

$1 Dollar Day Bargains--Meyers $1

May 29 TODAY AND SATURDAY May 31

The greatest of all surprises. A new innovation by Salem's big progressive store

$1 In a recent advertisement we asked all women of Salem and vicinity to watch for a special announcement telling of the surprise we were planning. Here it is: Read it. $1

Today and Saturday only we will offer special Dollar Bargains. Women's, Misses' and Children's wear will be prominently featured in the Surprise Sale, though there will be splendid bargains in every section. $1.00 will buy a pair of oxfords, a pair of shoes, a man's hat, etc. Don't miss this Surprise Event.

A surprise awaits you, so don't stay away and be sorry after it is over. There will be Dresses, Lingerie and Tailored Waists, Sweaters, Skirts, Women's and Misses Suits, Linen Suits, Silk Coats, Pongee Coats, Children's Coats, Evening Coats, Kimonos, etc. Absolutely the greatest surprise we have ever planned. Qualities up to $25 regularly. Whatever you pick out from these assortments will cost you just $1--that's why we call Thursday and Saturday 'Dollar Days.'

Bear this in mind: With such values as these it will be impossible to fit, alter, exchange or refund on any of these Dollar Bargains.

Remember Today and Saturday. Just Two Dollar Surprise Days. Store will be closed Friday, Decoration Day.

Special Sale of Women's and Misses' Dresses and Linen Suits--$4.88 Will Buy Dresses Regularly Priced to $27.50

These dresses must be sold--some are soiled from display and handling, and many are the season's newest garments. These are net dresses, lingerie, lawns, piques, tissues, challis, linens, chambrays, ratine and percale dresses, also a large assortment of Linen Suits--our regular stock, qualities up to $27.50, your choice of three big racks at $4.88. Visit the big store today and take advantage of this unusual offering. See the window display.

THE HOUSE OF QUALITY

CITY NEWS.

Bring back old memories by a pleasant row on the river tomorrow. Denison's boat house, foot of State street.

The Ladies of the Grand Army, will serve dinner tomorrow, at Hurst hall, at noon, to the old comrades and their families.

State Superintendent Alderman will deliver an address at commencement exercises to be held at Lebanon tomorrow night.

Miss Elizabeth Schutz, who has been telephone operator at the Hotel Marion since November, 1911, leaves shortly to spend the summer with Misses Louise and Marie Schutz.

Jim Linn, Russell Catlin, and possibly Ben Oleott, will leave this morning for Bend, Or., on a fishing trip. The gentlemen have interests in Bend, other than sport, which they will look after.

Decoration Day, Friday, May 30, Salem Senators will play the fast Chemawa Indians at league grounds at 3 p. m. The Chemawa band will furnish music, and as the Indians have a fast team, the afternoon should be thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Three hundred forms of bids for supplies for state use were sent out by State Purchasing Agent Frazier yesterday.

Twenty-three will graduate from the Normal school at Monmouth June 18, according to a commencement program being printed at the capitol.

Harley A. Blackwell will leave next week for his home in Juneau, after a brief visit here, following his return from the graduating exercises at Stanford university.

Prison authorities are investigating the case of Jim Howe, a paroled man, who ran away last Friday with Harry Baird, who was also a paroled convict and who forged a check in this city last week. Howe was employed on a farm south of Salem and it is believed that he left this county with Baird.

Hotel Kelly, formerly the Irvin, Nye Beach, Newport, Or., is now open to the public. Clean and comfortable. Tables supplied with the best. Three blocks from beach. Free bus. Write your reservations; $2.00 per day and up, including meals.

Take her rowing tomorrow on the beautiful old Willamette. Denison's boat house, foot of State street.

George Tobin, who is accused by E. L. Croisan of the crime of embezzlement, was arraigned before Justice Webster yesterday and bound over to the grand jury under $250 bonds.

State Engineer Lewis has forwarded to the government at Washington recommendations for the patent of 4,000 acres of land near Bend, in Central Oregon. This is the fourth batch of land for which patents are asked in the district.

The Chemawa Indian baseball team has a fine bunch of players, having defeated but twice this season, and then principally on account of pitcher being overworked. They expect to give the Senators a battle worth seeing at the league grounds Decoration Day. There will be music, and all kinds of refreshments. Don't miss it.

State Land Agent Buehler will retire from office Monday. The law passed last winter abolishes the office and the work will be carried on by Secretary G. G. Brown, of the state land board. Mr. Buehler will engage in the practice of law, but has not decided where he will locate. He graduated from Willamette law department recently.

The rooms of the Salem high school were thrown open to visitors yesterday afternoon and a goodly throng inspected the work being done at that institution. Every department of the school was looked over by the visitors and many interesting features were prepared for the occasion. The Salem high school students have been doing some fine work and the visitors were highly pleased with the manner in which the school is being conducted and the fitness of the pupils.

Governor West leaves early next week for Salt Lake to attend the annual conference of western governors. Governor West is chairman of the conference. He has received word from Governors Hunt, of Arizona, Ansonius, of Colorado, Haines, of Idaho, Stewart, of Montana, Odell, of Nevada, McDunall, of New Mexico, Spry, of Utah, and Carey, of Wyoming, stating they will be present. Secretary of the Interior Lane and field officers will be present from Washington.

Estle Cooper returned yesterday from the Umpqua river where he spent a few hours fishing. Mr. Cooper succeeded in landing a 35-pound Chinook salmon. He said that the big fish towed the boat in which he and a Mr. Scott were fishing for about 25 minutes before it could be tired out and hauled over the gunwales. The salmon weighed just 27 pounds dressed and Mr. Cooper states that it is one of the largest pulled out of the Umpqua this year.

Take mother and father for a row on the river Memorial day. Denison's boat house, foot of States street.

You can prevent that sunburn by the use of Fry's Perfection Cold Cream. Prices 25c and 50c.

Where "The Silvery Willamette Wends Its Way," she would delight in a boat ride tomorrow. Denison's boat house, foot of State street.

Now is the time to join the Senators' Booster Club. Don't put it off any longer. Be on hand at league grounds at 3 p. m. Decoration Day to see the fast Chemawa Indians and Senators play. You will never be sorry. Three crack-crack good games out of five, and a double-header thrown in. If you don't get your money's worth, your money refunded.

Band Concert Tomorrow Night.

With old Sol "showin' off," and the sky free from clouds and the wind in the right direction today, a fair night is expected tomorrow for the first band concert of the season.

John Graber, the manager of the Salem Military band, has been hustling of late, and he declared today that he will come out in colors with his musical organization tomorrow night. The concert will be held in Willson avenue, and all of the latest creations in music will be rendered.

Now is the time to get rid of your rheumatism. You can do it by applying Chamberlain's Liniment and massaging the parts freely at each application. For sale by all dealers.

BIG SURPRISE TO MANY IN SALEM

Local people are surprised at the QUICK results received from simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-Lka, the German remedy which became famous by curing appendicitis. J. C. Perry states that this simple remedy antisepticizes the digestive system and draws off the impurities so thoroughly that a SINGLE DOSE relieves sour stomach, gas on the stomach and constipation INSTANTLY.
