Recipe Department

By BETSY WADE.

Only tried and tested recipes will appear in these columns. Would be pleased to have friends contribute any recipe they know to be good. Please write plainly and on one side of the paper.

Some things are to be tasted, others to be swallowed.

And some few, few, to be chewed and digested. Try the Baking Powder advertised in these columns.

Almonds, Salted.

Half pound almonds, tablespoonful of butter or olive oil, salt. Shell, blanch and dry the almonds. Put butter or oil in the chafing dish, and when heated add almonds. Cook to a delicate brown, shaking the dish constantly and stirring often to keep from burning. Drain the almonds, and dry on soft paper and sprinkle with fine salt.

Fricassee of Dried Beef.

One cupful dried beef, chopped fine; 1 tablespoonful butter, 1/2 pint milk, 2 eggs; melt the butter in the milk over hot water, put in the meat and cook about five minutes; add the beaten eggs slowly and stir until the sauce is thick. Serve on toast or fried bread.

Chicken Croquettes.

Four cups mixed chicken, 1 cup bread crumbs, 3 eggs, drawn butter. Roll chicken, bread crumbs, eggs seasoning (and enough drawn butter to moisten) into pear-shaped balls, dip these into beaten eggs and bread crumbs, put into chafing dish and fry a nice brown.

Creamed Chicken.

Two cups cold chicken cut into small pieces, 1 cup chicken stock, 1 cup milk or cream, 2 tablespoonful of butter, 1 heaping tablespoonful flour, salt and pepper. Cook the butter and flour together in the chafing dish, add the stock and milk and stir until smooth, put in the chicken, salt and pepper, and cook three minutes longer.

Stewed Oysters.

Dozen large oysters, 1/2 pint milk, small piece of butter, salt, pepper. Put the milk in the chafing dish, and when boiling add butter and oysters, season with pepper and salt.

Sweet Breads.

Sweet breads, tablespoonful butter, salt pork, (strips). Sweet breads should be well washed and dried; run the pork in with a needle; put the butter into the chafing dish and when hot lay in sweet breads; salt and cook; turn often to crisp the pork.

Fondue.

One cup stale bread crumbs, 1 cup milk, 1/2 cup fresh cheese cut in pieces, 1 tablespoonful butter, 1 egg, salt and pepper. Soak bread crumbs fifteen minutes in milk; melt butter in chafing dish and add cheese. When cheese has melted add soaked crumbs and egg, slightly beaten. Season; cook three minutes and pour over toasted crackers.

Welsh Rarebit.

One large cup finely cut cheese, not quite as much cream and milk (half and half), 2 beaten eggs, a dash of cayenne pepper or paprika, a pinch of dry mustard and 1 teaspoon sugar. Put butter size of a walnut in chafing dish; when hot put in cheese, milk, cream and seasoning; let it melt for about five minutes, then stir in the eggs. Let it cook until thoroughly emulsified. Serve on crisp crackers and toast.

Oysters Grilled (Chafing Dish).

Wash 1 quart large oysters and drain dry as possible; put in well-heated blazer, and as fast as liquor drains remove it with a spoon; when oysters are dry and plump dust with pepper and salt and add 2 tablespoonful of butter; serve on saltine wafers. This will serve six or eight.

Strawberry Shortcake.

Into one quart of sifted flour mix two teaspoons of baking powder, half teaspoon salt, two tablespoons of lard, add sweet milk to make a soft paste. Roll into three cakes and bake in a deep pan. Put in one layer and butter thoroughly; place the second layer on top, butter it and put in third layer. Bake in moderate oven for thirty minutes. When baked, separate the layers and cover each with whipped cream, then a generous layer of cut and sugared strawberries, etc. Serve when just cool. Pass with the cake cut and sugared berries instead of cream.

Swiss Pudding.

To two-thirds pint flour add 1 teaspoonful baking powder and a small spoon salt; rub together 4 heaping tablespoonful of sugar with 2 of melted butter; break in the flour 1 egg and thin the whole with two-thirds pint of sweet milk; add seasoning to taste—we prefer lemon; steam in mold 2 hours.

Sauce.—Two tablespoons sugar, 2 tablespoonful butter, 1/2 tablespoon corn starch, the yolk of 1 well-beaten egg and a teaspoon of boiling milk; boil 1 minute and add the stiff beaten white.

Puff Pudding.

Two cups flour, 2 teaspoons baking powder, pinch salt, add enough sweet milk to make thick batter; drop tablespoonful in well buttered cups, tablespoonful of jam or fruit, another tablespoonful of butter, then steam 20 minutes; enough for six people; serve with whipped cream or plain sauce.

Pudding Sauces.

One egg, beat with 1 cup sugar, make white sauce, with flour and water, using judgment as to quantity; add butter size of walnut, stir until very smooth, boil and pour over egg and sugar, beat all together but do not let boil.

One large tablespoon butter, 4 of sugar, set to warm, add yolks of 2 eggs, beat all together; beat whites to stiff froth, add to the above and beat thoroughly.

The great calamity in Omaha was quickly overshadowed by the terribly disastrous floods in Ohio. Great suffering and sickness from colds and exposure resulted which Foley's Honey and Tar Compound helped to alleviate. L. Paole, 2217 California St., Omaha, writes: "My daughter had a severe cough and cold but Foley's Honey and Tar Compound knocked it out in no time. My wife would not keep house without it. We have used it for years, always with good results." Dr. Stone Drug Co.

CANNY OLD CARNEGIE TOOK COIN ON SIDE

He Was Paid by a Competitor to Refrain From Making Girder Rails.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] New York, May 20.—Andrew Carnegie's method of doing business was explained here today in the hearing of the government suit for the dissolution of the steel trust by Charles M. Schwab, first president of the United States Steel corporation, under cross-examination by former Secretary of War Jacob M. Dickinson. Schwab freely admitted that a pool in steel rails existed, even before the United States steel corporation was formed. Schwab asserted that in 1898 the Carnegie Steel Company refrained from making girder rails for a consideration paid by a competitor. He also asserted that once Andrew Carnegie refused to organize a selling company to market the products of certain steel companies "because it would have been unlawful."
