

IN SOCIETY

The Roll-Around Club enjoyed a merry evening last week Friday, when chaperoned by relatives and friends, the members gave a skating party at the rink on South Commercial street.

Miss Pennington was a delightful hostess Friday evening of last week, entertaining the Senior class of Willamette University at Lausanne Hall.

Social Clubs.

Christmas greens made pretty decorations about the rooms in her home last Monday evening, when Miss Elizabeth Lord entertained for the W. R. T. club.

Miss Della Hagan and Miss Helen Litchfield entertained for the Nika Mica club Monday evening at Mrs. O. P. Hoff's home.

Guests invited besides the club were Miss Mary Wann, Miss Marie Lodge and the Misses Barstow.

About thirty members of the Ton-tonia Verein of Willamette university enjoyed Saturday afternoon in the Adelante halls bright with Christmas decorations enhanced by a glittering tree.

the program for the occasion, together with games and refreshments which were served in the fashion of the German haus frau.

Two hundred members and friends of the Silver Bell circle and Woodmen of the World enjoyed a happy evening Saturday in the old Masonic hall.

Plano solo, Miss Irene McJorren. Reading, Mrs. Brandon. Vocal solo, Miss Amy Martin.

A delightful affair in club circles this week was the meeting on Thursday afternoon of the Oriental D. M. C. members when Mrs. A. J. Houck entertained in her home at 1904 Market street.

Members of the Woman's club will be given an opportunity to form a political science class under direction of Mr. Richard Cartwright.

Salem Woman's Club Notes.

December meeting of the club was held last Saturday in the auditorium of the library building.

In behalf of the committee on management for the sale of red cross stamps in this city, we are requested to extend most sincere thanks to Mr. A. N. Bush for the privilege of arranging and conducting a booth in the beautiful Ladd & Bush bank.

Fifteen thousand red cross seals were disposed of in Salem under the management of Mrs. Harry E. Clay and Miss Sophie Catlin.

Other places of business were not so-lit for space this year. It is very probable that Salem will again assume first place among state clubs, in contributing to the fund for Oregon's fight against the white plague.

Personal Notes.

Miss Maud Durbin returned home last Sunday from Mills College, Oakland, and will remain until the middle of January, the guest of her parents.
