MEDFORD IS ALL DOLLED UP TODAY

L. O. O. F. Convention Stirs Up the Town and Bud Anderson Adds to the Hilarity.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Medford, Ore., May 21.—With Medford in gala attire on account of the L. O. O. F. convention, which is being held here, and bands playing in the streets, the sports of this city are in pleasant humor today over Bud Anderson's victory last night at Los Angeles. Late yesterday afternoon a lot of Mandot money struck town, and was taken at 10 to 9, but not as quickly as would be supposed, the Medford sports figuring that something was wrong. Telegrams were sent to Bud's camp, and the home boy's friends gobbled the money, and wished for more. Bud will be backed heavier hereafter against Rivers and Ritchies than he was against Mandot, as the home folks now are certain that Bud is the real lightweight champion.

BAPTIST WOMEN'S CLUB IS IN LEAD

Makes Great Gains in Refund Bargain Contest, While Women's Relief Corps Comes Third.

The Baptist Women's club made great gains in The Capital Journal's refund bargain contest, while the playground fund retains second place and the Women's Relief Corps takes third. The Ladies of the G. A. R. had first place until yesterday. Now they are in fourth, but the margin is not great. Interest in the contest is gaining and people all over the town are patronizing the advertisers who are giving the sales checks which count as votes. The bargain page appeared in The Capital Journal last evening, and it will appear again next Saturday. Following is the standing of the contestants:

Ladies of the G. A. R.	5065
Playground Fund	5270
Miss Kate Wiseman	4879

O'HARA IS CLEARED OF ALL SUSPICIONS

Methods of Merchants Who Resorted to Perjury to Get Him, Roundly Scored.

Springfield, Ill., May 21.—Lieutenant-Governor O'Hara was cleared officially of all suspicion of immorality laid against him by an affidavit by Mrs. Maude Robinson, by a report today of the state senate committee, under Senator Eitelson, which investigated the woman's allegations. The Eitelson report also censured the white slavery and starvation wages, of which O'Hara was chairman, for the methods employed in its investigations here, as a result of which Samuel Davis, who was forced to testify, procured Mrs. Robinson's affidavit through revenge. Davis also was bitterly censured.

DEATH NOTICES.

NOYER.
Mrs. L. J. Noyer died at her son's home in the Waldo Hills, Wednesday morning, May 21, 1913 at 9 o'clock. She is survived by four children, O. A. and J. H. Noyer, Mrs. A. H. Bunn and Mrs. M. C. Pettys. The funeral will be held Friday morning at 10 o'clock from her home, 1472 State street.

Freshmen of the high school appropriately observed class day today by staging, among other things, a play, "His Lordship the Burglar," under the direction of Miss Mae Hopkins. Odell Savage played the part of Mildred Haversham; Victor Bradson appeared as Lord Ralston and Lyle Bartholomew as Tom Haversham. The freshman orchestra helped the program with appropriate selections. A picnic closed the day's exercises most enjoyably.

CLAIM SETTLEMENT OF STRIKE IN SIGHT

San Francisco Labor Council Has a Plan to Settle the Controversy Soon.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] San Francisco, May 21.—That a settlement of the strike of the California Light and Power council against the Pacific Gas & Electric Company may be brought about within a few days was the statement here today of officials of the San Francisco Labor council, who have been endeavoring to settle the controversy by arbitration. Officers of the Light and Power council say that a meeting of the several strike committees throughout the territory involved has been called for this afternoon, when it is expected that a definite conclusion will be reached as to the methods of procedure. They refused to divulge what proposition will be considered.

Explanation and Conditions

Securing votes in The Journal's Refund Bargain Contest is simple. All that is necessary to do is to call for a cash check or receipt when making purchases at any store advertising on the Bargain Page which appears in this paper every Tuesday and Friday for a period of ten weeks commencing May 6, 1913, and ending July 19, 1913. Bring or mail these checks to The Journal office within ten days of the purchase date, where five votes will be issued for every five cents represented on the checks. These voting slips are to be deposited in the ballot box at this office for the contestants you are voting for. Every contestant is entitled to one nomination coupon which may be used any time during the first two weeks of the contest. This coupon when neatly cut out and trimmed and properly filled is worth 1000 votes. All cash checks must be in this office not later than Saturday, July 21, 1913. Persons employed by this paper or in the stores advertising on the Bargain Page are the only ones barred from participation in the contest.
