Pomeroy, the jeweler of square prices.

Today's Saturday. See Davis' Barber shop.

Watch expert. I can fix your watch. Rollins, 145 South Commercial.

Water notice, Sunday being the 10th, water bills will be discounted on Monday, 11th.

Only a few weeks till Christmas. Better have them taken at once—those holiday photos. The Parker studio.

Telephone Lockwood about those new Shelby Mazda electric globes. Brighter and whiter light for one-third the current.

Denver Times—With David Bispham it matters not how familiar the song. Bispham will create it anew every time he sings it.

Do you enjoy buying fuel? You won't have to buy much if you own a Calif Bros. range, corner of Court and High streets.

Bispham's staging of "Eljah" has become a criterion by which to judge others, and is admittedly unrivaled, both vocally and dramatically.

Frank Meredith, secretary of the state fair board, is confined at his home with an affection of the ear. The attendance of a physician has been required.

Mrs. J. H. Haas and Mrs. Ida M. Babcock have gone to Oakland, Cal., to spend the winter months. They will be guests of Miss Ida Haas, a daughter of Mrs. Haas and a former Salem girl.

David Bispham closes his concert with a dramatic reading, "King Robert Sley," with music, in which his great dramatic ability and magnetic personality are revealed to the utmost.

Our stock of holiday mounts and folders is complete. We have the most elaborate display of fancy cards in town. Let us prove this to you. The Parker studio.

Oil drinkers! Stop using that greasy old lamp and get an "Aladdin" money back lamp. Beautiful white light for one-third the coal oil. See Lockwood at 218 North Commercial.

Everyone that has taken the drugless treatment speaks of its merits.

Dr. S. Z. Bartley, rooms 6-7 upstairs, 147 North Commercial street. Free examinations on Mondays and Wednesdays only.

Charles K. Spaulding, of the Spaulding Logging Co., has moved with his family from Newberg to Salem, and is making his home at Chemsaketa and Seventeenth streets. Mr. Spaulding will build a home in Salem.

Scores of letters of congratulation upon his election from all over the state have been received by Secretary of State Olcott. Among Mr. Olcott's supporters were most of the big mercantile firms of Portland.

Among the patrons of Carrie Jacobs-Bond's work (singers and teachers of note) may be mentioned: Jean de Reszke, David Bispham, Franz von Dreyer, W. L. Hubbard, William Sherwood, Schumann-Heink.

Henry V. Compton, of Boise, Idaho has arrived in Salem and expects to locate here. In Boise Mr. Compton was employed with the Boise National Bank. He is a nephew of L. H. Compton, of the Y. M. C. A., and is a guest of his relative.

Don't get the idea that photographs are expensive. The common kind cost much money, but the "good kind" does. But even at that are much cheaper than other presents you will buy. Come in let us show you some of the "good kind" we can make. The Parker studio.

Yesterday Ida May Tilden filed a suit for divorce from Ezra E. Tilden, to whom she was married in Red Oak, Iowa, December 6, 1900. There is one child as issue of the marriage, Harold J. Tilden, who is now in the custody of his grandparents in Red Deer, Alberta. The charges named against the defendant is the usual one of cruel and inhuman treatment.

A good-sized crowd went to Portland today to witness the football game at that place between the University of Washington and the Oregon Agricultural college, among them being several of the boys from the Willamette university team. One attraction about the game is that it may be the deciding game of the Northwest for this season.

On the site of the Willamette Power Co., on the Santiam, in the Bretschneider region, which was recently contacted by that company and the Hammond Lumber Co., William Johnson has filed a right in the office of the state water board of control. He files for 1909 second foot, generating a horsepower of 10,000. A general commercial use will be made of the water.

The men's Bible class at the Y. M. C. A. which will meet each Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, except on the first Sunday of each month, will take up a study of the Life of Christ. The class will be conducted by O. A. Stillman. The meetings on the first Sunday of the month will be taken up with addresses by men of prominence in various lines of work.

W. R. Newell, who took a leading part in working for the passage of the millage bill which was defeated in the recent election, has been appointed a member of the board of regents of the state university, to take the place vacated some time ago by the resignation of J. C. Almsworth. The defeat of the millage bill leaves intact the separate boards of regents for both the state university and Oregon Agricultural college.

Sunday chicken dinner at the Elitte Cafe, 35c; home cooking and room for all.

Water notice, Sunday being the 10th, water bills will be discounted on Monday, 11th.

Now is the time to buy your dress hats at reduced prices. The French Shop.

Special reduction on all hats for reception and theatre wear. The French Shop.

Water notice, Sunday being the 10th, water bills will be discounted on Monday, 11th.

Mrs. L. Curtis has moved her millinery apartments to first floor Masonic building.

David Bispham will sing in English, with the exception of two arias. Bispham's English is faultless. All singers and students will be greatly benefited by hearing him.

The election returns are now in from 49 out of 51 precincts in Marion county. The two remaining precincts are Elkhorn and Marion. They make no change in results for representative.

Two candidates filed expense accounts with the county clerk this morning, each of which declares that he spent nothing in his behalf as a candidate. They are T. F. Hayes, candidate for justice of the peace of Woodburn district, and E. C. Milton, Socialist candidate for county judge.

Governor West has received a request from District Attorney E. B. Tongue, of Astoria, for a requisition to be served on the extradition of August Mottala, who is wanted in Clatsop county for contributing to the delinquency of minors.

No money was spent in the campaign by A. K. Ware, of Medford, Progressive candidate for presidential elector, according to a statement filed with the secretary of state yesterday. J. E. Anderson, of The Dalles, candidate for representative on the Republican ticket, spent $33.

A. B. Hudson, Democratic candidate for county judge has filed a statement of his expenses during the campaign just closed. It shows a total expenditure of $80. The law allows ten days after the election in which to file a statement of expenses incurred in the election, which refers to all candidates, whether successful or not.

Mrs. L. Curtis, who formerly conducted a millinery store on Liberty street, is now located in new apartments on the first floor of the new Masonic building, corner State and High streets. Mrs. Curtis' new place of business is located in the apartments two windows south of the Oregon Electric passenger depot, and although but a short time has elapsed since her removal from the old quarters the new store is a great credit to the city.

Joseph Martin, old-time Republican and staunch supporter of Teddy Roosevelt, is a most disgusted man today. A shiny Bull Moose which Martin wore in his button hole, is now turned heels skyward and the owner calmly asserted his pet animal as dead, dead, dead. "Hooryay for Wilson," says Joe. "May his administration be most successful."

Incidentally William Esch, former candidate for sheriff and now the real officer, made the run of his life Tuesday. So fast did this candidate run that he was compelled to purchase a new pair of shoes at Reinhardt's yesterday afternoon. Although "Bill" will not have another opportunity to run for some time unless it is after a criminal or delinquent taxpayer, he bought about the most substantial pair of shoes on sale at Reinhardt's.

Not a Union Labor Act.

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 7.—An explosion, supposedly resulting from spontaneous combustion, this afternoon blew the top off the Occidental mill, in the center of the milling district here. No fatalities have been reported. The explosion started a fire, which spread rapidly, necessitating the turning in of a general alarm.

Mrs. George J. Pearce, accompanied by her two daughters, and her mother Mrs. E. C. Small, returned home Thursday after a month of delightful visiting in Portland, the guests of Mrs. A. F. Bradford. Mrs. Small and Mrs. Pearce passed some time in Tacoma, while the Misses Pearce remained in Portland.

Miss Olive Misamore, formerly a teacher in the Salem public schools, and now of the Portland schools, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carey E. Martin, on South Liberty street.

Two Glory Tickets.

Two marriage licenses were issued at the clerk's office this morning as follows: Al Sutter, aged 25 years and a farmer, of Salem, and Elvira M. Charles, a teacher, aged 21 years, of Salem. The wedding is to take place today. John Henry Frazer, a carpenter, aged 46 years, of Dallas, and Margarette Griffith, aged 38 years, of Garfield.

Got a Bad Fall.

D. D. Tompkins, the plasterer, while working on a house in South Salem, fell from the scaffolding and sustained a sprain of one of the shoulder joints. The extent of the injury cannot be told at this time, but the attending physician is of the opinion that some of the ligaments are torn loose. He was otherwise bruised and shaken, but no bones were broken. He was taken to his home on North Summer street, where he will be confined to his bed for several days.

BORN.

ASPENWALL.—At the Willamette Sanatorium, Sunday, November 3, 1912, to Mr. and Mrs. Pierre Aspenwall, a girl.

The happy father is the "Loganberry King" of Brooks, this being the first child.

An Immense Repertoire.

Bispham's concert repertoire includes the enormous number of one thousand classical and modern songs, thirty operas, and more than one hundred oratorios and cantatas.

Monmouth Normal Coming.

Monmouth Normal First—The normal is showing its progressive spirit, and appreciation of good music by arranging a party of teachers and students to attend the Bispham-Bond concert.

Can't Serve on Juries.

[EXCERPT FROM PRESS RELEASE.]

Portland, Or., Nov. 9.—Oregon women are going to be denied the fruits of their newly-acquired suffrage to the extent that they will positively not be allowed to serve on juries petit or otherwise, anywhere in the state. The "Oregon system" specifies "for men only" when it comes to jury duty, and a speedy declaration of war is expected from the suffragette camps. There are also several kinks in the naturalization laws that have to be ironed out before many foreign women now in the state will be allowed to cast their ballots.

CATCHING SALMON IN PEYALLUP'S STREETS

[EXCERPT FROM PRESS RELEASE.]

Tacoma, Wash., Nov. 9.—Salmon fishing in the main street is the latest diversion of citizens of Peayallup. The fish come from Puget Sound through Peayallup river and into Clark's creek, which crosses the main thoroughfare. The rise of salmon is so great at times that the water bubbles like an eddy.

ROCKEFELLER'S MINISTER WANTS TO BE CITIZEN

San Francisco, Nov. 9.—Application to the federal court for admission to citizenship in the United States was made here today by the Rev. Charles F. Aked, pastor of the First Congregational church here. Before coming to San Francisco, Dr. Aked was pastor of John D. Rockefeller's temple of worship in New York. He arrived in New York from England April 7, 1907.

IN SOCIETY

alternate has every privilege but voting, which includes the social functions.

Every indication points to a large meeting in Portland this month, when it is hoped that much good work will be reported and initiated.

The Salem Woman's Club is holding its first meeting this afternoon in the club's permanent quarters, the new library building. This being guest day, an interesting program has been arranged for entertainment. Short talks will be given by Mrs. E. Sherwood, Mrs. P. H. Raymond and Mrs. Rollin K. Page. Mrs. Morrison Reid will sing and Miss Ethel Thomas recite. The women of the executive board will be hostesses.

Personal Notes.

Mr. Morris Abrahamson, of San Francisco, California, will be week-end guest of the F. P. Talkingtons.

Mrs. Frederic Theisen and her little son and daughter, went to Portland Wednesday to remain over Sunday, with the Joseph Baumgartners at the Dozendorf apartments.

Mrs. C. M. Walker and Mrs. Connell Dyer attended the Marsden-Loughhead nuptials in Albany last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Geiger, of Leavenworth, Kansas, and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Munger, of Lafayette, Oregon, were home guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Jones, of Gervais road.

Miss June Samson, of Portland, a former Willamette university student, came up to attend the Geiger-Jones wedding.

Is an Author.

Carrie Jacobs-Bond entertains with both readings and songs, of which she is the author and composer. Here is one of her poems:

Is there anything so good
As being home—un' understood?
Folks don't criticize your ways
Where they've known you all your days.
Right in your home.

Wall, I'm thankin' God for this—
I've been liked (enough to miss)
In the place I loved the best—
An I've just come back to rest.
An' stay at home.

UPSET STOMACH AND INDIGESTION

HEARTBURN, GAS, SOURNESS OR DYSPEPSIA ENDED IN FIVE MINUTES WITH "PAPE'S DIAPESIN."

Time it! In five minutes all stomach distress will go. No indigestion, heartburn, sourness or belching of gas, acid, or eructations of undigested food, no dizziness, bloating, foul breath or headache.

Pape's Diapepsin is noted for its speed in regulating upset stomachs. It is the surest, quickest and most certain remedy in the whole world, besides it is harmless.

Millions of men and women now eat their favorite foods without fear—they know now it is needless to have a bad stomach.

Please, for your sake, get a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from any drug store and put your stomach right. Don't keep on being miserable—life is too short—you are not here long, so make your stay agreeable. Eat what you like and digest it; enjoy it, without dread of rebellion in the stomach.

Diapepsin belongs in your home anyway. It should be kept handy, should one of the family eat something which doesn't agree with them or in case of an attack of indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis or stomach derangement at daytime or during the night it is there to give the quickest surest relief known.
