morial church, Miss Emma Wright invited the members to her home, 1509 North Fourth street, last Tuesday evening. Vera Wright greeted guests at the door and Mrs. Unruh received them.

The young women have recently pledged themselves to raise one hundred dollars for the church, and on Tuesday evening a number of the class members who have already been successful in collecting a bit of money to add to the fund, gave an exhibition in shadow pantomime of the manner in which the money was obtained. Misses Greig, Perry, Greyson, Harris, Gardiner, Genevieve and Ethel Frasier, Emma Minton, Emma Wright and Blanche Drake gave a comic picture of how they did not earn a dollar. There are twenty members in the class, who have already collected eleven dollars and are working hard to gain the whole amount pledged.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Johnson of Haysville entertained friends from Salem with a delightful dinner on Easter Sunday. The afternoon was passed with music. Guests asked for the dinner were: Mr. and Mrs. Cady and four children, Mr. and Mrs. Kapphahn and five children, Mr. and Mrs. Yates and four children, Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Edwards and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Young, Henry Kapphahn.

Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Fasching asked friends for last Tuesday, in celebration of the nineteenth birthday of their son Ray. Games and music were the evening's pleasures, a delightful luncheon following.

A quartet called the "All American" with Mr. Ernest Park, Mr. Forrest Park, Mr. Neil Littler and Mr. Ray Fasching gave a number of very pleasing songs.

Extending congratulations and enjoying the birthday party were: Neil Littler, Forrest Price, Everett Park, Gordon Summerville, Neil Summerville, Harry Fasching, Wesley Todd, Warren Welborn, Omer Latham.

In honor of Mr. W. Steele's eighty-second birthday, a company of relatives and friends gathered at the family home last Wednesday to extend congratulations and kind wishes for the days to come. Making up the party were: Mr. and Mrs. William Steel of Albany, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Steel and family of Monmouth, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Young and family of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Steel and daughter of Jefferson, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Kays and family, Miss Edith Bagley and Mr. John Kirk all of Salem.

Social Clubs.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Hartley entertained the Cherry City Five Hundred club last Tuesday, with an "April Fool" evening. The unexpected happened at unexpected turns of the game and finally prizes were awarded for the highest scores at head and foot tables.

Mrs. R. B. Houston and Mr. Clyde Rice captured the favors.

April first surprises appeared with refreshments. Mrs. Downing and Mrs. Dick assisted the hostess. Guests besides the club were: Mr. and Mrs. Homer Smith, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Dick and Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Houston.

Mrs. R. B. Goodin was hostess for the Yew York Embroidery club Thursday afternoon.

The Kensington club with Miss Grace Dalrymple as invited guest was entertained by Miss Elizabeth Lord on Wednesday afternoon.

The members of Junior Five Hundred club were delightfully entertained last week Wednesday, by Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Bonnell, in their home, 985 Center street.

Mrs. A. Kazmark and Mr. Lilyquist were awarded high score prizes. Additional guests were Mr. and Mrs. Kazmark, Mr. Harold Roberts and Mr. Harry Kennedy.

After the games was an impromptu musical program, Mrs. Kazmark giving several piano selections, and accompanying Mrs. Bonnell, who sang one of John McCormack's favorites, "Macushia." Mrs. Merlin Harding gave "When Song is Sweet," accompanied by Mrs. Bonnell.

Maids and matrons of the sewing club were entertained Wednesday afternoon by Miss Edna Josse, who used pink and white hyacinths and pink carnations to brighten the rooms. Mrs. Stanley Morgan captured high score favor and Miss Mary Eckerlen assisted with the lovely luncheon.

The Nika Mika club was entertained this week by Miss Davis and Miss Putnam, at Mrs. Westacott's home.

The Silver Thimble club was entertained Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. H. Snook, 1097 South Liberty street. It being Mrs. Snook's birthday as well as the regular club meeting, the hostess had prepared an elaborate luncheon in celebration, and was surprised with a lovely potted plant, as gift from the club members. Miss Ada Snook and Miss Emma Snook assisted in serving and also gave pleasure with piano and violin music.

Guests enjoying Mrs. Snook's hospitality were: Mrs. Clara Hanson, Mrs. Mary Neyhart, Mrs. Anna Turner, Mrs. Rose Kightlinger, Mrs. Eliza Darling, Mrs. Elsie G. Matlock, Miss Edna Sondrich, Mrs. H. St. Helens, Mrs. Anna Atcheson, Mrs. Effie Unruh, Mrs. Mary Case, Mrs. Hattie Keenou, Mrs. Anna Miller, rs. D. D. Olmstead, Mrs. Sylvia Ferrell, Mrs. L. M. Traver.

The next club meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Hattie Keenou, 964 South Liberty street, April eighth.
