GOOD GOODS

Men's and Boys' Clothing Priced for Our Annual Clearance at 25 per cent Less

"The store on the corner" does things---often without telling it---but here's a few things we'll tell about. We like to tell interesting things and nothing is so interesting as news that saves money.

For the big special clean-up sale we have taken our entire line of

Men's and Boys' Suits and Overcoats

And reduced the price all along the line---a uniform reduction of 25 per cent on every garment.

The choicest fabrics in the wanted mixtures and colors navy blue and blacks, too.

Supply your needs now---and SAVE.

Hair goods, the new styles in switches, puffs and braids, at the lowest prices. Ask about the Boston Hygienic Corset, the popular corset among Salem women. Miss Ora Poage, beauty parlors and hair store, 125 North High street.

The Illinois club, last night, by a vote of 33 to 13 voted to take steps toward merging with the Salem Board of Trade, effecting a consolidation and taking up the publicity work of the latter. It was discovered, though, that there were some legal impediments, and a second meeting will be called soon to perfect the arrangements, if possible.

Madame Nordica. Advance sale of tickets for subscribers only at the armory 9 a. m., Saturday, February 2. All music students must present a card from their teacher to secure student rates. A limited number of tickets at $1.50 on sale, owing to some having been exchanged for higher priced seats.

Sarah Bernhardt is to appear at the Wexford in moving pictures Friday and Saturday in four reels. That Salem taste is growing for the best that the country can produce is being demonstrated this season. If such truly great artists as David Bispham, Carry Jacobs-Bond and Nordica can draw crowded houses this wonderful artist, Sarah Bernhardt, should fill the Wexford to its doors, especially for the small admission fee of 10c. This as a rare treat for Salem people, and you should attend the matinees to avoid the night rush; matinee 2 p. m.

The new and second-hand furniture store of M. B. Peetz, 252 State street, has recently been purchased by the Scott Bros., who will conduct the business as before. C. E. Scott was formerly with the Ray L. Farmer Hardware Co., while J. E. Scott is now with Bechtel & Byrnon. Both of these men are well known in Salem, and have had 12 years' experience in the furniture business, and that the business will be prosperous goes without saying. Mr. Peetz's plans are as yet unknown, but the well wishes of his many Salem friends go with him.

PERSONALS.

J. H. Burgard who has been recommended to President Taft for appointment to the position of collector of customs, attended the conference on the Hollis Insurance bill last night.

Elks, Attention.

Our chaplain has returned from his wanderings. Full report tonight.

To Entertain Friday.

Mrs. Fred Thompson, of Salem Heights will entertain the Ladies' Aid at her home Friday evening, January 31. She invites the members to bring their husbands, and a jolly good time may be expected.

Broke Up the Quartet.

Carl E. Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Miller, of this city, has gone to Pasadena, Cal., where he expects to finish his education in music, making a specialty of the piano, trombone and the voice.

This breaks up the Miller family quartet, known so well by the people of Salem and surrounding country. His many friends wish him the greatest success attainable in the musical profession.

He made an extended trip through the East and South last summer, coming home by way of California, but he says the Willamette valley is ahead of anything seen on his trip.
