

A Sale of Tremendous Importance to the suit buying women of Salem and the Willamette Valley

100 High Class, Stylish Suits---regularly priced to $32.50, your choice of the entire lot at $14.50

Unquestionably one of the most important offerings Salem has seen for many a day. A most representative collection of beautiful stylish models in the newest fabrics and color effects. The woman who admires correct dress will particularly fancy this gathering of high-grade suits. We've too many suits, owing to a backward spring, and must move them before the season advances.

Your choice of this entire stock of Fancy and Novelty Suits, priced to $32.50, and Navy Blue Serge Suits up to $27.50, at only $14.50 each. A ridiculously low price.

Another lot of Suits regularly priced to $18.50, choice $12.50. Prices reduced 20 per cent on our high-grade line of Matzen Blue Serge Suits, regularly priced at $30.00.

We urge an early selection, for the choicest suits will be the first to go.

Burglars Are Busy.
Four robberies were reported to the police this morning by different Salem merchants. The candy and cigar store east of the Werford theatre, was broken into and $3 taken; the Cory Kitchen confectionery store lost $6 as the result of some one cutting the screen doors; the Fitts Fish and Poultry market was sawed into and the Thielsen Cash Grocery store was entered. The burglars relieved the latter establishment of 45 cents, while Fitts Market contained nothing of value besides its general equipment. The officers have nothing to work on, as the guilty parties were seen by no one, nor did they leave any tell-tale signs behind them.
