WILL CATCH FISH AND ENJOY CAMP LIFE ON TRIP

J. W. Schaefer, the cigar store man, and Everett Arnold left this morning for an extended trip in southern and eastern Oregon. They are traveling in Mr. Schaefer's auto and have all the necessary camping outfit and fishing tackle along with them.

The young men will first go as far as Klamath Falls and then the trip will be extended into the Paisley and LaPine regions. Mr. Schaefer is a keen investor and his trip in the irrigation district may result both pleasantly and financially beneficial. They will be gone two weeks and in that time they promise to catch fish enough to distribute among their Salem friends.

Suffrage Bill Passed.

Springfield, Ill., June 11.—The woman suffrage bill passed the lower house of the state legislature today by a vote of 51 to 58. It already has been passed by the senate, and now goes to Governor Dunne for his signature.

Governor Dunne announced that he will sign the bill. It gives the women the right to vote at presidential and municipal elections. They may not vote, however for candidates for governor or assemblymen.

Charles H. Fisher, former owner of the Eugene Guard, stopped off in Salem for a few minutes to see Governor West. Mr. Fisher has been to Portland as a delegate from the "Radiators" of Eugene.

Connors, Wanted.

The state of Washington has made application to Governor West for the extradition of Kenneth Connors, wanted in that state on a charge of grand larceny. State Agent Walter Hogan will leave this afternoon for Portland with the necessary papers for Connors' arrest.

MUST BE SOLD.

We have just received a letter from a party in the east, to sell his properties in Salem at a sacrifice. Modern 8-room house, basement, on a paved street, close in, with furniture for $1,000. Easily worth $5000. And another modern 6-room house on a paved street, for $2250, worth $3000. Another good 8-room house, bath, toilet, windmill, water piped from well in house, two large lots, barn and five fruit trees bearing. Price $2500. The above properties are all real snags. Mr. Investor or Home-seeker, look this up. See Mr. Bechtel, of Bechtel & Bynon, 347 State street.

Clerk Pleads Guilty.

S. W. Maupin, a mail clerk on the Southern Pacific from Woodburn to Silvertown, recently pleaded guilty to the charge of assaulting Rev. Ford of the Christian church at Woodburn. It is stated that at a meeting of the church trustees Maupin made the statement that Ford had misappropriated some of the church funds. Ford replied by making known a few things that were not in any degree flattering to Maupin who became angry and began to do physical injury to the reverend gentleman. Maupin was fined $5 by Justice Hayes.

CITY NEWS.

Dr. F. L. Utter, Dentist, Suite 415-16-17 Masonic building.

Baseball schedule, Senators, June 13, at McMinnville. June 22, at Salem with Mt. Angel. June 29, at Albany.

Dr. F. L. Utter, Dentist, announces his removal to Suite 415-416-417, Masonic building.

In the windows of Buren & Hamilton can be seen a beautiful life-size portrait of ex-Governor Geer.

Mrs. Joe Bach left this morning for Portland where she will mingle with the thousands taking in the rose show.

Dr. F. L. Utter, Dentist, has moved his offices from U. S. National Bank building, to Suite 415-16-17, Masonic building.

Rev. E. M. Smith, pastor of the Methodist church at Sandy, is preparing to take a six-weeks tour through California and Montana.

Robin Day, a graduate of the law department of the Willamette university, this spring, has opened an office over the Ladd & Bush bank.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Gilson have just returned to Salem, after an absence of four months in Everett, Wash., and are surely glad to get home again.

W. B. Gilson is pleased to greet his old customers and to welcome new ones, as he is back at his old place again, Gilson's Barber Shop, 344 State street.

The financial committee of the Cherry Fair will meet at the Illihee club Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, sharp. By order of A. G. Magers, chairman.

Superintendent Smith and wife, Mrs. W. M. Smith, have gone to Portland as delegates from one of the lodges of this city. While in Portland they will see the rose festival.

James F. Houck and Miss Bessie Agee were married yesterday in Dallas, Rev. D. L. Fields performing the ceremony. The couple will reside at 1190 North Capitol street.

Among the Salemites to visit the rose festival at Portland is Mrs. H. Snook, who left on the Oregon Electric yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Snook will be joined by her husband in Portland.

The financial committee of the Cherry Fair will meet at the Illihee club Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, sharp. By order of A. G. Magers, chairman.

Notice.—The original German Bakery, formerly at Twelfth and Chemeketa streets, has moved to 240 South Commercial street. Phone 378 and their branch store is at Twelfth and Center streets. Goldsmith and Theuer.

After spending three days at the Rose Festival, A. G. Magers returned this morning and dull care (?) will again fill a position in his life. Ah, says he had a "jim-dandy good time," but feels sorter willin' to get home again.

Harry Lovell, who stepped from the prison gates last Monday, after serving a 20-months' sentence and was arrested by Sheriff Eech on the charge of forgery, was released yesterday by the justice of the peace of Woodburn. Lovell was charged with forging I. N. Thomas' name to a check, but when he was brought into court there was no prosecuting witness.

You can't beat it. No flour yields such pure, sweet, appetizing bread, rolls and biscuits as Cherry City Flour. Your grocer has it.

Have you taken my tip by purchasing a guaranteed lice killer for your stock or poultry? Sold by F. E. Shafer 125 South Commercial street.

Miss Anna G. Donlavy, who recently graduated from the Salem high school, left yesterday for Redmond, Or., where she will make her home in the future.

Call them what you will—Charming sunhats; we call them. They are equally fascinating in any case. At Mrs. Curtis, Masonic building. High street.

The financial committee of the Cherry Fair will meet at the Illihee club Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, sharp. By order of A. G. Magers, chairman.

Why should you deny yourself the real pleasure of music. The recreation, the relief from your worries that the Victrola will bring you and every member of your family. See R. F. Peters, 521 Court street.

We have just received a choice lot of large Queen olives. We also sell the Manzanillas—those small dainty kind, and can recommend them. Isn't it about time for another sack of Olympic flour, Edgar, the grocer, Court and High streets.

There were six cars in the Oregon Electric train which left Salem for Portland this morning at 10 o'clock, and each coach was filled with people going to the Rose Festival. This is said to be the largest O. E. excursion train ever leaving Salem.

Wouldn't you prefer to have your morning cup filled with rich, fragrant, delicious coffee than with a flavorless beverage. Why don't you? Good coffee, nothing but the pure, good coffee berry sold at the Sunset grocery, 121 South Commercial street.

Fred Domagally was bound over to await the action of the next grand jury by Justice Webster yesterday. Domagally is charged with a statutory offense. The prosecuting witness was May Ake, who appeared in court with her 6-weeks-old baby. The defendant furnished $250 bonds.

Many people were out yesterday to attend the funeral of Stephen Zelinski, the young man who was killed last Saturday. The services were held at the Church of the Assumption at Brooks. A choir from St. Joseph's church rendered several beautiful selections. Interment was made in the Catholic cemetery.

Frank Ford, farmer and capitalist, of the north end of the county, was in Salem yesterday looking after business. Mr. Ford recently purchased six large rat traps for the purpose of ridding his chicken ranch of the rodents, and he declared yesterday that about 200 of the pests have been caught.

It appears from the records at the city hall that George Whiteaker did not sign a remonstrance against the improvement of High street. Instead he signed a petition to have his name withdrawn from the original petition calling for the improvement. Both petitions were read at the council meeting Monday night.

Fred Legg and family are taking in the rose carnival at Portland via their automobile.

The penitentiary lost another man yesterday afternoon, when Chester Vanderpool, a one-to-seven-year man, broke from the band of convicts working on the road near the prison, and escaped in the brush. Vanderpool has been in prison but four months.

Before a meeting of the W. C. T. U., Mrs. Jackson Silbaugh, of Seattle, yesterday spoke on the subject of purity work. In her address Mrs. Silbaugh said that the women of Oregon should closely examine the character of every candidate to a public office before they vote for him. That would go away with the double standard of morals.

A rose festival in a small way was held in Salem yesterday when Werner Breyman, who lives at the corner of State and Cottage streets, trimmed his rose bushes and finding he had more roses than he knew what to do with, he placed them in a basket on the sidewalk with the sign attached "take one." It was not long, however, until all that was left was the basket.

Unless the park board of the city gets busy soon, the fountain in Marion square will dry up and blow away. There has not been enough water flowing from the fountain to quench the thirst of a snow-bird, and, as the water don't cost the city anything, residents along the square suggest that a plumber be hired to open up the badly rusted water spouts, and the water company be requested to turn on the liquid.

A complaint was filed in the circuit court this morning by J. L. Houck against Edward Ruff in which the plaintiff asks that a co-partnership contract between himself and the defendant be dissolved and that he recover $1374 from the defendant. Houck alleges in his complaint that he purchased from Ruff a half interest in the Oregonian restaurant and that the latter left without settling an indebtedness against the place of business in the sum of $1374, which the plaintiff claims he has paid.

Willard Wirtz, a former representative of the Portland Journal in Salem, and now a deputy district attorney of Prineville, Crook county, arrived in this city this morning and will remain a few days renewing old acquaintances. "By gosh, old Salem has been piling up a lot of brick since I was here last," remarked the popular ex-newspaper man, when he stepped from the Oregon Electric train. Mr. Wirtz was appointed county attorney of Crook county by Governor West, but the re-appointing of the act creating the office is holding up the position.

An amended complaint in the case of L. H. McMahan vs. the secretary of state and the state treasurer was filed in the circuit court here yesterday. A few minor points were changed in the original complaint in the amended one, and the case will be hurried through the lower tribunal as quickly as possible, in order that the supreme court may act upon. The case involves the validity of an act passed by the last legislature authorizing the secretary of state to issue warrants in the sum of $450,000 to be used in the construction of an irrigation project in Crook county.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Bynon and family left in their machine this morning for the week in Portland, where they will be joined by a party of friends.

Why not increase the beauty, cheerfulness and convenience of every room in the house through proper lighting. See the Peerless lamps at Pettingell's, 135 North Liberty street.

Mrs. Robert Fenell, of South High street, has as visitor her sister, Miss Ruth Coolidge, of Grants Pass. Miss Coolidge is on her way to take in the rose carnival.

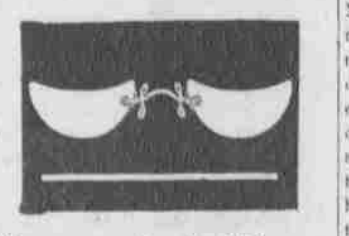

The financial committee of the Cherry Fair will meet at the Illihee club Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, sharp. By order of A. G. Magers, chairman.

Donald Upjohn, the recent appointee of Governor West to fill the office of district attorney for the twelfth judicial district, is the first person to register under the Gill register law, passed by the last legislature, providing that the registration books be kept open until 30 days before the election, and also that each county clerk file with the secretary of state the list of registrations every week.

A letter was received by the railroad commission from a man in Warrenton, near Astoria, saying that the A. & C. R. R., a branch of the Southern Pacific, had been dealing out death to some of his domestic animals. This is the stumbling block to the officials to ascertain whether the gentleman speaks of a cow or a horse. It must be somewhat chagrining to the officials of the commission to know that they are unable to recognize either a cow or a poor old broken down horse when they meet one. It is sure a horse on them.

A party of 26 ministers of the Swedish church arrived in this city yesterday afternoon and Secretary Gregg, of the commercial club, met them, and the visitors were shown about the city in autos. The fruit districts were visited and the party was taken to the capitol building, where they met the state officials. After the sightseeing trip, the minister lunched at the Hotel Marion, and in the evening they attended the local Swedish church, where a nice program was carried out for their entertainment. The party has been attending a conference in Washington, and from here they will leave for their respective homes.
