The State Library Now Open

SUPREME COURT OVERRULED THE HOUSE MOTION AND A BIG ROW ALL READY FOR SPROUTING WAS HAPPILY ENDED.

"The Supreme Court of Oregon is the boss of the state library and will continue to exercise this function," said Chief Justice McBride today, relative to the row started by the House yesterday when it adopted a resolution calling upon the secretary of state, custodian of the Capitol, to keep the library closed during the sessions of the House.

"The library is open today as usual," continued the Chief Justice, "by the order of this court. However if at any time persons using the library make unnecessary noise which is disturbing the House sessions we will order the library closed."

"The Supreme Court will therefore take no cognizance of the mandamus suit filed here by Attorney Lord. The Supreme Court is boss of the library."

Thus comes to an end what threatened to become a lovely big state row started by the passage of the House resolution, and in which both branches of the legislature, Governor West and other state officials, and the Supreme Court would become involved.

Following the action of the House, Attorney Lord of Salem yesterday began mandamus proceedings in the Supreme Court against the state librarian to force that official to keep the library open. Following this proceeding, Speaker McArthur and other House leaders got together and made arrangements to stand pat. They planned to have a bill introduced in both houses and rushed through for the Governor's signature, providing for the closing of the library during the House sessions.

However, after they had got into touch with Chief Justice McBride, they decided to back down in view of the fact that a state law provides that the library shall be open while the supreme and circuit courts are in session.

ARRESTED ON REQUEST OF GRANTS PAS OFFICER

At the request of the sheriff of Josephine county, Sheriff Esch today placed under arrest Earl G. Gardner, of Rickreall, and is holding him pending the arrival of the Southern Oregon officer, who declared by phone today that he (Gardner) is wanted in Grants Pass on a statutory charge.

Gardner claims to be a private detective and when searched today by Sheriff Esch a 38-calibre Colts automatic was found on his person. The gun was loaded and ready for business. Just what the exact nature of the charge against the prisoner is could not be learned by Sheriff Esch this morning, but Gardner will be held in the county jail, nevertheless.

ANTI-CAPITAL PUNISHMENT BILL IS INTRODUCED

Olympia, Wash., Jan. 24.—After delaying the introduction of his bill for nearly a week, to be sure he had made it hole-proof, Representative Goss put his anti-capital punishment bill before the house today, which provides life imprisonment as the punishment for murder and treason. He introduced a third bill cutting the pardoning power of the governor. If the latter bill becomes a law, no prisoner sentenced to a life term will be eligible to parole until he has served 20 years.

Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff, cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair. But what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use when you will actually see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair and lots of it surely get a 5-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any druggist or toilet counter, and just try it.

The Secret of Holding a Successful Auction Sale

The season of Auctions is now here (and during the next few months many thousands of dollars' worth of farm property will be sold at public sales in The Capital Journal territory. The prices at all of these sales will depend on various circumstances and conditions, but they will depend largely on how the sale is advertised. A sale insufficiently advertised cannot possibly produce the best results. A sale well advertised will always succeed unless weather prevents.

THE NEW AND THE OLD WAY.

In the old days when circulations were small, and it was impossible to reach all the people through the newspapers, it was necessary to use auction bills. But that day is gone by. Advertising is so cheap and so wonderfully effective, that the auction bill has become a back number.

In this territory the use of advertising space in The Capital Journal has superseded auction bills, just as it has altogether superseded the use of bills by merchants.

Why is this?

THE CAPITAL JOURNAL FIRST IN NEWS.

REASON WHY.

The Bill reaches only a few hundreds; the Capital Journal reaches thousands of readers.

The Bill covers only a limited section; the Capital Journal covers a large territory thoroughly.

The Bill is seen only by the people when they are away from home. The Capital Journal goes into their homes and finds them.

The Bill is not seen in bad weather, because the people stay at home; that is just the time The Capital Journal is more carefully read.

THE CAPITAL JOURNAL FIRST IN ADVERTISING.

The Bill makes the busy man stop when he is in a hurry, in the wind and cold, and maybe take out his spectacles. The Capital Journal finds him at home in a comfortable chair, leisurely reading his paper.

The Bill must be tacked up and distributed—a day or two of hard work for a man with a rig. The Capital Journal distributes the same information to nearly every house all at the same time, without trouble or extra cost.

THE GREAT AUCTION PAPER.

Remember, it is not enough to simply put your ad. in some newspaper. It must be in a paper that reaches the People You Wish to Interest in Your Sale, and one which covers the Whole Territory. It is astonishing how far men will go to attend a sale and bid on some particular property advertised; these are the very men you want to reach, for they come to do business and not from curiosity.

YOU HAVE ONLY ONE CHANCE.

Bear in mind that all your goods are going to be sold in One day, and on that day depends whether you make or lose perhaps several hundred dollars. A few dollars' expense is absolutely nothing at all compared with the importance of advertising your sale Right.

You Cannot Take Chances on Scrimping on Your Advertising.

THE CAPITAL JOURNAL FIRST IN EVERY HOME.
