WOMAN FEELS 10 YEARS YOUNGER

Since Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her Health.

Louisville, Ky.—"I take great pleasure in writing to inform you of what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I was weak, nervous, and cared for nothing but sleep. Now I can go ahead with my work daily and feel ten years younger than before I started taking your medicine. I will advise any woman to consult with you before going to a doctor."—Mrs. INIZE WITLIS, 2229 Bank St., Louisville, Ky.

Another Sufferer Relieved.
Romayor, Texas.—"I suffered terribly with a displacement and bladder trouble. I was in misery all the time and could not walk any distance. I thought I never could be cured, but my mother advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I did. "I am cured of the displacement and the bladder trouble is relieved. I think the Compound is the finest medicine on earth for suffering women."—Mrs. VIOLA JASPER, Romayor, Texas.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Mr. William Wright, bank inspector, arrived in Salem last Sunday from New York, and remained as house guest over Monday with Mrs. J. C. Moreland.

Mrs. Herbst possesses a splendid lyric, soprano voice of wonderful flexibility and charming colorature. She recently returned from Germany where she studied for eight and taught for four years. She has the proud distinction of holding the position as court singer for the Emperor. Mrs. Herbst sang at Willamette university Monday morning and again in the afternoon for the Willamette girls at Mrs. Moreland's home. Mrs. William H. Burghardt, Jr., was asked to be her piano accompanist.

Many of the Willamette student girls were acquainted with Mrs. Herbst in Salem before she went to Germany.

A very good portrait of this talented woman appeared in last Sunday's Oregonian. Mrs. Emily Frances Bower, musical critic for New York papers, writes in glowing terms of Mrs. Ina Wright-Herbst's beautiful voice. It is possible Salem may have the rare pleasure of hearing this wonderful soprano some time during the late spring or early summer.

Mr. Godfrey Herbst is a native of Germany and was a prominent violinist in that country. At present he is instructor of violin in Washington state college at Pullman. While in Portland, Mrs. Herbst was the guest of Mrs. Mark K. Gill.

John Glenn, publisher of the "Manufacturers' News," was today given a heavy raking for printing an editorial aspersing the motive of the committee in the investigation. Glenn printed an editorial, saying that O'Hara was a close friend of Andrew Lawrence, Chicago Manager for William R. Hearst, and adding that "a few full pages of advertising from the State street stores might satisfy the existing greed."

Glenn said he wrote the editorial on "General Knowledge."

When we hear a man boasting about how awfully smart his wife is we wonder if she was temporarily insane when she faced the parson with him.
