CAN MAKE STEEL HERE AND COMPETE WITH EAST

State Engineer Lewis recently read a paper before the Commonwealth conference held in Eugene in which he made the statement that electric iron and steel could be manufactured in Oregon as easily as in Pittsburgh if only the people would make use of their water resources. The following is a letter from C. E. Potter, who was formerly superintendent of the Illinois Steel company's plant in South Chicago, and is generally considered an authority on iron and steel questions:
"I acknowledge with thanks the receipt of yours of May 27, enclosing a copy of your paper before the Commonwealth conference. I am glad to note you are making real progress in your program. I have had occasion since you were here to go considerably more into the detail of electric steel manufacture, especially with respect to rails, tires and other railway material and I am convinced that electric steel will displace open hearth and Bessemer steel as rapidly as it can be supplied. The few electric rails that are now in service—some 8000 tons—are giving truly remarkable results, and the same is true of locomotive tires.
"The roads are eager for electric steel even at the present high premium as they realize that its use will pretty nearly solve the serious difficulties under which they are laboring with other kinds of steel. It is entirely possible for you to establish an immense industrial centre adjacent to your proposed power development and I sincerely hope you can make the people of Oregon realize and appreciate this. It would make Oregon a great manufacturing state, a consummation well worth whatever preliminary pecuniary outlay that may be necessary to its accomplishment."
Will Consider Bond Bid.
The committee on accounts and current expenses of the city council and Mayor Steeves and City Attorney Page will hold a meeting tonight to consider the sewer bond sale question. The committee has under consideration the bid of the United States National Bank of Salem. It is likely that some plan will be adopted in regard to the proposition to pass an ordinance relieving the property of the city of sewer liens.
The question of whether an ordinance compelling the attendance of witnesses at council investigations can be made effective has not yet been decided. It is planned to draft it so that witnesses may be sworn, if possible.

The Cherry City Patent or Oak blend is not a one-sided flour. It is made to serve the whole circle of kitchen economy. Either will make good bread, good biscuit, good pies, good pastry. All around flour of the choicest kind. Your grocer has it. Cherry City Flouring Mills.
The Olympic Flour is the flour for making bread of the highest quality. More nourishment in bread from this flour than you can get from any other brand. Delicious in its lightness and fine flavor and palatable enough to make a meal on at any time. See Edgar, the grocer, Court and High.
The goat which was lead about the field and the big notice to the effect that the Dillhee club "got the Elk's goat," was re-captured last night by a band of sturdy Elklets and the members of the lodge were treated to a surprise when the horned cud-chewed was led into the hall.
Fred Bynon, the bucket-boy at the ball game last night, didn't carry much water but he succeeded in collecting $18.50 from the crowd. Chief Constable, Coroner, Pound-master and "Prime Minister" Walter Thompson assisted materially in maintaining order. He was compelled at one time to severely scold Attorney Frank Turner for being too loud and showy.
Dr. and Mrs. L. B. Steeves are entertaining as their guest, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Hunt, of Sublimity, whose daughter, Miss Helen Hunt, has been attending school in this city. Immediately at the close of the school Miss Hunt will return to her home, accompanied by Miss Muriel Steeves.
August Hucklestein, the newly appointed postmaster for Salem, yesterday took the oath of office. County Clerk Gehlar administered the oath and stated afterward that it was one of the longest and most complex he has ever had occasion to administer, and it was taken straight and without water, at that.
Lawrence Holland, an inmate of the state insane asylum, who was secretly taken away by his parents, has been located at Georgetown. This information was received by Dr. R. E. L. Steiner, superintendent of the asylum. It is stated that unless the Georgetown authorities bring Holland to Salem he will remain at liberty, as the officers here have no authority to go after him.
The interstate commerce commission has ordered the Southern Pacific company to pay E. Lynn Tunnel $72 overcharges for shipping some household goods from Mobile, Ala., to this state in 1910. Before payment could be made the matter had to be traced through the Louisville & Nashville, Galveston, Harrisburg & San Antonio, Morgan's Louisiana & Texas, and the Southern Pacific railroads.
The district convention of the Women of Woodcraft of the 21st district convened in this city yesterday morning at 10 a. m. The session was completed at 8 p. m., while at 5 in the evening the ritualistic work was put on by the Silver Bell Circle. Later in the evening a reception was given in honor of the visiting delegates. The district is composed of Dallas, Salem, Newberg, Corvallis, Toledo, Albany, Yamhill, McMinnville, Amity, Independence, Ballston, Shedd, Aumsville, Buena Vista, Gates, Halsey, Harrisburg, Dayton, Dundee, Silverton, Bellefontaine, Monroe, Philomath, Sheridan and Lewisburg.
