WASHINGTON, July 14—Seattle will be the scene of a vast international railroad conference today and tomorrow, at which 600 railroad executives representing 250 railroads will gather to discuss the railroad infant mortality problem, which has so long been a source of concern to the industry.

The conference, which is being held in cooperation with the United States Public Health Service, is expected to result in the adoption of some measures to check the children's mortality which has increased so alarmingly in recent years.

MOTHER OF SUICIDE IS PROBING TRAGEDY

Mrs. Mygatt Says One Last Goodbye to Son Before He Is Buried

Mrs. Mygatt, astronaut and their son, of 54th Avenue and 14th Street, who was killed last night by a street car, will be buried today at 11 o'clock in the city cemetery.

The funeral will be attended by the mayor, the county judge, and other officials.

Effort Is Made to Collect $5,000 Reward

The reward offered for the capture of the man who killed Mrs. Mygatt and wounded her son, is now $5,000.

The reward was increased from $2,000 to $5,000 by the city council.

The reward was increased from $2,000 to $5,000 by the city council.

The reward was increased from $2,000 to $5,000 by the city council.

The reward was increased from $2,000 to $5,000 by the city council.

The reward was increased from $2,000 to $5,000 by the city council.

The reward was increased from $2,000 to $5,000 by the city council.

The reward was increased from $2,000 to $5,000 by the city council.

The reward was increased from $2,000 to $5,000 by the city council.

The reward was increased from $2,000 to $5,000 by the city council.