A marriage license was issued this morning by County Clerk Gehlar to Frederick G. Stroebel, aged 23, and Anna A. Steinka, aged 20, both of Salem.

State Architect Knighton, who moved his office from the state house to the Masonic temple, to make more room for the legislature, has moved back to the capitol building. His office is now in the house of representatives and on the speaker's platform.

Governor West today announced the following appointments: C. W. Mullins, of Astoria, to be county attorney of Clatsop; Gilbert Hodges, of Oregon City, to be county attorney of Clackamas county; Dr. Jean Cline of Portland, re-appointed member of the dental board.

Eight Lebanon men, comprising a team of Yeomen from that place, attended a meeting of the order in Salem last night. The party consisted of George Chamberlain, Harry McCoy, George Vehis, Bert Gaynor, Guy Cotter, Bill Bokke, J. E. Springer and Scott Rife.

Right from "der River Rhine," so to speak, Frank Kock, a nephew of Kola Neis, the local hop merchant, is now an active worker in the hop offices of Frank W. Durbin. Mr. Kock is German through and through, and his ability to manipulate the English language is something admirable.

A complaint was filed in the circuit court here today by M. G. Thorsen against S. W. Jones and Jas. H. Fairchild in which it is alleged that the defendants gave their promissory note to the Kureamoff Copper Mining and Smelting Co., for $5000 and have paid no part thereof. The plaintiff alleges the note was transferred to him.

At a meeting of the Medical Society of Polk, Marion and Yamhill counties tonight at the Willamette medical college, the subject of discussion will be tuberculosis. Dr. W. H. Byrd, of Salem, will speak on the disease as related to the peritoneum; Dr. A. B. Starbuck, of Dallas, of the pleura; Dr. W. B. Morse, of Salem, of the bones. A discussion will follow the presentation of the papers.

Two representatives of the North Coast Cranberry Co., W. H. Sellwood and P. W. Henry, who have been in Salem for several days, making a study of local conditions and local methods of handling the berries, left yesterday for Long Beach, Wash. The company which these gentlemen represent is composed entirely of Salem men and Salem capital. It is developing a large cranberry tract in the heart of the Washington cranberry region.

Aldermen Rigdon and Minton had a clash last evening, when Minton introduced a drunkard resolution, at the same time stating that he was opposed to such resolutions, but responded to an appeal of a friend of 20 years. This statement peeved Rigdon, who insisted that other councilmen had been approached in the same way, and he did not see why it should be necessary to personally appeal to Minton to get his vote.

A resolution was adopted at the city council meeting last evening to have the street committee and Councilman Turner have a conference with the street railway company and make an arrangement to have tracks relaid in the middle or close to one side in the vicinity of the fair grounds. The committee has power to act.

After much discussion the city council last night voted to accept the report of a meeting of property owners of Church street, who had declared in favor of asphalt No. 1 as paving in the district from Court to Mill street.

There was a reconstrance in which it was claimed that those in favor of concrete had not been given a show. The council decided to uphold the report and turned down the reconstrance.

Mark Woodruff, the publicity agent for the Portland, Eugene & Eastern Co., left the city this morning for Silverton where he intends to deal out some cheering information along railroad lines. Mark is a veritable railroad "Webster" when it comes to telling the folks about the advantages transportation bring, and certainly has been a press friend worth having to the local newspaper men.

"Spring has come," says a well known Salemite this morning when he squinted up at the swallows flying about and meditatively viewed the sun light on the streets, "but it's dur'd hard to speak w'd a code, a'd id'ing." This individual spent a few hours lying in wait for a fish worth to show his head through the newly spaled ground in the backyard; dreaming of those two-foot speckled beauties he was going to hook today, and hence the spring fever. No fish, no fun and all misery, declared the victim, as he plodded along his office.

TURKEY WHIPPED TO A STANDSTILL

Yields to the Inevitable and Formally Agrees to Terms of Peace Offered by the Powers.

(UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.) Constantinople, April 1.—Beaten on every battlefield, her armies scattered and destroyed, Adrianople, her "Holy City," in the hands of the Bulgars, Turkey today bowed to the inevitable and formally agreed to unconditional acceptance of the terms of peace offered by the powers. The acceptance of the porte was officially announced in a note to the diplomats stationed here. Even this surrender of the Turk, however, by no means makes certain the end of the war. The Balkan allies have not yet agreed to the proposals of the powers, and should Montenegro still show a strong front at Sentri, it is more than probable that the proposals of the powers will come to mean nothing more than a basis for negotiations has been arrived at. It is admitted here, however, that the surrender of Turkey will ultimately result in peace, and probably peace with practically all the demands of the allies satisfied. It's a waste of time to tell a man who suffers from a chronic thirst to dry up.

BANKERS TO MEET HERE APRIL 19

Five Counties and 42 Banks Represented—Organize District as Suggested by Association.

Representatives of 42 banks in Marion, Polk, Benton, Linn, and Lincoln counties, will gather in Salem on April 19 for the perfecting of an organization of the banking house of this part of the state. The five counties comprise group 2 of the Oregon banking system as arranged into districts by the State Bankers' association in convention last June.

The 42 banks which are to be represented in Salem are located in 25 towns. The other five groups in the state are also taking steps to organize. J. M. Poorman of Woodburn, and S. G. Sargent of the United States National bank of Salem, are temporarily president and secretary of the organization for group 2. The Salem banks are hosts for the convention.

Scott Swetland, a prune packer of Vancouver, Wash., is in the city looking after business.

For sewing machine repairing of all makes telephone to Geo. C. Will, or call at the store, 433 State street.

Willamette Glee Club and pipe organ; special features Willamette debate Friday evening, First M. E. church 25c.

Mrs. Arthur Thomas, who recently received surgical treatment at the Willamette sanatorium, is reported to be improving.

Mr. Ezra Knuekolls, of Eldora, Ia., is visiting his brother-in-law J. H. Rhoten, of Lincoln street. Mr. Knuekolls is so well pleased with Salem that he would locate at once if he could persuade his wife to come to Oregon.

The remains of the late Nat Cooper, who was found dead in his room at the Hotel Marion yesterday, were shipped to Portland this afternoon where the funeral will take place.

Senator M. A. Miller, of Linn county wants to be collector of customs at Portland. So he stated while in Salem yesterday, en route to Portland. The "Sage of Lebanon" has been mentioned as a possibility for consulate to one of the South American countries.

For the past six months, criminal cases which are to be considered by the Marion county grand jury have been coming few and far between. But four charges of this character are up for consideration by the grand jury during its present term. They are: Two Mexicans charged with robbing Salem homes; Chester Huffman, forgery, and A. Allen, statutory charge.

Although the Willamette river was on a standstill yesterday afternoon and river men at this point predicted that it was on the verge of receding, the water took an upward course in the night and now is eighteen feet two inches. The raise is hardly perceptible this afternoon and a drop is looked for some time tonight.

Notice of Meeting. All parties interested in the electric wiring inspection bill will meet with the committee on ordinances at the council chambers, Friday evening, April 4, 1913, at 7:30 p. m. CHAS. F. ELGIN, City Recorder. 4-1-3t

SUFFERED AWFUL PAINS

For Sixteen Years. Restored To Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Moretown, Vermont.—"I was troubled with pains and irregularities for sixteen years, and was thin, weak and nervous. When I would lie down it would seem as if I was going right down into some dark hole, and the window curtains had faces that would peek out at me, and when I was out of doors it would seem as if something was doing to happen. My blood was poor, my circulation was so bad I would be like a dead person at times. I had female weakness badly, my abdomen was sore and I had awful pains. "I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and used the Sanative Wash and they certainly did wonders for me. My troubles disappeared and I am able to work hard every day."—Mrs. W. F. SAWYER, River View Farm, Moretown, Vermont.

Another Case. Clifford, Iowa.—"I was troubled with female weakness, also with displacement. I had very severe and steady headache, also pain in back and was very thin and tired all the time. I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I am cured of these troubles. I cannot praise your medicine too highly."—Mrs. INA MITCHELL, Gifford, Iowa.

CLUB WANTS CAMELS TO PACK THE WATER

WANTED—To be delivered in the city of Salem on or before June 1, 1913, 30 camels with not less than 500 gallons water capacity to furnish water for the new Robinson 6-cylinder automobile-pumping fire-extinguishing-machine purchased last night by the mayor. The said camels to be very fleet on foot for the purpose of furnishing water on short notice to the new fire extinguishing machine, in the outlying districts of the city of Salem. Slight blemishes on said camels such as ringbones, spavins or extreme humps will be no hindrance to the quality of the animal. All bids must be accompanied with 10 per cent certified check as a guarantee of good faith. (Signed) SALEM GIMLET CLUB.

Party at Salem Heights.

A party was given at the Salem Heights hall Friday evening, March 28, 1913, by the Salem Heights Christian Endeavor Society. Those present were: Mrs. Engdahl, Mrs. Sawyer, Doris Sawyer, Leora Morris, Eliza Armesler, Nellie Tschudi, Joseph Hensley, Ruth Woodward, Martha Woodward, Mina Chase, Julia Chase, Eddie Compton, Lila Miller, Evelyn Miller Fannie Morrison, Hattie Morrison, Kathryn Morrison, Elizabeth Myers, Mr. Miller, Grove Hensley, Doyle Smith, Arthur Chase, Arthur McClain, Willie Goble, Donald Willson, Harry Ballie, Bert Woodward, Maurice Sawyer, Bert Ross, Leo Barber, Jay Morris, Victor Minkler, Athos Miller, Milton Korman.

A Rumored Transfer.

It is rumored that an effort is being made to transfer L. J. Chapin, agricultural expert, from the Board of Trade to the newly-created department of the Illinois club. Mr. Chapin was sent to Salem by the United States department of agriculture, at the solicitation of the Board of Trade, and his salary has been paid partly by the Board of Trade and partly by the government. Mr. Chapin has made hosts of friends since coming to Salem, and his work has proven most valuable to the Board of Trade.

DIED.

WOOTON.—In Seattle, Monday evening, March 31, 1913, Ison P. Wooton. The deceased is the pastor of the Friends' church in Highland and has been in Seattle for the past six months conducting services at the Friends' church at that place. His time was nearly up for returning home when he died.

95 Years Old Tomorrow.

F. X. Mattieu, hero of Champeog and oldest Elk in the west, who has been seriously ill at his home in Portland for several weeks, is improving, according to reports. The old gentleman is now able to walk about the house and to visit with his friends. He will be 95 years old tomorrow.
