

Meyers' Ready = to = Wear Section Is Ready for You

The stunning new suits, coats and dresses show with what care and judgment they are selected. Every garment has to come up to the Meyers standard of "Good Goods," so you take no risk when you purchase at Meyers. The styles, the fabrics, the tailoring—all will please you. They're the most beautiful styles we have been able to find anywhere, and we have looked everywhere. We want you to inspect our garment section. You're welcome to look them over and try on any garment without any obligation whatever to purchase.

Special dance tonight, armory hall, Klansy Clubs Klub. Gents 75c, ladies free.

T. A. Rinehart state land agent, is back in his office at the state house after an illness of a week.

Big celebration ball tonight at the armory. Sponsors in the city invited. Gentlemen 75c; ladies free.

Meetings will be held at the city mission at 3 and at 7 p. m. tomorrow. Everyone is cordially invited.

Parlor millinery. Hats made to order and to fit the head and face. Prices right. Elderly ladies' hats a specialty. Mrs. Alice Bryngston, 694 North Commercial, corner Division.

Is all "dolled up" for celebration. Thousands are here and having the time of their lives and the fragrance of the air is due from the thousands smoking La Coronas, Bon Tons, and Tashmos, all the day.

Buy your feed at the new mill. Our price and process of milling are right.

Lenten entertainment and program given next Monday at the St. Joseph's hall by the W. C. O. F. Admission 15c.

The electric room that is attracting so much attention at the corner of State and Commercial streets, is fitted up by the electric company. The bed room set is furnished by the Josse & Moore Furniture Company.

Willard McInturf, one of Willamette's law school's most popular students, was chosen captain of Willamette University's track team for this season, at a meeting of track men held yesterday.

I live in Salem. I boost for Salem. I prefer a Salem product of it is as good as others. Now to determine this I will try the new mills flour made in Salem. Ask them for sample sack.

Friends of the Salem Six O'clock club will please take notice that the meeting announced for next week will not be held, as Dr. Tamsleie cannot be present.

Secretary of State Olcott and wife have returned from a week's vacation at Newport and other coast points. The secretary was in his office this morning. He reports the most enjoyable time for years.

District Attorney Walter H. Evans of Portland has requested Governor West to issue requisition papers upon the governor of Missouri for the extradition to Oregon of Lee Hunt, wanted in Multnomah county for embezzlement.

Next Sunday at 11 a. m. the hundredth anniversary of the birth of David Livingstone is to be observed with appropriate exercises by members of the Sunday school. A pleasing and instructive program may confidently be expected. Central Congregational church, Ferry and Nineteenth streets.

The Y. M. C. A. minstrels who so successfully gave their show to a crowded house at the Grand theatre on Wednesday evening, expect to make a trip to Albany a week from Monday night. The success of the show has been heard of in the neighboring town and an invitation has been extended the troupe to visit there.

We manufacture hard wheat flour—Cherry City Mills.

CANNOT HOLD OFFICE HE HELPED CREATE

Attorney-General Crawford is of the opinion that no member of the state legislature may accept a position as county attorney. He so stated for publication today. It is his declaration that the constitution is prohibitive of any member of a legislative body accepting a lucrative position created by that body.
