WILLAMETTE YEAR BOOK IS BEST YET

Contains 300 Pages and Is Pull of Interesting Matter, Set Off With Cuts of Buildings.

The Wallolah, Willamette University's year book, made its first appearance at chapel this morning. This year's issue of the publication is without doubt the best Junior Annual ever published at the local school.

The book contains 300 pages and i bound in leather. It is replete throughout with cuts showing every student activity, and has many excellent pictures of the buildings and campus, including some pen sketches of all the former buildings of the institution during the days of the Oregon institute, and other
