The Lafayette Building & Lasing Co. and the Bay Ocean Natatorium Co. were given permits to do business in Oregon yesterday by Corporation Commissioner Watson. The Weonas, the only Portland team to defeat the Senators last season and always a contender for state honors, will play the Senators Sunday, July 13. Both teams will be strong and a hard game is expected. Circuit Judge Galloway yesterday issued an order which gives the county court permission to intervene in the action now pending, wherein the Day bill is the principal cause. After spending several days attending the Society of Charities and Corrections, E. T. Moore, superintendent of the blind school, will return shortly. There is a vast difference in frames and mountings for eye glasses. Only an expert knows the difference. Have explained by Dr. James Smith, rooms 303-4 Masonic building. Z. C. Hatter, long a resident of Salem and a member of Central Congregational church, has been obliged to go to the sanitarium for medical attendance. Many friends unite in wishing him a speedy and complete recovery. A roadster passed through Salem today, and its occupants were Mr. and Mrs. C. School and daughter, Alice, of Seattle. The party is bound for Los Angeles, and upon the return trip a long visit will be made in Salem.

Rockers! Rockers! Rockers! More than 100 different styles to select from here, so everyone can be suited. Imperial Furniture Co. The plaintiff in the case of R. D. Day vs. R. R. Ryan and D. H. Weyant was awarded judgment in the sum of $243.75 yesterday by the jury. The plaintiff was suing to recover money alleged to be owing. Alleging that the Falls City Lumber Company is indebted to him in the sum of $425 on a timber contract, E. C. McLaughlin yesterday commenced suit in the circuit court to collect the amount. Two transient hoboes were picked up last night by the officers and locked in the city bastille. Four "dope guns" were found on their persons, and both men, who were comparatively youthful, showed signs of having used the drug to the extreme. Keep in mind and tell your friends that the third and deciding game between McMinnville and Salem will be played at Salem Sunday, July 20. The first two games were simply great, but they cannot be compared to this one. The stars of the valley will be lined up against each other. The Frame Shop, 279 North Commercial, announces a mid-summer cleanup sale, commencing Monday, July 14th. A discount is offered of 33-1/3 per cent on all framed pictures and novelties, and 10 per cent on all "framed to order" pictures and empty frames. Old frames refinished in the antique good, now so much in favor. The Salem Military band gave another concert in Willson avenue last night. The streets, as usual, were lined with autos, while the cool grass in the avenue served as the resting place for several hundred Salomites. The illuminated fountain played for some time, much to the entertainment of the spectators and this, combined with the lively music, made up a very pleasant evening. Residents on Center street ran to front doors and peered out excitedly this morning about 8 o'clock at what they supposed at first was a runaway jessing along that thoroughfare. It proved, however, that the racket was made by an auto belonging to the Geiger Construction Co., behind which a big cement carrier was being hauled. The carrier rumbled loudly as it was soaked over the pavement at a good clip by the auto, and sounded for all the world like a team of horses running away with a lumber wagon. There will be a union meeting of the churches of Salem in the Armory at 8 p. m. next Sabbath, to be addressed by Dr. J. Robertson, of Belfast, Ireland, on "The Catch-My-Pal Movement." Dr. Patterson stirred deeply the great parliament in Portland, and our people are to be congratulated on having an opportunity to hear him. Mayor B. L. Steeves will preside, and the ministers of the churches uniting will be on the platform. Dr. Patterson will speak in the First Methodist church in the morning, and address the union meeting in the evening. The U. S. civil service commission announces that a male clerk-carrier examination will be held at Salem, Oregon, on August 9, 1913, to fill vacancies in the Salem postoffice. Age limits 18 to 45 years. Attention is invited to the fact that the entrance salary for clerk-carrier is now $800 per annum, instead of $600 per annum as heretofore. Applicants should apply at once to the local secretary, Board of Civil Service Examiners, at the Salem postoffice, or the secretary, eleventh civil service district, Seattle, Washington, for application blanks and full information.
