JOLTS

Portland insists today that it is just as much entitled to a place at the tail-end of the Pacific Coast league as San Francisco.

Real ball playing will be shown by the Salem Senators in the first game of the season Sunday with the K. C. team of Seattle.

Abe Attell, who will be remembered as a promising fighter a few years ago, has gone down to the lower ranks. It was a tame exhibition that Attell and George Chaney put up at Baltimore a few nights ago. Abe got the decision over the other lowbrow.

Leach Cross, of New York, and Harry Trendall, of St. Louis, are matched to fight eight rounds at St. Louis May 8.

Tacoma is clinging to the cellar championship of the Northwestern league with as much zeal as last season.

Tennis Game Is On.
Middletown, Conn., April 30.—The fourth game of the Wesleyan's tennis team is playing here this afternoon when the Nutmeggers meet the strong Yale team.

Another League Opens.
Milwaukee, April 30.—The Milwaukee baseball fans were given another team to cheer today when the Wisconsin-Illinois league opened its season of 126 games. The locals lined up here against Appleton. Other games were Green Bay and Racine, Wausau and Rockford, Ill., and Oakosh and Madison.

Hodson Meets Coulon.
Windsor, Ont., April 30.—Bantam Tommy Hodson, of Detroit, gets the chance of his career tonight, when he meets Champion Johnnie Coulon in a bout to go eight rounds.

KILBANE OUTPOINTS DAGO IN EVERY ROUND OF BOUT

Los Angeles, April 30.—Fight fans are still kicking here today over the decision of Referee Eytan in calling the 20-round fight of Johnny Kilbane and Johnny Dundee a draw. Kilbane had the Italian going in every round, but Dundee made a desperate effort to get him in the final round. For his work in this round Eytan called it a draw. Dundee acted like a novice most of the time, jumping in the air and making fruitless efforts to land on the champ. Kilbane came out of the mix-up with only a slightly bruised mouth, while Dundee's features were badly battered. About the only cleverness shown by Dundee was in dodging the swings of the champion.

Parents' night, an annual spring event at the Y. C. M. A., comes tomorrow night. The entertainment marks the end of the winter gymnasium season. A demonstration in the swimming tank will be one of the features, and the younger members of the association will stage athletic stunts. Light refreshments will be served.
