

No Better Place to Buy Your Suit or Coat than at Meyers during the Great Sale of High Grade Garments

Make Early Selections

Meyers high class, stylish suits, regularly priced to $32.50 your choice of the entire lot at $14.50.

Unquestionably one of the most important offerings Salem has seen for many a day. A most representative collection of beautiful stylish models in the newest fabrics and color effects. The woman who admires correct dress will particularly fancy this gathering of high grade suits. We've too many suits, owing to a backward spring, and must move them before the season advances.

Your choice of this entire stock of Fancy and Novelty Suits, priced to $32.50, and Navy Blue Serge Suits up to $27.50 at only $14.50 each. A ridiculously low price.

Another lot of suits regularly priced to $18.50, choice $12.50. Prices reduced 20 per cent on our high grade line of Matzen Blue Serge Suits, regularly priced at $30.00.

Coats, too, priced exceptionally low. A great assortment in all the latest models, colorings and fabrics at your choice, $14.50.

Chief Justice McBride today directed that Judge Frank M. Calkins, of Ashland, and Judge J. W. Hamilton, of Roseburg, hold court in the Fourth judicial district at Portland during the month of June. Judge George W. Davis, of Portland, made the request, stating that many cases were on the docket and the trials were delayed on account of a congestion in the work.

On account of bad weather the excursion to Albany for the baseball game has been called off, parties desiring to make the trip can do so on regular trains, using the week-end fare of $1.10 for the round trip. No special train and no 80c round trip fare will be made. C. E. Albin, General Agent.

Manager Baker, of the Salem Senators, announced late this afternoon that, owing to the unfavorable weather, the excursion to Albany Sunday had been declared off. The team may possibly go to Albany, however.

Joe Nushbaum, aged 6, and Margaret Nushbaum, aged 3, underwent operations at the Salem hospital Tuesday for troubles of the throat and nose. Both little tots, who are children of Mr. and Mrs. Nushbaum, of this city, are doing nicely. Drs. B. L. Stevel and W. C. Smith were the attending physicians.

There has been much speculation as to when August Hucksstein would take charge of the Salem postoffice.

The date depends on when the senate confirms his nomination, which was sent in some time ago. When the nomination is confirmed, Mr. Hucksstein will file his bond, and it will not be long after that before he takes office.

Ivory Mats.

There are but three mats of ivory in existence. The largest one measures 8 by 4 feet, and, although made in the north of India, has a Greek design for a border. It is used only on state occasions, like the signing of important state documents. The cost of this precious mat was almost incalculable, for more than 6,400 pounds of pure ivory were used or wasted in its construction. Only the finest and most flexible strips of the material could be used, and the mat is like the finest woven fabric.

Forgot His Own Name.

One of the most distinguished orators of the house of lords confesses that he once forgot his real name. Lord Bathmore, who was raised to the peerage in 1805, has no doubt become accustomed to the title by now. In the early days of his grandeur, however, he was nonplussed when a French railway official suddenly required his name. He could remember that he used to be called "Punket," but had to consult his card case in order to learn his new designation.—London Chronicle.

What He's Up Against.

"Why don't you propose to her? By all the signs she loves you."
"I know, and I love her, but I don't dare to ask her to marry me."
"Why not?"
"Her father is very rich, and I am poor."
"That ought not to stand in the way of true love."
"I know, but her father is very unreasonable. If I should go to him and ask for his daughter's hand in marriage, do you know the very first thing he'd do?"
"Give his consent, of course."
"Not at all. He'll offer me a job and ask me to make good in it first."—Detroit Free Press.

Why all this hurry about street paving. The streets will not get away, and a little time spent in going slow will not be wasted.

Siamese Object to Walking.

The Siamese, above all nations in the world, hate to walk. No such mode of progression is tolerated by a Siamese if he or she can by any means ride. A Venetian gondolier will walk sometimes, even a Hollander will ride on his rough cart, but a Bangkok man—not if he can help it. His family boat for him.

Skinning Goats.

The Abyssinians and Somalis are considered the most expert in skinning goats. The former rarely permits his knife to touch the animal after killing and during the skinning process and by the means of a bellows removes the skin in an excellent condition. Somali women are also very adept in this art and exercise great care throughout.

RELIABILITY.

If a clock goes fitfully nobody knows the time of day, and if your allotted task is a necessary link in the chain of another man's work you are his clock and he ought to be able to rely on you.—John Stuart Blackie.

Defects of Vision

Although Slight May Cause MUCH ANNOYANCE

And it usually appears in the form of a dull headache or aching eyes. Now if you are suffering from strained vision, our scientific test of the eyes will reveal the cause, and a pair of our "Rightly Made" lenses will give relief.

DEATH NOTICES.

STANTON.
In Portland, Saturday morning, May 17, 1913, John E. Stanton, aged 65. The body will be brought here for the funeral held from the Bigdon & Richardson undertaking parlors Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. P. Knight will conduct the services, and the Woodmen of the World, of which he was a member, will have charge of the interment, which will be in Clay View cemetery.

Will It Ever End?
(WRITTEN BY MISS MARY WINE.)
New York, May 17.—Both sides in the case against Attorney John Auhut, of New York, accused of trying to free Harry K. Thaw from Matteawan, by bribing Dr. John Russell, superintendent of that institution, are making their closing arguments here this afternoon. It is possible that the case may reach the jury before night.

A Dainty Toilet Article.

Every lady who desires to keep up her attractive appearance, while at the theatre, attending receptions, when shopping, while traveling and on all occasions should carry in her purse a booklet of Gouraud's Oriental Beauty Leaves. This is a dainty little booklet of exquisitely perfumed powdered leaves which are easily removed and applied to the skin. It is invaluable when the face becomes moist and flushed and is far superior to a powder puff as it does not spill and soil the clothes. It removes the dirt, soot and grease from the face, imparting a cool, delicate bloom to the complexion. Put up in White and Pink and sent anywhere on receipt of ten cents in stamps or coin. F. T. Hopkins, 37 Great Jones street, New York.
