A Stirring Stock Reduction

Timely Shopping Event Offering Unlimited Savings on Wearing Apparel and Household Needs

We haven't room here to tell of all the special bargains in this rousing sale. Every section of Salem's big store of fers unlimited opportunities to save. We are willing to sacrifice profits. We must reduce our stock. Look after your best interests by taking advantage of this stock reducing sale.

> The House of Quality

The primary reason for a great cut price sale at this time is our desire to reduce the size of our present stock, which is unusually large for this time of year. The prolonged cool, stormy weather has prevented the usual selling of our present spring assortments, and, as we make a clean sweep of stocks every season and keep free from accumulations, we therefore intend to make this great reduction sale a success by cutting prices generously. Be one of those who save money by taking advantage of the unusually low prices offered during this sale.
