MULDOON CONDEMNS USE OF TOE HOLD

Says It Is Borrowed From Jiu Jitsu and Has No Place in Legitimate Wrestling.

AGITATION MAY KILL IT

Continued Fight by Such Men as Muldoon Against Practice Is Likely to Have Its Effect.

By W. W. Naughton.
 San Francisco, April 11.—No less a personage than "Billy" Muldoon—he to whom the wrestling game has been but a memory since the days of Clarence Whistler, Tom Cannon and Matao-da Sorakichi—takes exception to the "toe hold," the fond embrace with which Champion Frank Gotch subdues the foreign strong men who descend upon this country occasionally.

Muldoon says the toe hold should be eliminated from the sport; that it is as much out of place in a wrestling bout as boxing gloves would be in a golf tourney.

According to Muldoon the toe hold is borrowed from jiu jitsu, the Japanese pastime, and it only differs from bloodless surgery in the respect that the latter has for its purpose the curing of humanity, while the toe hold is employed to maim or cripple.

There are others beside Muldoon who think that the toe hold should be abandoned. But coming right down to it there isn't a grip or lock used by the mat men that partakes of the nature of a tender caress.

Take the hammerlock for instance. This is considered legitimate enough by wrestlers, but, like the toe hold, it threatens its victim with twisted ligaments, and maybe wrenched bones, if an attempt is made to hold out against it.

Gotch has made a specialty of the toe hold and that is why he is able to employ it with such dire results. It is to him what the strangle hold was to Strangler Lewis twenty years ago. The strangle hold has been placed under the ban and when men like Muldoon begin to agitate against the toe hold it is very likely to find its way into the discard.

Fitzsimmons' Come-Back.
 Jim Jeffries started it and now other or veterans of the fighting game are falling in line.

Bob Fitzsimmons has given out that he would like to come back "just once" and try his hand with some of the white hopes who at present infest the game. He has expressed a preference for Luther McCarty.

If the records state the case correctly, Fitzsimmons began his fistie career back in New Zealand thirty-three years ago. It is twenty-three years since he had his first match in this country and that, in itself, entitles the Cornishman to the long service medal.

Bob's first contest in America was with Billy McCarthy at the California Athletic Club in this city. If he boxes Luther and makes it his farewell appearance he will have had a McCarty at each end of his string.

Lord Lonsdale's Belt.
 Freddie Welsh, the British lightweight champion, has brought his Lord Lonsdale belt to this country with him. But only for exhibition purposes. His Lusdship would never dream of countenancing a contest in this country with that made-in-England belt hung up as a trophy. There would be danger of some American lightweight annexing it and then it might be as hard to recover as the America cup.
 Freddie has given out that he considers himself the champion of the world. He is making a bet at Willie Ritchie and a suspicion has been aroused that the managers of the men have already agreed upon the terms of a match.

Down in Los Angeles they seem to have soured on Freddie. They say the real purport of his visit to this country is to arrange a match with Rudio Unholz.

GAME OF SENATORS AND PEN TEAM DUE SUNDAY

A game between the Salem Senators and the state penitentiary team will be played on the grounds at the prison Sunday afternoon if satisfactory arrangements can be made between the managers of the teams today.

Manager Baker of the Senators and Manager Huckestein of the prison team have been in communication for several days and expect to arrange a series of weekly games to be played preliminary to the opening of the active season in Salem. The Senators' grounds will need a great amount of working as a result of the recent high water before the park can be put into use.

Manager Baker has been notified that Woodburn and St. Paul will combine in the organization of a team this season, the team to be known as the West Woodburn team. The park at West Woodburn is being put into shape for the opening of the season. Woodburn had no team last season, but in previous years has always been one of Salem's most formidable rivals.

The Regina team of the Canadian Twilight league is booked to arrive at Albany for pre-season practice today. While the Canadians are in the neighboring camp, Manager Baker expects to arrange a series of games with them. The first of the series may be played a week from Sunday.

will be an umbrella room, where the management will provide several thousand umbrellas, which will be loaned to patrons on rainy days. Ebbets says he is willing to try the experiment if only to learn how many persons will forget to bring the umbrellas back.

The Oregon-Willamette baseball game will be staged at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, and, as it is the first game of the season here, there is much interest and a large attendance is anticipated.

It is claimed by the Enterprise that Oregon City will be represented by the best baseball team it has had for years. The team was organized by R. G. Cahill, who has played on several Oregon teams and is now engaged in business at Oregon City.

Miss Elizabeth Midint Wood, heiress and society girl of Los Angeles, who announced last February that she had broken her engagement with Captain J. Campbell Besley, polo player, because he had a wife, is in New York studying music and says she will not have anything to do with the captain, despite the fact that he has just secured a divorce. This is contrary to the usual New York way of doing things. Evidently Miss Wood is not posted on methods of the 400.

HERE IS A CHANCE FOR A LONESOME WIDOW

The following communication was received by The Capital Journal this morning. Here is a splendid opportunity for some big and big hearted widow to wipe away the acerbities of single blessedness, and make a good man happy. The Capital Journal, it will be seen by the letter, has a chance for a $20 rake-off, but in case this letter, which is in the nature of a "Want Ad," results in a case of matrimony, the paper will waive its right to the "twenty" and denote its interest in it to the bride.

Here is the Letter.

"Salem, Ore., April 6, 1913.
 Editor Journal.

"Dear Sir: I read the Journal every evening and am especially interested in an article that appeared the 3rd last, referring to 65 divorcees in one month. That means 65 widows, and here I am alone in the world, fine looking, strong as a lion, 45 years old and looking for a wife. I don't believe in divorcees. I believe both parties to the deal ought to know who they are hitching up with. If I could find a suitable wife through the Journal, I would give the editor one week's wages, which is $20.00, but the woman I am looking for must have a few grains of refinement about her. She must weigh not less than 180 lbs. up to 300, for I don't like slim women. If she has a home or other means, so much the better, but that is of second consideration, providing she is kind hearted and bears a good character, age between 30 and 45 preferred. There ought to be some way of getting acquainted, so that people of respectable intentions could be matched. There seems to be all together too many mismatched couples. I am not ashamed to sign my name to this article, for I believe in honesty, even if it is out of style."
 (We omit the name, but parties meaning business can get it at this office.)

Why He Was Late.

"What made you so late?"
 "I met Smithson."
 "Well, that is no reason why you should be an hour late getting home to supper."
 "I know, but I asked him how he was feeling, and he insisted on telling me about his stomach trouble."
 "Did you tell him to take Chamberlain's Tablets?"
 "Sure, that is what he needs." Sold by all dealers.

Heed the Cough that Hangs On.
 The seeds of consumption may be in lurk, and a cough that hangs on weakens your system, and lowers your vital resistance to disease. Take Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. It stops the cough, heals the inflamed membranes and strengthens the lungs. E. D. Rountree, Stillmore, Ga., says: "La Grippe left me with a deep-seated cough from which I could get no relief until I took Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. It completely cured me." Refuse substitutes. ## The Eternal Feminine Question Answered

"Will my shirt waists, lingerie dresses and dainty underwear be laundered clean and starched to the right stiffness without being injured IN ANY WAY! And will my Irish lace and hand embroidered collars look as they were now—if I send them to your laundry?"
 (There isn't a moment's hesitation on our part!)

"YES, Madam, you do not have to worry about your clothes when turned over to us to launder. You see, we know how to handle such delicate things—we are used to it—naturally we turn out perfect work."
