PAROLED CONVICT HAS BURIED TREASURE YARN

Offers by Tom Alexander to Locate It for Portland People Lead to His Arrest.

OFFERS TO SPLIT WITH DETECTIVES IN ROSE CITY

Close to $200,000 in Loot Said to Have Been Buried by Train Robbers and Others.

Portland, June 21.—Offers made by Tom Alexander, a paroled convict, to lead Detectives Tichenor and Abbot to a spot where money and valuables worth more than $200,000 are buried are puzzling the detectives, who believe that, while Alexander cannot do what he pretends, he probably has some inkling of a real "plant," his description of the supposed loot answering to that which was taken from a Union Pacific train near Ogden about three years ago. Alexander, after serving three years of a 15-year term from Klamath Falls, was paroled some months ago, and has been in Portland. Yesterday it came to the ears of the detectives that he was going about the North End trying to enlist some one in a mysterious expedition, and they went after him. On the way to detective headquarters Alexander offered to take the detectives into his confidence, promising that the loot should be "split three ways." One-third, he said, must go toward effecting the release of an unnamed man now in the state penitentiary, and the remainder would be divided between himself and the detectives. Cash Placed at $190,000.

Except that it is out of the state of Oregon, Alexander would give no hint of the hiding place, but he said it contained $150,000 in paper money, $10,000 in gold and a large quantity of jewelry and registered mail. It would cost $500 to unearth it, he said. "Why don't you go after it alone," he was asked. "I can't leave the state and, besides, I have no money. You can hold a gun on me all the way, and if I don't make good, shoot."

After questioning the man at length, the detectives summoned Deputy Sheriff Curtis, who is a state parole officer, and had custody of Alexander while warden of the penitentiary. Mr. Curtis believes that the man in the penitentiary whose release is to be effected is Ed. Jergens, sentenced to 10 years to life for a stage holdup and frequently mentioned in connection with the train holdups which have occurred on the Southern Pacific road at Cow Creek canyon. Jergens, however, says Alexander is not the man he refers to.

"Don't be a nut," whispered Alexander to Detective Tichenor, as Curtis led him away. "The money is there, and you might as well have it as anyone."

While no confidence is placed by the authorities in the story as told by Alexander, all of them are inclined to believe that he may have gathered prison gossip of some significance, as great quantities of valuables stolen in a number of train holdups never have come to light. Deputy Curtis will hold Alexander for further investigation.

POMONA GRANGE PICNIC AT NORTH HOWELL ENJOYED

A crowd of jolly Salem people went to North Howell Wednesday, June 18, to attend a Pomona Grange picnic. The tables fairly groaned with the good things to eat, and, after dinner, the people grained. There was no doctor present, but there was a minister, and, as they sometimes follow the doctor, the people felt safe.

There was an excellent program rendered, consisting of music and speaking. Among the speakers was Dr. Withycombe, of Corvallis, who spoke along the line of dairying and cheaper interest on money for the farmers to carry on farming, and a great many things of interest to farmers.

The farmers of North Howell have a nice grange hall and church. In the grange of North Howell they have a landscape gardener, who did the decorating for this occasion, and the hall was surely a most beautiful sight.

The Salem people came home feeling they were in the shade when it came to entertainment, after the royal entertaining of North Howell, and it is their greatest wish that they will be invited again. Those from Salem attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Howell, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Fletcher, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Sellwood, Mrs. Keene, Mrs. Townsend, Mrs. T. C. Davidson, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Hofma and T. A. Myers.

Last week it was the festival makers and visitors who wanted no rain; this week it is the haymakers. Weather prayers are never unanimous.

The farmer says it costs him so much for his groceries that he isn't laying up a cent. Who gets the money?

As heaven is his witness, the jobber is innocent; its the manufacturer who is getting rich, says he. Who gets the money?

LOWEST BIDDER NOT AWARDED CONTRACT

Pacific Heating & Engineering Company's Work Not Satisfactory in Past Says Board.

COX GETS CONTRACT WITH SOMEWHAT HIGHER TENDER

Labor Unions Strongly Opposed to Letting Contract to Pacific People and Protested.

The board of control yesterday awarded the heating contract for the new supreme court building to W. W. Cox, of Portland. Although the Pacific Heating & Engineering company bid $19,877 on the work, and Mr. Cox bid $20,231, the board felt that as the work done heretofore by the Pacific company had not been satisfactory the board was justified in rejecting their bid and awarding the same to next lowest which was Mr. Cox. Mr. Cox said later that he would do the work for the same figure as was asked by the Pacific company.

The trouble with the Pacific company arose over some work that was done on the asylum and the tubercular institution and declared to be inferior by the governor and the secretary of state. Labor unions were also against awarding the contract to the Pacific people and even went so far as to send a delegate here to protest against the company. The governor and secretary say that this action on the part of the labor unions had nothing to do with their decision.

The plumbing contract was awarded to Griggs & Co. whose bid was $4454.

ANTI-FAT REMEDY MAN IS PROSECUTED

Asserted He Also Promised to Make Lean Fat and His Dope Did Not Make Good.

[UNITED PRESS LEARNED WIRE.]

Denver, Colo., June 21.—Women fat, women lean and women all the way between jammed the United States court here today at the trial of Walter C. Cunningham and his wife, Margery, charged with using the mails to defraud by selling through the Margery Hamilton company an anti-fat, anti-lean remedy.

Testimony that the remedy, which was claimed to "play both ends against the middle," did nothing of the sort was freely given, the fat women indignantly declaring that not one ounce had melted, and the lean ones quite as angrily declaring that not a corner rounded despite the good coin they spent.

CORNELL'S HUSKY MEN WIN FOUR OAR EVENT

Washington Gets Fifth Place and Syracuse and Columbia Row Out of Course.

[UNITED PRESS LEARNED WIRE.]

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 21.—Justifying expectations, Cornell's husky four-oared crew won the fours here this afternoon in the intercollegiate regatta, doing the course in 19:47, official time. Pennsylvania was second, Columbia third, Wisconsin fourth, Washington fifth and Syracuse sixth.

Thousands on thousands lined the river and saw Cornell triumph. During the first mile Coach Courtney's four laid back, but in the last half Cornell jumped into the lead and won with ease. Syracuse and Columbia rowed out of the course, and were unplaced.

If a man is handsome he exaggerates to himself.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC MAN IS SWINDLED

Two Men and a Woman Involved in Securing Pay Checks From Agent.

OVER $1200 IS INVOLVED

Twelve Checks Are Cashed at Banks, Saloons and Business Houses by Unknown Criminals.

[UNITED PRESS LEARNED WIRE.]

Portland, Or., June 21.—Detectives today are seeking traces of two men and a woman who are alleged to have forged the name of Geo. Wilde, master mechanic of the Southern Pacific railroad here, to an order for 12 pay checks in the possession of the agent at Brooklyn, a suburb, and intended for distribution to employes.

On Thursday the strangers approached the agent with a supposed order, written on railroad letter paper, and bearing the signature of Wilde. The checks had previously been given to the agent, who seeing the name of his superior on the paper, turned over the slips. The checks afterwards were afterwards cashed at several banks, saloons and business houses. It is estimated that between $1200 and $1500 is involved.

MEMBER OF LEGISLATURE IS ELIGIBLE FOR PLACE

Attorney-General Crawford this morning gave an opinion relative to membership on the Panama Exposition commission. The question was brought up by Treasurer Kay, who wanted to know whether or not a member of the last legislature, which created the commission, could be a member of the commission. The attorney-general holds that such a thing is permissible as the law merely lays down that an officeholder cannot be a legislator. Furthermore, the position being only honorary would permit a member of the legislature being on the commission.

Strikers Get 90 Days.

Paterson N. J., June 21.—Thirty-one striking silk mill workers, members of the Industrial Workers of the World, who were convicted recently of unlawful assemblage, were sentenced yesterday to serve three months each at hard labor in the county jail.

As soon as the sentences were imposed the court suspended them subject to the good behavior of the prisoners.
