A FINANCIER AND A LICKSPITTEL

COLONEL GEORGE HARVEY has taken it upon himself to prove that the late J. Pierp. Morgan, was a true patriot, a lover of his country, a humanitarian, philanthropist, and sort of step-father to the country. Colonel George has bitten off more than he can chew. The American people have Morgan and his kind sized up, and probably pretty correctly, and he is not sized up as any of the things of which Colonel George so generously accuses him.

Morgan was a great financier, with all that the term implies. To be a great financier, to accumulate such a fortune as Morgan accumulated, requires the stifling of all the better human emotions. Friendships must be trampled upon, and the heart closed to all feelings of sentiment. Generosity, liberality and good never yet inhabited the same human domicile. To be a philanthropist, a humanitarian and a patriot requires above all else unselfishness. To be a financier all these traits must be crushed out, trampled upon, and Mr. Morgan was a financier. That Mr. Morgan was a patriot, in a sense, is probably true, but there are all kinds of patriots. A convict sent to Australia from England, wrote touchingly of his, and his fellow convicts' patriotism, saying:

"True patriots, we, for be it understood, We left our country for our country's good."

From a similar viewpoint Mr. Morgan was, perhaps, a patriot, or would be so considered by such millionaires' lap-dogs as Colonel George Harvey, for Morgan loved this country just as a baby likes its bottle. The United States was a good mother to him, and that he butted her dogs to some purpose, is evident from the financial fatness of him. His motto was "America is my grainfield, to harvest is my duty," and so he reaped with untiring hand. This is not written to attack Morgan. He was what nature made him—a financial genius, or greedy hog, just as one happens to select the language to express the fact, and is not to blame for following inherent instinct. Harvey is not so blameless, and yet following the same chain of reasoning, perhaps he was born a lickspittle, instead of believing that condition, and so, can't help himself.

OFFICES AND SEX.

WOMEN being made voters are, of course, entitled to hold office, not because they are women, but because they are citizens and legal voters. No sooner, however, is the ballot given them, than the demand is made that they be given "proper representation" in the official fold. That they should aspire to office is proper enough, but they should be selected for office, not on account of sex, but as a matter of being the more able and efficient person.

American citizenship is composed of all the Caucasian races, and the negro, the latter as an indirect sequence of mistaken early day policies and the change of our government from partly slave owning to an all free system. If the idea advanced that women, just because they are women, are entitled to a certain proportion of offices, then it should follow that our political system be changed, that the German, English, Irish, Spanish, Scandinavian, be given offices according to the proportion the voter of those nationalities bear to the total vote. The negro should, by the same rule, be given at least a cabinet position, owing to his numbers. To carry out the idea, with suffrage made general and women being half the voters, it would be proper to insist that either the president or vice-president be a woman. There may be a time when a woman will fill the presidential chair, and if the woman with the necessary ability comes to the front, there is no reason why this should not happen, but when it does, it should not be because she is a woman, but in spite of it. It is right and proper for women to seek, and hold office, simply because they are now as much responsible for the running of the government in all its branches from president down to constable, as the men have been heretofore.

THOSE AUTOMATIC SWITCHES.

PRESIDENT STRAHORN, of the P. E. & E., expects to go east sometime this summer, for the special purpose of having the board of directors take up the matter of putting automatic switches in the company's street car lines here. This will be appreciated by those whose corns have learned to hang over the side of the car in agonizing suspense, while the conductors wildly grab for the pendant toad stabbers that ornament the rear ends of the cars, that ornament the rear ends of the cars. It is a nuisance Salem people have put up with until it has become unbearable, and there is even talk of taking steps to revoke the company's franchise. It owes Salem a decent service, and in this respect it is not paying what it owes. The good will of the public is a valuable asset to any public utility company, and if the P. E. & E. values the good will of Salem people, it will put in those automatic switches. If it does not, the people are about at the stage where they will compel the company to act. Which course will it take?

IS BRUTAL AS MURDER.

CALIFORNIA has placed a law on her statute books that should be duplicated by every state in the Union, and that is making the destruction of food unlawful. It seems that the mercenary middlemen of San Francisco, by mutual arrangement, destroyed certain food products, when they became too plentiful, in order to keep the prices up, finding it more profitable to do this than to handle the products at lower prices.

The only fault with the California law is that the penalty is not made severe enough. The destruction of food supplies is a crime against the world, and a crime, the effects of which are most deeply felt by the very poor. One can scarcely imagine a human being so depraved as to deliberately deprive the poor and needy of the food provided by our generous old mother earth, and for the sole purpose of increasing their own financial gains. A life sentence, if necessary to stop the practice, would be none too great, for it is next door to murder, and murder committed for the purpose of robbery, at that.

BARGAIN CONTEST GROWS IN INTEREST

All You Have to Do Is to Call for Cash Checks, and Put Them in The Journal Contest Box.

No doubt everybody in Salem is thoroughly acquainted with the Refund Bargain Contest by this time. It seems that nearly everyone in the entire city has been asking questions about it. However, do not hesitate to telephone to the Contest Manager and glean from him any information relative to the contest you desire.

This Refund Bargain Contest offers every lodge, club, organization, Sunday School, church, charitable institution, society, union or individual in this city an opportunity of winning one of the cash prizes being offered by this paper for merely patronizing about twenty-three of the best stores in Salem.

Remember that no extra effort or work on the part of the shoppers is required. All they have to do is to call for the cash checks which are issued by every store advertising on the Bargain Page. When attending any of the three popular theaters which are entered in the Bargain Contest, you must retain half of your ticket. This half entitles you to as many votes as your admission costs you in cents. Be sure and watch the slides which are shown at these theaters about the contest.

It is up to every candidate already entered in the contest to keep busy or they will soon be crowded out of the running. To those candidates who have not entered the bargain contest yet it is in plenty of time to get right in the running and have an early start.

Remember the slogan, "Save your cash checks," and help your friends working for you.

Watch the Bargain Page every Tuesday and Friday afternoon.

X-RAYS AND SMILES.

A monkey in Chicago has been taught to steal gems. This shows that even a monkey can be contaminated by coming in contact with the modern man.

The opening of the fourth class post-offices to the hungry horde is something like breaking a levee to prevent it giving way. The result is the same, as the flood comes in either case.

The evidence of Jack Johnson's depravity becomes stronger daily. Yesterday he voluntarily shook hands with a lot of ball players, so low in the scale of morality as to be willing to shake hands with him.

Portland is to have a commission form of government, providing some one patriotic citizen refuses to run for office, so that some others may get two votes and be elected.

The next generation will probably not be annoyed with Gifford Pinchot, but there will probably be others. The country can never be rid of all calamities at the same time.

THE ROUND-UP

The Columbia & Nehalem Railroad company has given a trust deed to its properties to secure a $875,000 bond issue. The bonds are issued to secure funds to build a railroad from a point on the Columbia river to Nehalem, a distance of 31 miles.

At the banquet Tuesday evening in honor of the opening of the Lebanon hotel, 180 guests were assembled. Prominent railroad officials were present and Senator M. A. Miller acted as toastmaster and furnished the "sage" for the occasion.

A contract has been let for building a logging railroad from near Gearhart Park, Clatsop county, and extend to the east as far as Lewis and Clarke river.

G. E. Walker has taken a big enterprising engine to Wallula and will use it in breaking several thousand acres of land in that neighborhood.

Jackson county surveyors are locating a new road over the Siskiyou mountains as far as the California line. The grades will be much easier than those of the present road.

By a vote of 50 to 7, representatives of the towns of Sunset City, Williamette Heights, Bolton and West Oregon City Tuesday night agreed to incorporate, and will not become a part of Oregon City.

Clackamas county is having a small epidemic of rabies, one dog dying from it, but not before having bitten other animals. One girl was bitten by a dog.

President Wilson Wednesday sent to the senate the nominations of the following Oregon postmasters: Herman Wise, Astoria; E. E. Bragg, La Grande; C. W. Brown, Canyon City; A. H. Strider, Sumpter; Ira C. Mehrling, Falls City; H. Y. Kilpatrick, Lebanon, and H. E. Mahoney, Oakland.

The body of William E. Shindler was found last Thursday in the timber 15 miles northwest of Enterprise. The coroner's jury found his death was due to "falling from a horse, exposure and other causes." What these other causes were could not be ascertained, but it was certain that he died all alone in the big woods, and that there was no foul play.

Mrs. S. G. Grove, aged 75, died at her home in Albany Tuesday night. She was born in Illinois and crossed the plains 60 years ago. She had resided in Albany 40 years.

William Shadrick, aged 17, who escaped from the reform school three weeks ago, was arrested in Portland Wednesday. He confessed to having committed three burglaries since his escape, or an average of one a week.

Vetoed the Bill.

[UNITED PRESS LEARNED WIRE] Washington, May 8.—According to telegrams from Governor Clarke, of Alaska to Secretary Lane today, Clarke's veto has blocked attempts by the Alaska legislature to enact a law discriminating against Japanese fishermen. I know of several other people who have taken Doan's Kidney Pills with good results. You may continue publishing the testimonial I have given before."

A WONDERFUL TONIC THAT AIDS DIGESTION

Thousands are unable to digest certain kinds of food. In most cases it is not the fault of the food, nor the stomach. It is probable that the stomach has been abused. Many resort to predigested foods and various kinds of medicines to get relief from dyspepsia, indigestion and heartburn, but without permanent benefit.

If your stomach was in perfect condition, you would not need medicine to digest the foods you eat. Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge is a stomach regulator. It gets the stomach in such a condition that it will digest food without other assistance. It overcomes the acidity and stimulates the coating of the stomach and intestines so that they will properly absorb and assimilate the nutriment from the food eaten. Sufferers from dyspepsia and indigestion will find permanent relief in a short time after beginning the use of the tonic. For children the addition of a little sugar will make it most palatable.

Many forms of supposed indigestion are the result of intestinal parasites, for which Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge is unsurpassed. Insist upon Jayne's; accept no other. Millions have praised it for more than 80 years. Sold by druggists everywhere. Dr. D. Jayne & Son, Philadelphia, Pa.

You can blind some men by throwing gold dust in their eyes.

The great calamity in Omaha was quickly overshadowed by the terribly disastrous floods in Ohio. Great suffering and sickness from colds and exposure resulted which Foley's Honey and Tar Compound helped to alleviate. L. Poole, 2217 California St., Omaha, writes: "My daughter had a severe cough and cold but Foley's Honey and Tar Compound knocked it out in no time. My wife would not keep house without it. We have used it for years, always with good results." Dr. Stone Drug Co.

Of two evils choose something else.

Lame back is usually caused by rheumatism of the muscles of the back, for which you will find nothing better than Chamberlain's Liniment. For sale by all dealers.

BIG SURPRISE TO MANY IN SALEM

Local people are surprised at the QUICK results received from simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler's-Ka, the German remedy which became famous by curing appendicitis. J. C. Perry states that this simple remedy antisepticizes the digestive system and draws off the impurities so thoroughly that A SINGLE DOSE relieves sour stomach, gas on the stomach and constipation INSTANTLY.

If government is really as important as many think, then it is lamentable that so small a proportion of legal voters exercise the right of suffrage.

President Wilson may not be always and altogether right, but he is evidently a man of firm purpose, and not easily swayed from what he believes to be his duty.

Wonderful Skin Salve.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve is known everywhere as the best remedy made for all diseases of the skin, and also for burns, bruises and boils. Reduces inflammation and is soothing and healing. J. T.
