returns. A large majority of the boards do this, but there is always a number that do not, and the result is that information in which the public is more deeply interested than in any other—the election returns—is unavailable.

In many cases this does not matter much, for the results can, with reasonable certainty, be forecasted from the returns available. In close elections, however, this cannot be done, and the public must wait with such patience as it can muster until the canvassing board acts. This is the case this year, for instance, on the U. S. senatorship, on equal suffrage and several other matters here in Oregon. The vote is so close that, while the unknown precincts are not liable to change the results, it is easily possible for them to do so. Had tickets been sent showing results in each precinct, the tabulated vote could have been given by Thursday, at the latest, but as it is, the actual results in the state will not be known until next week.

The other matter is purely a newspaper affair, and that is, the apparent impossibility of getting the ministers to send into the offices of evening papers their Sunday church announcements Friday evenings. They do not seem to realize how much the papers would appreciate this. These notices are set—if received—at night and so do not interfere with the setting of the telegraph and local news, which cannot be gotten Friday evenings.

Of 37 Measures Voted on Eleven Passed 26 Failed

As a result of the election just held woman's suffrage was defeated in this county as well as the Blue Sky law and the abolishment of capital punishment. The vote against extending the elective franchise to the gentler sex was close, but in the case of capital punishment the majority against it is about 1000. The majority against the Blue Sky law is about 1800. The electors refused to abolish the state senate by a vote of 1300 for and 3154 against. All of the good road measures proposed were defeated by decisive majorities and the vote against single tax and the repeal of the present local option single tax was nearly two to one. The measure proposing the appropriating of money for improvements at the University of Oregon went down to ignominious defeat. The bill for hotel inspector was also badly defeated.

Returns are in for 43 out of 51 precincts of the county and it is not likely that the remaining eight precincts will change the final results in any case.

It will not be possible to get the total vote on all the measures until the county canvassing board meets next week, as no copy of the returns was kept in several precincts and the result can only be learned on opening the boxes.

The Indian Is Held From Developing; He Must Get Fair Play

By
ARTHUR C. PARKER,
Secretary and Treasurer of the National Indian Conference

EVERY thoughtful student of human development believes that the INDIAN POSSESSES EVERY ABILITY AND CAPACITY FOR DEVELOPMENT and that he is capable of any attainment possible for men provided his environment is made normal. This postulates that the Indian is equal in inherent capacity and therefore NOT AN INFERIOR. Many mistakes and much misery have been produced by dogmatically asserting the contrary.

Hampered by a false environment and artificial social conditions, though necessary to restrain him, the Indian has found it DIFFICULT TO DEVELOP ALONG NORMAL LINES. The education, civilization and incentive came from without and not from within.

The INDIAN IS A CAPABLE, USEFUL AMERICAN when he is permitted to be. There can be little doubt that the majority of Americans desire justice and progress for the Indian.

Americans, as a rule, believe in FAIR PLAY. As the law stands this is now difficult to give. An uncertain and indetermined status makes it possible for dishonest interests to prey upon the Indian so affected. There has often been the lack of fair play and often no redress. The LAW BLOCKS THE WAY.

THE INDIAN HAS NEVER BEEN THE SUBJECT OF SEARCHING SOCIOLOGICAL STUDY. BASIC CAUSES FOR CONDITIONS HAVE NEVER BEEN STUDIED; HENCE THE "PROBLEM" THERE MUST BE A NEW BEGINNING. SCIENTIFIC SYSTEM MUST SUPPLANT DISORDER.

THE BEST PROOF.
Salem Citizens Cannot Doubt It.
Doan's Kidney Pills were used—they cured.
The story was told to Salem residents.
Time has strengthened the evidence. Has proven the cure permanent. The testimony is home testimony—the proof convincing.
It can be investigated by Salem residents.
F. A. Sutton, Hoyt and West Sts., Salem, Oregon, says: "For ten or twelve years kidney trouble was the plague of my life. I suffered intensely from pain in the small of my back and was often unable to move. I doctored and tried a number of remedies but to no avail, and I was in a bad way when I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Dr. Stone's Drug Store. They benefited me at once and after I had taken the contents of three boxes, I was free from every symptom of kidney complaint. My health is now of the best and for that reason I cannot recommend Doan's Kidney Pills too highly." (Statement given January 31, 1906.)

Re-Endorsement.
On November 22, 1909, Mr. Sutton confirmed his former statement saying: "I will reiterate all I have previously said in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills. This remedy cured me three years ago and I have had no return attack of kidney trouble."

Who Said Corns? I Use "Gets It!"

It Works on a Sure, New Plan

"Glory! Come and See How GETS-IT Works"

"GETS-IT" the new corn cure, on a new principle, works like the touch of a fairy's wand. No more knives, razors, files or other instruments of torture for corn-sufferers. No more salves, plasters and bandages that hurt the rest of the toe more than they relieve the corn.

"GETS-IT" never irritates or turns the true flesh raw. It is as safe as water. But my, how it does go after corns, bunions, callouses, and warts. It works painlessly, but it shrivels 'em right up till they drop off, leaving firm, healthy flesh underneath.

"GETS-IT" is guaranteed to give satisfaction, or your money refunded. All druggists sell "GETS-IT" at 25c a bottle, or it will be sent on receipt of price by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago. Sold by J. C. LAST BOAT COMES DOWN FROM ALASKA

(UNITED PRESS LEARNED WIRE.)

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 8.—The steamer Victoria, of the Alaska Steamship company, arrived last night from Nome, after a stormy voyage. The Victoria's trip is the last one to be made this season from Nome. She brought down 464 passengers and a large shipment of gold bullion. The weather encountered was some of the worst in the vessel's history.

Granted Insurance After Consumption

There are so many cases of Consumption reported where the details show the disease started with a cold or a cough, that it is really surprising that people are not more anxious to immediately stop these apparently minor troubles. Our advice is "stop the cough, or cold, if possible, without delay." Otherwise more serious troubles are likely to follow. If the medicines you are now taking do not bring relief, try Eckman's Alternative, as this man did—237 Dean St., Brooklyn, N. Y.
"Gentlemen: I am giving you below a brief history of my case, which I trust you will use for the benefit of those suffering from any similar troubles.
"About a year and a half ago I noticed that my health was rapidly falling, until at the end of six months my weight had fallen to 125 pounds. I was troubled with night sweats, a severe cough and was very weak, having in fact absolutely no ambition whatever. About this time I consulted a physician, who told me my lungs were affected. Not satisfied I went to another doctor, who after examining me said that I was in the first stages of consumption. At this point I started to take Eckman's Alternative. The night sweats stopped almost immediately, my cough became looser and gradually disappeared. My weight is now 142 pounds and my physician has pronounced me perfectly sound—which, together with the fact that I have been accepted by two different insurance companies for insurance, makes me sure of my entire recovery by Eckman's Alternative. I should be very glad to communicate with any one who would be interested in my case."
(Sworn Affidavit)
W. E. GEE.
Eckman's Alternative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Troubles, and in rebuilding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for more evidence. For sale by all leading druggists.
