

Why Women Have Nerves

The "blues"—anxiety—sleeplessness—and warnings of pain and distress are sent by the nerves like flying messengers throughout body and limbs. Such feelings may or may not be accompanied by headache or dizziness or bearing down. The local disorders and inflammation, if there is any, should be treated with Dr. Pierce's Lotion Tablets. Then the nervous system and the entire womanly make-up feels the tonic effect of

SWISS BALLOON TO ATTEMPT TO CROSS THE ATLANTIC

Once more man's latent spirit of inquisitiveness, adventure and patriotism is about to exert itself in the form of another trans-oceanic balloon attempt. This time it is the Swiss who will strive to pin success below the long, patient list of failures already recorded. The aim of the expedition is to cross the Atlantic, leaving from the Canary Islands and landing in Cuba or the eastern coast of South America. It will be a happy stroke of incongruity if this little infant nation succeeds in achieving what her maritime sisters have struggled in vain to accomplish.

The Suchard II will rise and bury its huge head in the clouds—to be buffeted and tossed on its destination in the swirl of trade winds. Joseph Brucker, the leader of the expedition is a resourceful and experienced aeronaut, and it is owing to the enthusiastic support of Mr. Carl Russ-Suchard, that he has been able to put his natural inclination into tangible results. Mr. Russ-Suchard is not only giving his undivided aid to this present trans-Atlantic flight, but it was also through his backing that the previous unsuccessful attempt of the Suchard I was made possible. The Suchard II has a capacity of 7,500 cubic metres and a lifting power of more than 8000 kilos. The basket, of a consistent, non-leakable material, will float, as tests have previously demonstrated, for a considerable length of time, thus allowing its occupants, in case of disaster, an opportunity of being picked up if they should fall in the line of passing steamers. It is Mr. Brucker's intention, after ascending from Las Palmas, to trust the Suchard to the current of the trade winds in hopes of reaching Cuba or some point on the South American coast, a distance of some 16,000 miles. Mr. Brucker believes his gas supply will last fully ten days; forty-eight hours more than the trip is calculated to consume.

The great danger of over gas expansion from the heat of the sun has been partially averted by the use of a patent spring safety valve device first adopted by the Suchard I, and as it is Mr. Brucker's intention to sail as close as is practical to the water, little danger is looked for from that source.

Some little difficulty has arisen through the refusal of the military authorities to allow the balloon to make its ascension within the military zone. This, however, has necessitated only a temporary delay, and the ascension will take place in the immediate future. Its fate, success or failure, will be decided within the next few weeks.

A Farewell Dinner.

On Thursday, April 24, a merry crowd gathered at the home of Mr. Dan Gibson, 2305 Currant avenue, and gave a farewell dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Errett and Mr. and Mrs. Pickering before their going from Salem. There were 37 ate dinner and enjoyed each other's company until Mr. and Mrs. Errett were called to go home, then a sad goodbye was extended to each. We know not whether we will meet them in this world, but God's promise is: all who serve him will meet again in heaven, where there are no sad partings. Those invited to share the event were: Mr. and Mrs. Errett, Mr. and Mrs. Pickering, Mr. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Gibson, Mrs. M. Flynn, Mrs. C. Hill, Mrs. I. Keneely, Mrs. S. Hall, Mrs. D. Crites, Mrs. E. A. Ritchie, Mrs. V. H. Ritchie, Mrs. J. Evans, Mrs. J. Collins, Mrs. A. Horsie, Mrs. G. Thrapp, Mrs. C. Scott, Mrs. A. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. R. WILLAMETTE NOTES.

The big question that is now bothering the students is "Will it rain on May Day?" Extensive preparations are being made for every event of the day and the junior play, which comes that evening, cannot be postponed so that every one is very anxious about the way old Juke Pluvius behaves the next few days. May Day Manager Herman Clark says that the most of the campus improvement work will be on the west end of the campus. The curbing from the medical building to Lausanne hall will be put in A1 shape and the lawn in front of the college of music and in front of Lausanne hall will be raked down and the whole sowed to grass. The freshman girls are planning a candy booth for May Day. The track men are working in the stadium today, the inclemency of the weather making work on the field impossible. The tryouts for the different tennis teams that were to have occurred this afternoon have been postponed on account of the weather. The prospects for a tennis tournament May Day are very dubious.

DAYTON MAN TELLS OF SALEM POTATOES

Writer Paid a Dollar for the Sack He Received, and Many Hundred Sacks Were Sold.

On March 29, when the city of Dayton, Ohio, was submerged by the flood waters, the C. F. Lansing Nursery Co., shipped a sack of potatoes to the flood-stricken city, and enclosed in the sack was a note requesting the person who received the vegetables to return the epistle. Yesterday the nursery company received the note on which was written the following:

"I was not in the flood district, the edge of it was about 100 feet north of Hickory street. I enclose the ad under which I got the sack of potatoes for $1.00. In the flood district they distributed them free. It will take all summer to clear up the debris and mud in the flooded territory. No description can do justice to the havoc caused by the water and fire. Houses, stables innumerable swept away, broken to pieces. Others still on their foundations, but battered so they will have to be wrecked. Over 300 horses have been removed from the streets so far. The loss of life is still unknown, and is not as large as at first supposed, as no definite list of the missing ones can yet be made out. We are well pleased with the potatoes as well as apples, which at 85 cents per bushel we bought, came from Dayton, Wash. JOS. E. WALTZ, 524 Hickory Street, Dayton, O. April 21, 1913.

The "ad." which Mr. Waltz refers to was taken from the Dayton Evening News, of April 19. The mercantile firms of the Kroger Grocery & Baking Co. insert in the advertisement that the relief committee has asked it to help turn over stocks of apples and potatoes into cash, which it agreed to do free of charge, and at no profit to the firm. Prices quoted for potatoes ranged from 50 cents to $1.00, and apples sold at 85 cents per sack. The writer also states that many hundred bushels of Salem potatoes were sold at $1.00 per sack.

YOUR CHILD'S HEALTH YOUR FIRST THOUGHT

If you have children, naturally your first thoughts are for their health. You certainly want them to develop strong healthy constitutions. The most careful attention must be given when children show the first symptoms of the many common ailments. Perhaps they are weakly and thin, or grow too fast, thus sacrificing strength. These and other apparently minor ailments may be the forerunner to a weak constitution for life.

Such children need Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge which is essentially a children's tonic. First of all, it will properly care for the child's stomach. It will also improve the appetite, and will add strength to the other organs of the body. In cases of thin or impure blood, it increases the number of red corpuscles enabling the enriched blood to keep the body healthy and strong.

Among the most common ailments that children develop is that of a disordered stomach, leading to an impaired digestion. In many cases this trouble is due to parasites in the intestinal tract. To correct such trouble, Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge is unsurpassed. For more than 80 years millions of children have been restored to health through the use of this tonic. Insist upon Jayne's; accept no other. Sold by druggists everywhere. Dr. D. Jayne & Son, Philadelphia, Pa.
