DRIVES RHEUMATIC PAINS AWAY, RELIEVES BACKACHE AND BLADDER DISORDERS AFTER A FEW DOSES ARE TAKEN.

Sleep disturbing bladder weakness, backache, rheumatism, and the many other kindred ailments which so commonly come with declining years, need no longer be a source of dread and misery to those who are past the middle age of life.

The new discovery, Croxone, cures all such disorders because it removes the very cause of the trouble. It soaks right into the kidneys, through the walls and linings; cleans out the little filtering glands and cells, and gives the kidneys new strength to do their work properly.

the blood and drive it out of the system.

It matters not how old you are or how long you have suffered, Croxone is so prepared that it is practically impossible to take it into the human system without results. You will find it different from all other remedies. There is nothing else on earth like it. It starts to work immediately and more than a few doses are seldom required to relieve even the most chronic, obstinate case.

It is the most wonderful remedy ever made for restoring the lifeless organs to health and strength and ridding the system of every particle of uric acid, and you can take it with the utmost confidence that nothing on earth will so quickly cure such conditions.

You can obtain an original package of Croxone at trifling cost from any first-class druggist. All druggists are authorized to personally return the purchase price if Croxone should fail in a single case.

Railway Business for November.

The high tide of business in the United States continues to be reflected in the railway statistics compiled by the Bureau of Railway Economics from the reports of the railways to the interstate commerce commission.

The returns for last November show an increase over November of the previous year, but do not maintain the ratio of increase displayed by the month of October; while operating expenses increased $122 per mile of line for the month, operating expenses increased $74, and net revenue only $48.33. Taxes were greater than for the previous November, amounting to $46 per mile of line. Operating income averaged $12.13 per mile of line for each day in November, an amount greater by $1.63 than for November, 1911. This is the entire amount available to the railways for rentals, interest on bonds, appropriations and dividends.

For the five months of the fiscal year the net operating revenue per mile of line of the eastern railways, compared with the corresponding months of the previous year, increased 9.3 per cent; that of the western railways increased 15.8 per cent, while that of the railways of the south increased less than one-tenth of 1 per cent.

For the eleven months of the calendar year the net operating revenue per mile of line of the eastern railways, compared with the corresponding months of the previous year, increased 4.8 per cent; that of the western railways increased 7.4 per cent, while that of the railways of the south shows a decrease of 4.5 per cent.

The Women Get Busy at Dundee

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Dundee, Scotland, Jan. 30.—Shouting "traitor" and "coward" as they charged through a crowd gathered here to hear Premier Asquith, a group of militant suffragettes found a warm welcome, and were roughly hustled to the street.

The mayor of the city had just introduced the premier when the suffragettes appeared. They made a concerted rush for the rostrum, but were intercepted by the police, and, despite a hot fight, in which nails and screams were features, all were rushed out in no gentle manner.

During the height of the affair one suffragette climbed on the railing on a balcony in the hall and prepared to jump on the heads of those below when a man sitting near seized her and dragged her, screaming and fighting, back from her leap.

How Three Women Made a Butcher Uncomfortable.

In the February Woman's Home Companion appear an account of the amazing work that is being done toward reducing the cost of living by the Housewives' League, an organization composed of 5,000 women who have found that they can get better prices if they study the market reports in the newspapers and use this information when they go to make their purchases. Following is an extract:

"At a recent meeting in one district where much family marketing is done over the convenient telephone wire, three league members discovered that they had paid three prices for precisely the same cut of lamb chops on the same day. Each had been charged according to her ignorance of the market conditions or what the butcher figured she would stand for! Not one of those women knew what she should have paid for lamb chops. Not one of them had read in the morning papers the current prices for meat at retail. But before the league meeting was over they knew what they should have paid and how to find out each morning just what meat or any sort, in any cut, was selling for.

"The meeting did not pass resolutions condemning the butcher, nor did it discuss the relation between the high cost of meat to the exportation of cattle to England. The three women who had paid three prices for the same cut of meat, quietly formed themselves into a committee and went straight from the meeting to the butcher's shop. Now can you imagine how the butcher felt when, armed with the comparison and the price they should have paid, those three customers entered his market together and demanded an explanation? And do you think that any home-maker who attended that meeting and listened to the experiences of her neighbors will ever fail to look at the morning market reports and prove to her butcher that she seems to know?"

Home for Wayward Girls.

Senator Calkins, of Lane, who has contracted a habit of lambasting the liquor traffic at every opportunity, is author of a bill providing for the revoking of licenses of liquor sellers who sell to minors, or who allow minors to play games in places where liquor is sold.

Another reform measure that may be introduced in this legislature is an appropriation of $50,000 for the establishment of a home for wayward girls. The bill has been drafted by interested women from a Portland association and is now in the hands of the ways and means committee of the house. The committee of Portland women has placed data before the legislature for the purpose of justifying its claims.

Too Much Mud.

Salem, Ore., Jan. 29, 1913. Ed. Journal: I see by your paper of yesterday where our auto fire truck ploughed through a quarter of a mile of 19 inches of mud, away out in North Salem. I would say that is some fire truck.

Now, my dear citizens, I believe in the city council purchasing another auto fire truck, but I don't believe in any one bringing such exaggerations before the citizens and taxpayers of our city.

I wonder who measured that streak of mud; that piece of road must look like a stone boat had been over it after the auto axle had went through it six or seven inches under the surface. I am surprised that they didn't lose the ash pan off before they got through. A man who can drive a truck under such conditions should be on a pension.

Royal Mail Steamers for Coast

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Seattle, Wash., Jan. 30.—Royal Mail packet steamers will call at Northwest ports each month, beginning with June, according to an announcement made today by Frank Waterhouse, of the company bearing his name.

This, in addition to the new service by the Hamburg-American line, will be the most important addition to the ocean traffic in years.

The Royal Mail is the largest steamship corporation in the world, and the present move is taken as a preparation for trade via the Panama canal. Pending the completion of the canal, steamers will come via Suez. Traffic will be opened by the steamer Monmouthshire, which will sail from London May 7 for Seattle, Victoria, Vancouver and Portland. The Monmouthshire is 8000 gross tons burden and 400 feet long.

Hamburg-American traffic will be inaugurated by the liner Sithonia, which leaves Hamburg next month.

MAY HAVE HOT TIME OVER THE FISHING BILL.

Signs indicate that a fishing war will break over this legislature among the various factions on the Columbia river, and there are reports that attempts will be made to fight out some private grudges through the legislature.

The Carpenter bill, which has been introduced in the house, would eliminate seining on the upper Columbia, or that portion of the river east of the Cascade locks. At the same time it is understood that lower river men will come into the legislature with a bill to extend the time of the closed season.

The closed season now is from March 1, until May 1. The bill probably will ask that it be reduced so as to extend from March 1 to April 15. The fishermen are not at all a unit on this, however, as some desire to see the month of March eliminated from the closed season, and there are others who wish to see the month of April eliminated.

In event the closed season is changed and Washington passes no concurrent law, then it is stated, the old fight between the fishing interests of Oregon and Washington may break forth anew.

The move to do away with seining on the upper Columbia, is said by those who are supposed to be behind the scenes, to be part of an old-time feud between I. H. Taffe, a fishwheel man, and F. A. Seufert, a fisherman, these men having been at fishing "outs" for years. It is said, and it is further claimed that Taffe is behind the bill to do away with seining to catch Seufert.

Likewise the cannerymen are opposed to seeing a change in the closed season, or at least many of them are.

To Keep Sanitariums.

The senate went on record yesterday afternoon in favor of keeping the old law which allows the counties of the state to maintain tuberculosis sanitariums. The bill originated with the committee on the revision of laws in the house. The senate took the stand that to repeal the law might be a backward step in the world-wide fight that is being waged against the disease.
