SAYS TEDDY'S PARTY IS ABOUT WIPED OUT

Idaho Man Tells How Republican Governor and Legislature Left Nothing to Kick About.

J. A. Blomquist and A. P. Hamstead, who have been here from Boise, Idaho, to investigate the system of conducting the offices of the railroad commission and tax commission, left for home this afternoon. They have acquired a lot of knowledge which will be of great value to them in carrying on the work of the new utilities commission and tax commission of the state of Idaho.

Idaho is enjoying a healthy growth, Mr. Blomquist stated, and while the immigration is not nearly so heavy as that coming to Oregon, the development of the state is rapid.

"The so-called Progressive party has been practically wiped out in Idaho," said Mr. Blomquist today. "Governor Haynes, Republican, got so many Progressive measures through the legislature during the last session that there is practically nothing left to kick about. In the legislature the Progressive party men lost their identity completely. Only a handful of Democrats had been elected, and the Republicans, with a large working majority in both houses, enacted some of the most radically Progressive reform measures in the history of the state.

"The Democrats are badly split, following the fight over patronage, and heavy party losses are predicted. Because of the quarrels of former Senator Dubois and others, patronage worth about $100,000 a year remains in the hands of Republicans. The deadlock seems likely to continue indefinitely."

The Idaho men deeply appreciated the courtesies extended them by the railroad commission and tax commission here.

SEED IS READY.

After April 23 Teachers May Send for It at Local Bank.

On and after Wednesday, April 23, the seed of the popcorn contest of schools will be ready for distribution. Teachers may send in or call for the seed at the Capital National bank at Salem on or after that date.

This seed has been put up in packages each containing four ounces, or approximately 1000 kernels. The contestants agree to plant this seed upon a plot of ground not exceeding 1000 square feet and exhibit the product in the ear at the Salem school fair to be held in Salem during the third week in September, 1913. Fifty dollars in prizes are to be given away for the best and largest exhibit of corn, judging to be under the supervision of the Oregon Agricultural college.

Every school boy or girl in Marion county is eligible to enter this contest, and if, for any reason, any one has not had an opportunity to sign an application blank, they may write or call at the Capital National bank at Salem and blanks will be furnished them. Many applications are being received daily, and it is expected that about 500 pupils will enter the contest. All entry blanks should be signed and sent in before May 1.

Professor Gatch Dead.

Seattle, Wash., April 23.—Thomas Milton Gatch, aged 80, former president of the University of Washington and the Oregon Agricultural College, one of the most prominent educators of the Pacific coast, died of valvular heart disease at 5 o'clock last evening in his home here. He had been seriously ill for several weeks.

Funeral of J. L. Noyes.

The funeral of J. L. Noyes, who died at his home at 1472 State street, April 21, 1913, was held at the home this morning at 10 o'clock.

Rev. R. N. Avison, of whose church he was a member, conducted the services.

Jason Lee Noyes, who was named for the great missionary, was born in Lewis county, New York, January 10, 1839. He was married to Leve Jane Munger, December 11, 1859. In the spring of 1880 he was among the earliest settlers in Kingsburg county, South Dakota, where he lived until coming to Oregon in 1897.

Through all his life he was a consistent Christian and faithful friend, as well as a kind, loving husband and father, and though nearly helpless for almost a year, he was ever most patient in his suffering.

He is survived by his wife and four children, O. A. Noyes, of Shaw, Oregon; Mrs. A. H. Bunn, and Mrs. M. C. Petseys, both of Polk county, and C. J. Noyes, of Ervin, South Dakota, all of whom were with him at the last. His oldest son crossed the bar before him at the age of 23.

Only One Train South.

Considerable complaint is heard among local business men because there is only one opportunity to send mail south each day. The Shasta Limited, leaving Salem at 6:38 p. m., is the only southbound train to be depended upon to carry mail and while there are other southbound trains carrying mail it is said that the mail is never taken to such trains. As the arrangements now stand, it is alleged that a southbound letter dropped in a down town box after 6 o'clock, would not leave Salem until 6:35 the following evening. The matter is causing much unfavorable criticism.

Funeral Yesterday.

The remains of Mrs. Anna J. Johnson were laid to rest in City View cemetery yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The funeral services were held from the residence at 256 North Twenty-first street, Rev. Davis Errett officiating. Special music was rendered by Mrs. Carleton Smith, who sang "Sweet Peace the Gift of God's Love."

The pall-bearers were G. W. Johnson, Claude A. Johnson, George Grabenhorst, William Grabenhorst, Charles Grabenhorst and Eugene Grabenhorst.
