THE OPEN FORUM

D. E. Fletcher

The Capital Journal invites pub-He discussion in this department -Let both sides of all matters be fully brought out-it is not the purpose of this newspaper to do the thinking for its readers.

********* UP TO MR. WEST.

On the floors of legislative bodies it often happens that in passing on a measure, a member will arise at call of his name to state his reason for the of his name to state his reason for the vote which he is casting. Largely is this privilege extended, and largely is advantage of it taken, that the voting member may so, publicly, clear himself if possible of the charge of being at best, inconsistent. His vote unexplained, he could, probably, is view of former efforts or assertions, be laid open to that charge. And it is not a pleasant charge to face

Inconsistency manifest in a public official is a source of profitable delight to his enemies, and to his friends and upholders the cause of chagrin all the more confusing for that very attitude of former friendliness and defense. This charge is today being male against Governor West. During his puttre administration, his chief claim to public recognition and endorsement has been the inauguration and continuance of his "prison policy." It is especially regreatable, therefore, that this very department of his policies should prove the one in which he has seemingly been inconsistent and in-sincere. Is it not up to Mr. West to "explain his yote?"

Was it sufficient that he should state that the 'circumstances were well known to his office? Evidently not. The public is not satisfied. Friend and fee alike supporter of his "poli-cy" and its assailant, have at least found common ground in the belief that, whether wisely or no, our executive was recognizing, in the convict, the man and giving to that convict all the rights of the man, insofar as was permitted by the circumstances of his being a convict. But for either foe or friend to find a trace of that avow-recognition of the rights of the man the convict, in the late action of the the convict, in the late action of the governor in the Snodgrass case, is in deed difficult. The convict was under the the influence of liquor and he was defenseless. Where, in manhood's cod is granted sanction to assault under those circumstances? What conduct of the convict. the convict's part at or prior to the der those conditions excusable? What were the circumstances known to the governor's office? That is what the public wants to know. Isn't it up to Mr. West to "explain his vote?"

FRIEDMANN JOLTED AGAIN.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Berlin, July 4.—By an overwhelmin, ajurity, the Berlin Medical Society to day has turned down a request by Pro-fessor Ludwig Schleich, associate of Dr. Frederick Franz Friedmann, for to test Priedmann's turtle serum for tuberculusis. Cries of "brave" greeted the society's decision.

MISTAKES.

. By Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

God sent us here to make mistakes,
To strive, to fail, to re-begin,
To taste the tempting truit of sin,
And to find what bitter food it makes

To miss the path, to go astray, To wander blindly in the night; But, searching, praying for the light, Until at last we find the way.

And looking back along the past, We know we needed all the strain Of fear and doubt and strife and

To make us value peace at last.

BUD ANDERSON IN FINE SHAPE FOR FIGHT

Says All Talk About His Sore Pist Is Con Stuff and He Will Win Battle With Base.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Los Angeles, Cal., July 4.—Fit for the battle of his life, Bud Anderson left his quarters at Venice shortly be-fore noon today and motored to Los Angeles to weigh in for his near-championship match with Leach Cross at Verson this afternoon. Cross sleet at Vernon this afternoon. Cross slept late, and it was near noon when he ap-peared for a breakfast-luncheon, which was to be his only ante-bellum meal.

Hot, cloudless weather marked the early morning. Advance Licket sales were heavy.

Hot, cloudless weather marked the morning. Advance ticket sales were heavy.

Anderson was in rare spirits when he entered the automobile. He "kid-ded" Manager Donald all the way to Los Angeles.

"Just a year ago today," gleefully remarked Bud. "I was fighting a tenth rater for a hundred bucks at Klamath Falls, Oregon."

"Today if I win I'll get a ernek at that old title. All this talk about my sore hand in con stuff. The first is all right. Ask Cross after the fight. And right. Ask Cross after the fight. And I will be under the weight easily, too."
Asked for a final word for his home friends at Medford and Vancouver, Bud grinned widely and replied: "Just say that I'm the same old, Bud, and that I'll win if I have it in me. I'm strong and feel great, and I'll fight today as I never fought before."

Cross, peevish as a kitten with a sorre paw, remarked his contempt for sore paw, remarked his contempt for Anderson's vanuted punch, venturing the opinion that to be effective the first must land.

The boys were scheduled to weigh in at 133 pounds at noon. They probably will enter the ring about 3:15 o'clock.
