

WILL NOT INCREASE SALEM POLICE FORCE

Council Votes Against Proposition to Add Another Man, and Number Remains at Six.

OPPOSITION TO MACADAM PAVING SHOWN AT SESSION

Five Councilmen Vote Against Proposition to Use It on Ground That It Is Inferior.

The police force of Salem will not be increased to more than six men. The council last evening showed how it felt about the matter, when, by unanimous vote, the proposed appointment of J. H. Roberts as patrolman was indefinitely postponed.

A remonstrance against the improvement of 18th street from Center to State was referred to the city attorney.

A resolution was adopted that the mayor appoint a committee of six to investigate the cost of lighting in Salem. Stolz suggested that the matter be made a special order for next Monday night, but withdrew his motion, and the resolution was unanimously adopted.

Macadam Not Favored. Property owners of North Church reported that they had selected macadam and W. H. Wilson had the lowest bid, $281,237, for the paving. Stolz was one of those who favored letting the people on that street have the paving, stating that the lots were worth from $100 to $150, and would not stand a costlier pavement. It was a side street and the travel was light, he said. The roll was called and macadam received the votes of all except Brown, Constable, Jones, Skiffe and Southwick while the nine others favored allowing the cheap paving.

It was put up to the city attorney to investigate the claim of S. A. Manning, agent of the Standard Oil, that the Falls City Lumber Company was blocking 15th street with lumber.

The matter of compelling the Hickory Bark Company to build a sidewalk on 12th street was referred to the city engineer and city attorney. The bark people have been very slow about doing the work, it is reported. Bigdon made a talk about it, and Stolz suggested that he handle it, inasmuch as he knew so much about it.

Says Police Bother Him. The police committee was instructed to investigate a charge of Fred Dodd, licensed to sell bananas and other fruit at the Oregon Electric station, that he had been harassed by the police and had been prevented from selling his wares.

A petition of the Cherry Fair committee for an appropriation of $250 was referred to the ways and means committee.

Front street residents complained that the P. E. & E. had not paved several gapes. The petition was referred to the city attorney.

Buy Meredith Lot.

The recommendation of the street committee that the city purchase lots on 17th street from Frank Meredith for $700 was adopted. The tract is necessary to straighten out the street. Stolz said the P. E. & E. had changed its plans about building on 17th, and so it could not be induced to buy the lot, as had been hoped. The price was considered reasonable, he said, as Meredith was asking only the purchase money and taxes paid. Page corroborated the statements made by Stolz.

HOLD INTER-SOCIETY ORATORICAL CONTEST

Glenn McAddam Is Winner of Event at Willamette University and Jewett Second.

MUCH INTEREST SHOWN IN EVENT AND PROGRAM GOOD

Second Memorial Service in Honor of Jason Lee Is Held at the University.

The intersociety oratorical contest, held at Willamette last evening, resulted in a victory for Glen McAddam, of the Philodrians, who spoke on the theme "Commercialism Versus War." Second place was accorded Howard Jewett, of the Websterians, who had for his subject "The Christ of the Andes."

The chapel was crowded to the doors by people who gathered to hear the orators. Miss Ola Clark represented the Philodrians, and Miss Elizabeth Luce the Adalantes. The program: Piano solo, Gertrude Eakin.

Although the water in the Willamette is yet much too cool for comfortable bathing, the youngsters were seemingly having the time of their lives, and two of them, who did not look to be more than 12 or 14 years old, jumped into the water and paddled their way across the river to the gravel bar, a distance of probably two blocks. There is considerable danger in performing this feat at this time of the year, owing to the water being cold, but the two lads made the trip to the island and after throwing a few dozen rocks, jumped in and swam back.

BANQUET IS PLANNED FOR AN AMERICAN COMMISSION. Paris, June 17.—A monster banquet and reception, it was announced today, are being planned in honor of the American commission now touring Europe investigating the various rural credit systems. The commission expects to reach Paris about June 29.

A committee composed of 51 of the most prominent men in France has been appointed to arrange a welcome which will surpass in cordiality any yet given the Americans in cities they have previously visited. The committee is headed by honorary presidents, these being Etienne Clement, minister of agriculture; George Vallain, governor of the Bank of France; and Myron T. Herriek, United States ambassador to France. Other serving on the committee are Senator Viger, former minister of agriculture, now president of the National Federation of Co-operative Agricultural Loans; Jules Benard, regent of the Bank of France; Ferdinand David, former minister of agriculture, and president of a big co-operative farm loan bank. All the other members of the reception committee are either presidents or vice presidents of co-operative rural banks or similar institutions.

After ten days of investigation here, the commission will leave on July 8 for London where more entertainment and investigation awaits the members. The Americans will come to France after visiting Italy, Hungary, Austria, Germany and Russia, at all of which places they will have been received formally by the highest officials of the respective countries.

THE MENACE OF CANADIAN OATS

Disliking to be inquisitive this paper can not help wondering who poured into the ears of the Portland Oregonian that first class joke about the farmers of Umatilla county getting ready to migrate to Canada because the Underwood tariff contains a provision for free oats.

There are just two things wrong with that tale. One is that Umatilla county does not raise oats and the other is that her farmers are not figuring on migrating to Canada. A great many honest Umatilla county farmers did go to Canada some years ago during the glorious days of the protective tariff. They found that Canada is much closer to the Arctic ocean than is Oregon and that the first thing they have to do up there in order to get money out of a crop is to get the crop. Not one of the 1,000 or more farmers who went north has ever come back in an automobile. Meanwhile their broth-

YOUNGSTERS ENJOYING BATHING IN WILLAMETTE

It does not make much difference whether it rains or shines to the lively young Salem lads just as long as people will insist upon saying summer is at hand. This is a fact recorded yesterday by several persons who chanced to look across the Willamette river and note several little naked bodies popping in and out of the water at the swimming hole.

PLenty of ROOM TO TURN AROUND IN HARNEY COUNTY. After roaming about the arid lands of Eastern Oregon for two weeks, Attorney J. G. Heltzel has returned to his home in this city looking better and feeling like a three-year-old.
