Bathtub Trust Next on the List

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Chicago, Nov. 30.—Suit similar to that brought against the "bathtub trust" is soon to be tried against the "moving picture trust," in Philadelphia. Joseph R. Darling, special agent of the department of justice and Edwin P. Grosvenor, assistant attorney-general, have been in Chicago, interviewing independent picture theatre owners for the last week.

Darling said today that this newest business combination has grown to mammoth proportions, and that it represents an investment of between $100,000,000 and $120,000,000. Darling said:

"It maintains control of the moving picture business through a pool of its patents on machines and film processes. We believe we will be able to force a refund of $10,000,000 to picture house owners, which, we contend, has been illegally collected in license fees."

STILL HOLD JONAS ON SUSPICION OF MURDER

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] San Francisco, Nov. 30.—Unless an attempt is made by habeas corpus proceedings to bring about the release of Joseph Jonas, suspected of the murder of his aged mother, and who is held by the police, no charge of murder will be placed against him until after the coroner's inquest, declare the police today. The date of the inquest is not yet fixed.

Jonas attended the funeral of his mother in custody of detectives, and sat through the ceremony with dry eyes, but showing great emotion. He still stoutly maintains his innocence.

Grand Jury Indicted Six More

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Portland, Or., Nov. 30.—Before its adjournment today the November county grand jury returned six additional indictments for depraved practices in the city. Four new men were indicted, but their names were withheld, and the two additional counts were against N. B. Healy, florist, and Dr. Harry Start, respectively.

In referring to the vice scandal the grand jury in its report said:

"We find, after an exhaustive investigation into the alleged Y. M. C. A. scandal, complete vindication of the officers and management of the institution and no reason for a shadow of suspicion to be cast upon its members."

Chief Probation Officer White informed the United Press today that another very prominent Portlander had been indicted, but are going to withhold his name for the time being.

"We believe we will soon have several parties who were indicted, and who have fled the city, under arrest," White declared. "We must withhold definite information, however, until these arrests are made."

"We are firmly convinced that our investigations in the vice system will reveal the fact that the practices at the basis of the indictments is well organized in San Francisco, Tacoma, Seattle and many other towns along the coast, and is thoroughly systematized and connected all over the country."

KEEPS CONFESSING TO MORE MURDERS

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Lowell, Mass., Nov. 30.—Investigation of police records here today partially corroborated the confession of Joseph Hickey, murderer of Joseph Josephus, of Buffalo, regarding the murder he alleged he committed in Lowell in 1883. Hickey alleged he poisoned his employer, Edward Morey, a druggist here, by administering laudanum.

The police here never suspected Morey was murdered, the records showing he died of "apoplexy."

"I have got an awful load off my mind boys," said Hickey. "I have suffered something terrible. This mad obsession took hold of me, and I took

Illness Going Fast.

That the new Hubbard building is proving very popular to the doctors, dentists and lawyers of the city is proven by the fact that just a few choice offices remain. In every city the size of Salem, and in fact in cities much smaller than Salem, the doctors, dentists and lawyers like to have their offices in one building and they are certainly taking advantage of the modern construction and ideal location of the new Hubbard building.

DR. YUEN Successor to Dr. Kum THE CHINESE EXPERT HERBALIST

To Whom It May Concern:

Had suffered with chronic constipation and stomach trouble for over five years; was so weak at times I could hardly walk; had lost thirty pounds in weight. I spent hundreds of dollars for medicine and tried doctor after doctor, and they all utterly failed to help me. I was just about ready to give up hopes when I heard of Dr. Yuen's Chinese herbs. After taking five weeks' treatment I was well and had gained eighteen pounds in flesh.

Hoping this testimony will be read and be the means of helping some one else, I am, respectfully,

MRS. L. W. BACON, Corner Grand Ave. and Morrison St., E. Portland, Oregon.
