DEMOCRATS BELIEVED TO BE BADLY SPLIT ON TARIFF MEASURE

Possible That Enough Will Oppose Final Passage to Kill Bill.

THOSE CLOSELY WATCHED

Walsh, Shafroth and Newlands May Break Away, and This Will Mean Very Narrow Margin.

Washington, June 20.—Senator Simmons, chairman of the senate finance committee, today presented to the Democratic senate caucus his committee's draft of the tariff bill.

Simmons today declared he was confident that the caucus would develop the votes necessary to pass the bill, and plans to offer a resolution binding all Democrats to its support on final passage.

How Bill Reads.

The tariff bill as presented to the Democratic caucus contains many reductions and additions to the free list. Wheat, cattle, sheep, wheat flour, textbooks and beet and sugar cane machinery are added to the free list.

GREAT LABOR BATTLE ON IN CHICAGO

Chicago, June 20.—Chicago is today confronted with one of the most serious labor situations in her history, following the announcement of a lockout of the employers' association of the structural contractors.

Beside the 10,000 workmen dismissed, from 10,000 to 25,000 other workmen will be affected by the enforced idleness in structural work.

The lockout affects more men than any other strike or lockout in the city's history.

The employers' association today declares freely that their plan is to "starve out" the union men. They will not attempt to employ non-union men, but will allow poverty and hunger to fight for them in the struggle.

CIRCULAR ISSUED TO PROPERTY OWNERS IN REGARD TO BIG FAIR

They Are Asked to Aid in Making This Annual Event Great Success.

COST WILL BE SMALL

Contribution of $1 From Each Home Would Provide Big Fund for Use in Booster Event.

J. Baumgartner, secretary of the Cherry Fair executive committee, today issued a circular to property owners. Owing to the fact that it would take time to reach people by letter, the circular was given to The Capital Journal for immediate publication.

"The executive committee of the 1913 Cherry Fair committee finds itself in need of funds to properly carry out the plans for a successful Cherry Fair and Fourth of July celebration.

"The merchants have contributed to the fund for a number of years, while the property holders have never before been approached for contributions.

"It is a well-known fact that during the week in which the fair is held business is practically paralyzed, except in a few lines, such as hotels, restaurants, confectionery stores, etc.

"The property owners are the ones most benefitted and the committee now appeals to you as property owners to assist in this laudable work.

AUTOMOBILE OWNER MUST SERVE TERM FOR KILLING

Trenton, N. J., June 20.—Daniel A. Dugan, Jr., whose father, Judge D. A. Dugan, of the Orange district court, is a personal friend of President Woodrow Wilson, must serve a sentence of from five to ten years at hard labor, according to a decision of the state supreme court which affirmed the lower court's conviction of manslaughter for killing Lee McDermott, a boy who tried to cross the street in front of Dugan's automobile. The accident occurred Christmas day, 1911.

Cleveland, Ohio, June 20.—Weldon B. Cook, an aviator, of Oakland, Cal., is fully recovered today from the shock of a plunge into Lake Erie with his biplane.

Case of Wheeler County Sheriff and Physician, Who Accompanied Drunken Boy Schooled.

It was announced today that Superintendent Hale of the state training school, would lay the evidence in the recent drunken boy scandal before the Marion county grand jury next month.

A short time ago a boy was brought from near Condon and turned over to Sheriff Each, of this county, in an intoxicated condition. The boy was accompanied by Sheriff Kelsey, of Wheeler county, a Dr. Norris, of Fossil and two unknown men.

The party made the trip in an automobile and were all well under the influence of liquor, according to the investigating officials.

Superintendent Hale has evidence that the party obtained several bottles of liquor in Portland and proceeded to demolish the same on their road to Salem where the boy was to be turned over to the officials of the reform school.

Six Days' Bride Loses Her Husband Who Said He Was Drugged When He Plighted Vows

Seattle, Wash., June 20.—While commending the many good qualities of the wife "which ought not to be obscured by the censure ferited in certain conduct," Judge Everett Smith today granted the petition for annulment of the marriage to his six-days' bride, asked for by Dr. Phillip B. Waughop.

NAVY AVIATOR FALLS 1600 FEET TO DEATH

Head of Aviation School With Him Is Badly Hurt, But Will Survive, It Is Believed.

Annapolis, Md., June 20.—Ensign William D. Billingsley, a navy aviator, was killed today while making a hydroplane flight over Chesapeake Bay.

Lieutenant J. H. Towers, head of the aviation school, was aloft with Billingsley. He clung to the machine when it turned turtle, and escaped with bad but not fatal bruises.

Towers was rescued by a launch and is at the naval hospital this afternoon in a highly nervous condition.

Billingsley was operating the machine, when it was suddenly jolted from its level by a puff of wind.

Billingsley was thrown against the side of the machine and the craft turned turtle, throwing Billingsley out.

Billingsley, the dead aviator, was an experienced air navigator, having been at the school a year.

NEW ERA OF PROSPERITY DAWNING ON PACIFIC OCEAN

San Francisco, June 20.—That a new era of prosperity on the Pacific ocean is dawning, to be further stimulated by the opening of the Panama canal, is the prediction today of Sir Edgar Vincent, chairman of the royal commission on trade conditions, who is here after spending six weeks in New Zealand and three months in Australia.

"Trade conditions in Australia," Sir Edgar said, "look particularly hopeful, and the possibilities of development of commerce with the United States are immense."

Letter to His Mother.

In the dead man's possession was found a letter to his mother at Independence, Mo. It reads in part:

"For what I am about to do I want to ask your forgiveness. I expect I am going to hell, and know you will go to heaven. I have been driven almost insane over Ruth, and I don't know what to do."

Mrs. Allen declares that there is a mystery behind the tragedy that she is not willing to make known.

GOVERNOR DENIES MIXING AT TROUTDALE

Says He Has Enough Troubles of His Own and Will Not Invaade Sheriff Word's Territory.

Governor West this morning made a firm denial that he had any special agents working on the case that has come up in Troutdale over the refusal of the mayor of that town to resign his office.

The governor said that his office had enough troubles of its own and did not care to go in on Sheriff Word, of Multnomah county. The governor said that Tom Kay, special agent for the state in Multnomah county, was also a deputy sheriff and any evidence he might unearth would be given to Sheriff Word.

The governor was not sure whether Kay would be acting as a special agent for the state at the time or as a deputy sheriff.

JUMPS TO DEATH IN RIVER AFTER TRYING TO MURDER WOMAN

Portland Young Man Said to Have Been Infatuated With Married Girl

SAYS SHE EVADED HIM

Tried to Escape Mygott by Flying Up and Down Coast But He Followed Her to Tacoma.

Tacoma, Wash., June 20.—Falling in a desperate attempt to hurl Mrs. Ruth Francis Allen, aged 19 years, from the Eleventh street bridge in the downtown district, Edward W. Mygott, aged 23 years, of Portland, jumped off the tower span of the bridge early today, sustaining injuries which resulted in his death an hour later at the county hospital.

His body did not strike the water, falling on the dock beneath the bridge.

The young woman is at the police station pending an investigation of the tragedy by the police.

Mrs. Allen whose husband, George Allen, is in New York, declares that Mygott forced his attentions upon her until she was driven almost to distraction.

She says she traveled from Los Angeles to Tacoma in an effort to avoid him. With her two month old baby, Mrs. Allen left Los Angeles and went to San Francisco, where she declares, Mygott pursued her.

Later she went to Portland, where her mother is visiting friends. In Portland she was joined by Mygott, who accompanied her and her mother to a theatre. As was pre-arranged, Mrs. Allen said she slipped out and boarded a train for Tacoma.

Mygott, however, saw her board the train and also purchased a ticket, remaining in another part of the same train.

When Mrs. Allen arrived at Tacoma she obtained a taxicab, planning to take a steamer to Seattle. Suddenly Mygott appeared, and leaping into the cab gave the driver orders to go to the municipal dock. Here the machine was stopped and Mygott seized Mrs. Allen and attempted to throw her over the bridge. Two men nearby went to her assistance, and beat the frantic man off.

Foiled in his attempt to destroy Mrs. Allen, Mygott leaped over the rail and landed on the ground 60 feet below.

At the hospital he died. Mygott declared that he was angry at the woman because she left her baby in Portland.

He also said that Mrs. Allen was his wife, and that he was the father of the baby. All this Mrs. Allen denies. She declares her husband is in New York.
