City Will Burn "the Knocker"

SAN FRANCISCO TO HAVE UNIQUE CHRISTMAS STUNT TO SHOW THE WORLD THAT HER CITIZENS ARE ALL PULLING TOGETHER.

(UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.)

San Francisco, Dec. 6.—To emphasize to the world at large that San Francisco, on the eve of its exposition era, has banished discord and that all factions will be found pulling together, various newspapers and civic bodies here started today a movement for a great "burning the knocker" celebration on Christmas eve.

At Lotta's Fountain, in the heart of the city, the spot made famous by Tullio Trazzini's great Christmas carolling of two years ago the emblem of "the knocker" will be consigned to the flames. The corpse, according to the plans now maturing, will be given all the honors. Muffled drums, fantastically draped mourners and all the pomp of war will mark the first part of the ceremonies, with the whole changing to a wild revel of mirth and jollity as the leaping flames lick up the knocker at the midnight bell.

Official sanction to the plan is given in a telegram from Mayor Rolph, who is now in the east. The chief executive of the city commends the scheme and promises to be personally on hand to aid in the obsequies.

SOME PEOPLE CARELESS ABOUT SIGNATURES

The Bourne Popular Government club expended $14,594.87 in advancing the candidacy of Jonathan Bourne for the United States senate. If a statement sent by the club to Secretary of State Olcott yesterday is correct, Secretary Olcott, however, is dubious of the authenticity of the document, and will withhold its filing until he is assured it is genuine.

The statement is not accompanied by any letter of explanation, but seems to be a transcript of a copy of expert accountants.

An unsigned letter, which is evidently from A. E. Clark, who was the Progressive candidate for the United States senate, has been received, containing the query whether statements have been filed by either the Bourne Popular Government club or the Senatorial League of 1912, or any other organization that supported either Bourne or Ben Selling. The letter is in an envelope from the office of A. E. Clark.

FAIR AT CATHOLIC CHURCH A VERY SUCCESSFUL ONE

Successful in every particular was the closing of the sale which has been held by the ladies of the Catholic church here for the past three days. To celebrate the occasion, the ladies served a nice dinner at 6 o'clock last night which was greatly enjoyed by many. Every one showed their appreciation, too, and after the hearty meal, the booths received a flattering patronage.

Mrs. August Huckerstein Jr., Mrs. Mel Hamilton and Mrs. John Nord were among the ladies who assisted to make the affair a complete success.

Jail Burns, Two Boys Dead

Price, Utah, Dec. 6.—Confined in the city jail and unable to attract help, Milburn and Clarence Alfred, aged 16 and 18 years, were burned to death Wednesday night. When the bodies were found this morning the fire had burned out.

The boys were sons of a freighter who drove in from Vernal. They had been drinking and Marshal Bryner locked them up for the night. There was a stove in the jail and it is supposed that the boys ignited their bedding while lighting cigarettes.

Jurors Were Sent Home to Cook Dinner

Twin Falls, Idaho, Dec. 6.—"A man just sat," even if his wife is called for jury duty.

This is the stand of an Idaho juror here today who adjourned a hearing of a criminal case when the upon hour approached, that the woman juror might prepare the midday meal for their families.

This precedent was set in the first case in Idaho in which a woman jury served. The case was that of Mrs. Edwin Butts for threatening Arthur Bequa with a revolver. She was found guilty by the woman jury, but was recommended to the mercy of the court.

Chinaman Hanged. (UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.) San Quentin, Cal., Dec. 6.—Wille Lark, a Chinese who killed his father's Chinese-American wife in San Luis Obispo county, was hanged in the state prison here at 10 a. m., today.

Polly of the Circus Is Coming

The Salt Lake Desert News of November 29 has the following:

"An old-time friend, 'Polly of the Circus' was the attraction at the Salt Lake theatre. It has been done so often in this city, that the management might well have feared whether it would still appeal to the tastes of theatre-goers. But it has a popularity all its own, with the class of people who here old timers like 'Way Down East,' 'In Old Kentucky' and others of a similar school, which never seem to grow old. 'Polly of the Circus' is a mingling of the moral style of drama with the spectacular and circus display; the latter feature is well brought out by the introduction of some beautiful horses, ponies, real clowns, real acrobats, etc.

The main item of interest last night was in the new Polly, a role played for the first time here by Miss Elsie St. Leon, sister of the young lady who last presented it. She is charming in face, and ideal in figure for the part of a young girl the pathetic portions of the character were especially touching, even surpassing her talented sister. But she fell short in those parts requiring spirit and the infusion of fire. She did the horseback act thoroughly well, and was heartily applauded. The demands on the supporting company are never very exacting in this play, which is perhaps fortunate; the minister of Mr. Newsome was not as convincing as it ought to have been. The best work in the support was that done by Mr. Heisey as 'Big Jim,' one of the originals, while Miss Sanders' colored housekeeper was thoroughly good."

Because it's the evidence of a Salem citizen.

Testimony easily investigated. The strongest endorsement of merit. "The best proof." Read it!

I. N. Ridgeway, 455 E. Twenty-second St., Salem, Ore., says: "For a long time I knew that my kidneys were disordered as I suffered from pains in the small of my back, especially severe when I stooped or lifted. I did not rest well and arose in the morning so lame and sore that I could hardly get about. I became tired easily, felt languid and sore and was often very nervous. I was also subject to intense headaches and dizzy spells, during which my sight became blurred. Doan's Kidney Pills were finally brought to my attention and deciding to try them, I procured a box at Dr. Stone's Drug Store. They went at once to the seat of my trouble and in a short time entirely relieved me. Doan's Kidney Pills have my highest endorsement." (Statement given March 28, 1906.) After Three Years.

On November 28, 1909, Mr. Ridgeway said: "The state I gave for publication recommending Doan's Kidney Pills in 1906 was correct in every detail. I am always glad to tell other kidney sufferers of this remedy." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Deficit in Military Treasury

An estimate is made at the state house that the Oregon National Guard will go before the legislature with a deficit of at least $5000. This is notwithstanding the annual appropriation of $70,000 during the last two years, in addition to the annual appropriation of $45,000 made to the guard in preceding years.

Books in Secretary Olcott's office show that at present there is a sum of about $180 in the military fund, with the November and December payments still due. The company allowances for the quarter will be $2000, with the salaries of the adjutant-general and other officers to be paid.

Adding to the extra expenditures of the last two years, it is said, have been the trips made by members of the general staff to various cities to attend the dedication of new armories. The payroll and expenses of the annual encampment also require considerable expenditures of money.

"To more fully carry out the provisions of the military code" $25,000 was added by the 1911 legislature to the usual annual appropriation of $45,000. The bill was interpreted by the officials of the state militia as meaning an additional appropriation for maintenance, and it was admitted by the officials that the bill had been worded ambiguously because of a fear on their part that the legislature might object to passing a larger appropriation for maintenance.

FIRST HANGING AT 7:30 SECOND AT 11:30

To prevent the hangings at the state penitentiary on Friday, December 13 from going over into the afternoon the executions will begin at 7:30 o'clock in the morning, according to the invitations that are now being issued. Custom has been to hang criminals during the noon hour, but if the officials should wait until that hour it would be impossible to get through with the ordeal until after 1 o'clock. John M. Taylor and Noble Paulder are to be hanged at 7:30 o'clock in the morning, while the hangings of Mike Morgan, H. E. Roberts and Frank Carlson will take place at 11:30 o'clock.

Railroads Fight Back.

Papers in the case of the Oregon-Washington Railroad & Navigation Co against the railroad commission of Oregon, Attorney-General A. M. Crawford and various prosecuting attorneys throughout the state were served upon the commission yesterday evening.
