MRS. DAVID, LENA M'INTIRE VISITING HER FOLKS HERE

Mrs. A. N. David and little daughter, of Chicago, are visiting Mrs. David's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. McIntire, of South Commercial street.

Mrs. David, when just little Lena McIntire, was bookkeeper and stenographer in The Capital Journal office, and the number of her friends in that shop being just one more than the number employed for the old city editor of those days who writes this little notice was two. Mrs. David has hosts of friends here who will be pleased to know that she is to remain for two or three months. She says that just before leaving Chicago she had a delightful visit from Miss Bessie Schultz, who at one time was employed on this paper with her. The second edition, the baby, however, is the boss of the whole family just now, grandparents, aunts, uncles and the family cat being at his command.

25 CENT "DANDERINE" FOR FALLING HAIR OR DANDRUFF

DON'T PAY 50 CENTS FOR WORTHLESS HAIR TONICS—USE OLD, RELIABLE, HARMLESS "DANDERINE"—GET RESULTS.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast.

A little Danderine tonight—now—anytime—will surely save your hair. Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's
