"HUMAN TIGER" GETS ANOTHER CHANCE

Governor Johnson Puts Off Hanging From Tomorrow Until June 20.

APPEAL NOW PENDING

Hanging Postponed Until United States Supreme Court Passes on Oppenheimer's Case.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Sacramento, Cal., June 5.—Governor Hiram W. Johnson today granted a reprieve until June 20 to Jacob Oppenheimer, the "Human Tiger" who was scheduled to be hanged at Folsom prison tomorrow.

In connection with the reprieve, Governor Johnson issued the following statement: "Every man is entitled to prosecute every right guaranteed to him by the law. It is asserted that Oppenheimer has a right of appeal which will be passed upon next Monday or within a few days, by the United States supreme court. The reprieve that I have given Oppenheimer today is for the sole reason that he may avail himself of any possible legal right that may exist in his favor."

The action of the governor in granting Oppenheimer another two weeks lease of life followed the presentation of certain facts in the case and the status of certain proceedings, to the governor's executive secretary, Franklin A. Griffin, by Attorney G. C. Ringolsky.

To Build Three Warships.

London, June 5.—Immediate construction of three warship provided for in the naval budget, instead of waiting until next year as had been intended, was announced today in the commons by Winston Churchill, first lord of the admiralty. Churchill explained that the government's determination to proceed at once with the warships was caused by the rejection of Premier Borden's naval bill by the Canadian parliament.

WINS AND LOSES BIG SUM IN 20 MINUTES

Telegraph Operator Is $15,000 to Good on English Horse Race, But Soon Is Broke.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] New York, June 5.—"Such is life," was the only comment here today of Herbert W. Robinson, a commercial cable telegraph operator, who won and lost $15,000 within 20 minutes here yesterday.

The eastern telegraphers made up a pool on the English derby race at Epsom yesterday, each ticket costing $1.25. Robinson bought his ticket three months ago, drawing Craignour. He handled the first flash from Epsom yesterday telling of Craignour's victory. He merely lighted a cigarette and continued his work. Then came the news of the disqualification of Craignour. Not a muscle moved in Robinson's face. He merely lighted a fresh cigarette and worked on.

DUCKED IN FOUNTAIN AND FINDS IT CHILLY

The first ducking in the Waite Memorial fountain occurred last evening, when a long train of robed men entered the capitol grounds with a victim.

The procession was preceded by a trumpeter, whose efforts on a small horn broke the stillness of the evening and caused considerable of a crowd to gather.

The victim was attired in a bathing suit, and after reaching the fountain dropped lightly into the icy water and swam twice around the center pedestal.

Following the swim the crowd disappeared into the night. Just who were in the party is unknown, but it is understood they were from the university.

HUERTA IS ALARMED BY REBEL ADVANCE

Only One City Between Constitutionalists and City of Mexico.

PRESIDENT WILL FIGHT

Getting Ready to Rush to Front to Take Command and Call Is Issued for Volunteers.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Mexico City, June 5.—Only one federal stronghold, Tlaxcala, today stands between the constitutionalist and Mexico City, as a result of the decisive defeat of federal troops Japala last night. General Emilio Zapata, the insurgent chieftain, is advancing on Tlaxcala, and a desperate clash is expected hourly.

Dismayed over the continual reverses of his troops, Provisional President Huerta, it was stated this afternoon, is preparing to rush to the front and take personal command. In the meantime calls are being sent broadcast for volunteers. The government has arranged to build a strong line of defense around the capital, in the event of an insurgent victory at Tlaxcala.

American residents are fleeing to the border, 150 men and women leaving Vera Cruz for Galveston, Texas.

Endorses Stand.

The secretary of state had a letter from a dentist in Portland by the name of Dr. C. E. Moreland, who highly commends the secretary for the stand taken in refusing to accept the referendum petition on the dentist bill. Dr. Moreland says that if the bill were killed every upstart would be able to practice the profession. He further says the names on the petition were gained by falsely telling what the petition was for.

There was quite an enthusiastic meeting at Stayton last night called to discuss the proposition put up to the people of Stayton and those along the line of the proposed railroad from Salem to that thrifty little manufacturing city on the Santiam, by the Oregon Railroad company, organized here, and the preliminary work of which is in charge of J. F. Mounce. Last night about 5 o'clock two automobiles left Salem, carrying a party, guests of Mr. Mounce to Stayton, to get a glimpse of the country and incidentally attend the meeting. The party consisted of J. H. McNary, vice-president; G. A. Kyle and A. L. McLeod, engineers, and J. M. Mounce in charge of the preliminary work. Theodore Roth, Graham P. Taber, Col. E. Hofer and J. H. Cradlebaugh as ornamental features.

The ride was one of the most delightful imaginable. The most beautiful valley in the world, and it is at its best, a perfect day, the road winding around the gentle slopes of the Waldo hills, each turn as the autos swept rapidly around them, giving a new and more beautiful vista, more beautiful simply because piled upon added to those that had come before, until the eye was surfeited with color and form, and one's soul lulled into forgetfulness of all but the beauty, the charm, the fragrance, the divine glory of it all.

Mile after mile this ever-moving panorama—eighteen miles of moving picture than artist might dream of but only Nature touch with her magic fingers, and make the dream come true.

Cain may have built the city of Enoch at Klamath Falls, but if so when he fled to that far country, surely he left his parents here in the Willamette valley, then as now the world's only paradise. Take a ride over that way some day soon, while spring still trips it, garlanded and festooned with flowers and verdure, and then write of it—if you can.

At Stayton the party was met by many Staytonites, and after a splendid supper at the Commercial hotel, the party adjourned to the Stayton Mail office for a brief but pleasant visit with E. M. Olmstead, its editor, who is getting out one of the brightest little papers in the state. Then came the meeting at Leslie Hall which was well filled by the wide awake Staytonites, and presided over by Mr. Kerns, Stayton's real estate man.

He introduced Mr. J. H. McNary, who stated briefly the object of the meeting, which was the securing of Stayton's hearty support morally, and substantial support financially, giving reasons therefor, and assuring his hearers that the money was forthcoming to build the road when Stayton showed its faith and confidence in the country by its works.

Follows Suicide Suggestion.

San Francisco, June 5.—That a suggestion to suicide following a discussion of self-murder with his wife in a downtown cafe was the explanation given here today by C. C. Castro for attempting to kill himself here last night by swallowing mercury tablets. He will recover. Mrs. Castro says her husband apparently was in high spirits when he swallowed the poison, and asserts she believes the topic of their conversation had a strange effect on his mind.

McMahan vs Secretary of State Olcott and State Treasurer Kay, in which the plaintiff is seeking to enjoin the defendant Olcott from drawing warrants to the amount of $450,000 to be used for the construction of the irrigation system in Crook county, was up before Judge Galloway this afternoon and the plaintiff was granted a motion to extend the hearing until Monday next at which time he will file an amended complaint. Cohen's indictment came as the result of his defense of Jake Gronich, who was convicted on a white slavery charge six months ago. Gronich's wife, acting on the advice of Cohen, according to the evidence introduced at the trial, committed perjury in the trial of Gronich in an endeavor to secure his acquittal.

MANIAC MURDERER ELUDES HIS PURSUERS

Juan Soto Is Believed by Detective to Have Made His Getaway Into Mexico.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Los Angeles, Cal., June 5.—With renewed determination detectives searching for Juan Soto, the Mexican maniac murderer who butchered Juana and Perfecta Sosa and their brother, Naveto, Monday night, resumed their hunt today, following the death of Naveto Sosa.

The brother, who gave his life trying to defend his sisters, died late last night at the county hospital, almost his last words being a prayer to live to avenge the young women.

In spite of a systematic search, not a trace of Soto has been found since he fled after the murders, which were committed in a street of Sonoratown, the Mexican quarter here. Captain of Detectives Flammner believes the man may have escaped to Mexico.

Offers Match to Ritchie.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Medford, Ore., June 5.—Dick Donald, manager of Bud Anderson, "pride of Medford," said today that he offered the services of his boy against Willie Ritchie on Independence Day for almost nothing, and agreed to allow Billy Nolan, Ritchie's manager, to dictate whatever terms he wished. In reply to Promoter Graney's statement that he did not wish to interfere with Promoter McCarey's card for the July 4th date, Nolan said that McCarey had agreed that the Cross-Anderson match depended entirely on the probability of Bud getting the Ritchie fight.

To Make Witnesses Testify.

An ordinance to compel the attendance of witnesses at council hearings will be introduced at the session of the city council Monday evening. Under the present ordinance it is optional with the person summoned, and it is pointed out that the result is anything but what is desired.

A suit to recover $57.75 was brought yesterday by C. D. Purvine, of the Purvine Pump & Implement Company, against the Waldo Hills Orchard Company. It is said the note was made out to Chase & Purvine, and then sold to the plaintiff.

DECLARES WILSON'S CHARGE SUSTAINED

Overman Insists it is Shown Powerful Lobby is Fighting Tariff Bill.

THREE ARE MOST ACTIVE

Wool, Sugar and Insurance Have Specialized Agents to Secure Favors From Lawmakers.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Washington, June 5.—"President Wilson's charge that a powerful and insidious lobby is fighting desperately to defeat the Underwood tariff bill has been fully sustained."

This was the declaration here this afternoon of Senator Lee S. Overman, of North Carolina, chairman of the committee which has probed deeply into the president's allegation by the examination of 65 United States senators. Overman announced that the investigation period would be extended over the ten days originally specified in the Cummins resolution.

Senator Overman asserted that the 65 senators already examined had proved conclusively that there are at least three specialized lobbies—wool, sugar, and insurance—using every method their means to defeat certain provisions contained in the tariff measure. He declared that when the committee finally reports it will submit a tentative bill flatly prohibiting interested parties from urging their views on legislative matters upon individual congressmen, but must voice their arguments before congressional committees.

The agents of seven more manufacturers were served with subpoenas today.

Tells of Holdings.

Senator Goff testified casually of various coal and oil lands he owns, paying him $85,000 annually. He said he had one oil well which for a time paid him $2000 daily. Senator Goff said a few persons had discussed the tariff with him but he could not recall their names.

Senator Gore presented a long statement in answer to questions. Senator Sherman named numerous callers, adding: "Both doors to my office were open when they were there." He declared three sugar lobbies had deluged him with literature for two months.

Threatened by Leaders.

Senator Sherman said the only "improper" influence attempted on him was by labor leaders who threatened him with political extinction unless he fought for certain measures. Senator Shields, of Tennessee, and Smith, of Georgia also testified.

E. T. Barnes for Director.

Petitions have been circulated for signatures requesting E. T. Barnes to become a candidate for school director of district No. 24, which is the city of Salem. These petitions have been signed by more than 400 people, and it is needless to say contain the names of practically everyone who was given a chance to sign them. While the petitions have not yet been returned, the number of signatures already obtained made Mr. Barnes feel that he had no right to refuse the rather arduous position he is requested to fill, and so he has consented to permit his name to be used, and will act, if elected.
