BATTING CAGE FOR SENATORS OF SALEM

Arrangements Made at Ball Grounds So That No One in Vicinity Will Get Injured.

Prospects for a great ball game Sunday, when the Weonas, of Portland, a fast aggregation, will meet the Salem Senators, are good. The Senators have been turning out in great shape during the week for practice. One night 17 men were on hand. This is more than double the number that turned out last year, and shows the increased interest in baseball here.

Manager Baker has constructed a batting cage for use in practice. Another will be built for visiting teams. The cage is constructed in such a manner that balls cannot go back, over or to either side of the batter, and the result is he must send out hits, and those on the benches or in the vicinity are in no danger. Fouls are impossible, the wire netting extending over the batter.

Manager Baker has received a communication from the Western Bloomer Girls, requesting a date here. He will endeavor to arrange for a game during the cherry festival. Mr. Baker's sister, who is now visiting him, saw the team play in a Michigan city, and the crowd was larger than that attracted by a league team. The girls play good ball, and are different in every way from the Boston Bloomers Girls, it is stated.

JOLTS

It is pointed out that while President Wilson is considerable of a baseball fan, he can never qualify as a regular until he has heaved a cushion.

There are quite a few who think there is not much in Ty Cobb's promises to behave. Cobb is naturally a rough-neck, and it would kill him to be anything else.

Christy Mathewson falls dismally to make good the predictions of certain scribes that he would show a falling off in his twirling performances this season.

Talk that Gotch and Zbyszko will meet in San Francisco for a mat battle fails to arouse as much enthusiasm as a proposed encounter of fourth-rate prize-fighters.

Jess Willard has five sparring partners in his quarters to get him in shape for his battle May 17 with Gunboat Smith.

The question of raising the ban on Manager George Stovall, of St. Louis, suspended for spitting on an umpire, will be considered tomorrow at a conference.

Luther McCarty, heavyweight champion, has received offers from Promoters Coffroth and McCarey, of California asking him to meet the winner of the Smith-Willard fight.

The irrigated slant saves many pitchers in the game, who otherwise would not last 10 minutes, according to Frank R. Kitson, former Detroit and Brooklyn pitcher.

Fry Fish in Cottolene

You can fry fish in Cottolene, and use the remaining fat for frying potatoes or other food. The odor of the fish will not be imparted to the other fried food.

Cottolene is not alone economical for the reason that it can be used over and over, but also because it is richer than butter or lard, and one-third less is required. It is twice as economical as butter; much more economical than lard.

Cottolene makes rich, digestible, tasty, healthful food. Does not make food greasy, and is free from indigestion.

Cottolene is never sold in bulk—always in air-tight tin pails, which protect it from dirt, dust and odors. It is always uniform and dependable.

Willamette Notes.

The freshmen girls are selling class shields, pillow and 'varsity' emblems, to assist in filling the fresh treasury. 'Briek' Harrison, '12, captain of last year's baseball team, also a graduate of the local high school, has been in the city the past few days visiting old friends and inspecting the 'varsity' and high school ball teams. He is now in the employ of a Portland wholesale grocery house. The freshmen and the sophas are planning an interclass track meet and in interclass baseball game.

A number of the students went to Oregon today to attend the junior week-end festivities.

DRIVE AWAY DEVIL WHEN LEE WAY IS BURIED

Lee Way, Chinese, was buried in Odd Fellows cemetery yesterday afternoon. Incense was burned and fireworks displayed, following the usual Chinese custom. Lee died in poverty and a collection was taken to give him the proper burial. His little effects were placed in the cemetery furnace and burned, after the burial services.

CLAIM HE KILLED 27 WITH AN AXE

Henry Lee Moore, a Life Termor in Missouri Prison Said to Be Guilty.

[UNITED PRESS LEARNED WIRE.] Leavenworth, Kan., May 8.—Twenty-seven axe murder mysteries which have occurred in the last three years in Missouri, Colorado, Kansas, Iowa and Illinois are ascribed here today to Henry Lee Moore, a life-termor in the Missouri penitentiary, by M. W. McClaughry, a special agent of the department of justice. Moore was sentenced for killing his mother and grandmother at Columbia, Mo., in December.

The murders laid at Moore's door include six at Colorado Springs in September, 1911; three at Monmouth, Ill., five at Ellsworth, Kan., in October, 1911; two at Paola, Kan.; seven at Villisca, Iowa, last June, and four more at other points.

JOHNSTON'S SURRENDER.

(By Rev. Thomas B. Gregory.)

General Joseph E. Johnston, with the last armed force (of any importance) of the Confederacy, surrendered to General W. T. Sherman 48 years ago—on April 26, 1865.

On the 18th of April Generals Johnston and Sherman (they were close friends, by the way, and remained such to the last) met at Durham Station, N. C., where a conference was held which resulted in an agreement.

Johnston telegraphed the proposed agreement to Mr. Davis and was by that official ordered to accept it. In the meantime, the Washington authorities (President Lincoln was now dead) rejected the basis of agreement, and Sherman notified Johnston that in 48 hours he would resume hostilities against him. This was on the 24th. On the 26th Sherman had another conference with Johnston, at which he convinced him that further fighting would be "murder," and offered him the same terms that Grant had given Lee. With such understanding, Johnston surrendered.

Sherman's original terms, as offered to Johnston on the 18th, were in strict keeping with Mr. Lincoln's purpose, and it is certain that had the great president lived they would never have been countermanded. The surrender would have taken place upon that broad, noble basis, and the "10 years of hell," known as "Reconstruction," would never have disgraced our country's annals.

A cynic may be one who has discovered the bitterness in stolen sweets.

MOVING VAN BOGEY. Every head of a family dreads this time of the year if he has planned to move and the moving van and all the annoyance that comes with it, takes on the mien of a hobgoblin presents to a child's imagination.

This is not as things should be, for moving into another house or flat in this day of scientific advancement should be one of the simplest matters in the world. The auto truck and the service of the big moving companies should make moving in 1913 almost as much a pleasure as an excursion into the country.

Spring is upon us, and with it comes a long list of desirable houses and flats to rent. All that the mover need do is to use the means that modern progress has placed at his disposal and the moving van bogey will disappear.

One of these means and perhaps the most efficient, is the Want Columns and all that is needed is just to give it one try-out to prove its value.

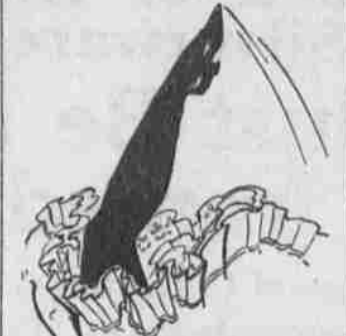

Apply a Journal Want Ad. to the moving van bogey and it will vanish at once.

That Corn Is a Sure 'Gonner,' Now

"GETS-IT" the New-Plan Corn Cure, Gets Any Corn Surely, Quickly. You'll say, "It does beat all how quick 'GETS-IT' got rid of that corn. It's almost magic!" "GETS-IT" gets every corn, every time, as sure as the sun rises. It takes about 2 seconds to apply it, the corn shrivels up, and it's gone! Ever try anything like that? You never did. There's no more fusing with plasters that press on the corn, no more salves that take off the surrounding flesh, no more bandages. No more knives, files or razors that make corns grow and cause danger of blood poison. "GETS-IT" is equally harmless to healthy or irritated flesh. It "gets" every corn, wart, callus and bunion you've got.

"Never Could Do This Before. 'GETS-IT' Made Every Corn Vanish Like Magic."

"GETS-IT" is sold at all druggists' at 25 cents a bottle, or sent on receipt of price by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

OREGON STATE INSANE ASYLUM. Notice to Contractors. Sealed proposals for the furnishing of labor and material required for the full completion of five separate and distinct buildings (aggregating in cost about $20,000) to be erected at the Asylum Farm, located about five miles southeast of the city of Salem, Oregon, will be opened by the board of trustees in the governor's office at 2 p. m., Thursday, May 8th, 1913, at the state capitol building, Salem.

Plans and specifications may be obtained at the office of W. C. Knighton, architect, capitol building, Salem. Contractors will be required to deposit $25 for the five sets of plans as a guarantee that the plans and specifications received by them will be returned to the architect in good condition on or before the date set for opening of bids. On return of the five sets of drawings and specifications the money will be refunded.

A certified check for $2000 must accompany proposal and drawn to the order of Ralph A. Watson, clerk of the board of trustees to guarantee that bidder will enter into a contract and execute the required bond; same shall be forfeited to the state of Oregon if award of contract is made to bidder and he or they fail to enter into a contract and furnish the required bond within ten (10) days from date of award of contract.

Proposals shall be made only on form furnished by the architect. The right is reserved to accept or reject any or all bids or to waive any informalities in bids.
