SPECIALTY OF GEORGE HANDING OUT RAW DEALS

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
San Francisco, July 23.—Too little and too much laundry brought George Blison into court here today to end a divorce suit.

George's specialty," said Mrs. Blison, "is handing out raw deals. The day after our marriage he opened a crammed to bursting with soiled clothes and pointed to the wash tub.

Then I wanted him to take me out to dinner.
"Stay at home," he told me, "and have a sensible bowl of soup and a roll."
"Then when the rent came due he ducked."
George grinned throughout his wife's testimony.

A childless woman can't understand why a mother should not spank her offspring at least three or four times a day.

QUARANTINE ASKED IN CERTAIN DISTRICTS

A request to place several portions of Multnomah county under quarantine was received by Governor West yesterday from the state veterinarian, W. H. Lytle. The following letter explains the official's wishes:

"As provide for in section 23 of Chapter 14 of the Session Laws of Oregon for the year 1913, provision is made wherein upon the advice of the state livestock sanitary board any infectious, contagious and communicable disease of domestic animals exists in any locality of this state, you may issue a proclamation placing such portions of the state in quarantine and forbidding the removal of any animal or material, liable to convey such disease, from such portion of this state, unless such animals or materials have been first inspected by the state veterinarian or his deputy and found free from disease or exposure thereto.

"Whereas, the infectious and communicable disease known as rabies does exist in dogs and other animals in portions of Clackamas and Multnomah counties, it is therefore most respectfully asked that if your office sees fit, that you issue a quarantine against the removal of any dog from that part of Clackamas described by starting at the confluence of the Clackamas and Willamette rivers and proceeding east along the north bank of the Clackamas river to that point where the division line between ranges three (3) and four (4) intersects the said river, and then proceeding north along this line the Multnomah county line; thence westward along this line to the Willamette river; thence south along the Willamette river to the point of starting; and all that part of Multnomah county lying west of the dividing line between ranges three (3) and four (4) in said county; unless the same shall have been inspected by a state, assistant state, county or approved veterinarian and a certificate given permitting such removal."

SPORTS

Jabs and Jolts

The work of strengthening the Boston Americans for the pennant race of 1914 has begun. Two young pitchers have been bought within a few days, Pitcher Radloff, purchased from the Manistee club of the Michigan state league, being the latest acquisition. The newcomer is a left-hander. He will report at the close of the Michigan league season.

The Seattle city council has passed an ordinance providing a penalty of $100 fine or 30 days in jail for betting at baseball games.

Work has now started on Dugdale's new ball park in Rainier valley to replace the "cheese box" now masquerading as a ball field in Seattle. Belief is the new grounds will be ready for occupancy the latter part of August.

Tom Tennant, of the Senators, is of the opinion that Jimmy Shinn is a better base-runner than Seattle. Belief is the new grounds will be ready for occupancy the latter part of August.

The way the coast receivers are going Gus Fisher and Claude Berry, of Portland, are doing the best work in the circuit. Jack Bliss, of Sacramento, has taken such a slump down south that the boys are handing him brickbats by the wagon load, while poor Hoens Mitze has lost all the cunning from his throwing arm. Walter Schmidt of the Seals, came north with the reputation of being the best receiver in the league, and several big league scouts were said to be trailing him around at night. Schmidt was far outclassed in the past series, however, by both Berry and Fisher. It must make Berry sore to get back at his former employers the way he has this year.

Judging from the number of times he moves, every day must be May 1 for Babe Borton. The ex-Chicago Sox first-sacker was traded recently to New York, was then farmed to Jersey City, refused to report and returned home to St. Joseph. Now he has wired that he will be good and return.

Del Howard blushing admits that he is 34 years old. So does Kid Mohler, but he declines to say how many decades ago.

The fact that Fred Derrick has been rendered horse de combat by a fractured knuckle proves that he is not a real big leaguer yet.

The Illibee club won from Watt Shipp's team last evening by a score of 4 to 1 in the Twilight series game. Quite a number attended the game.

Salem is a Summer Resort that's not to be Sneezed at How could it be otherwise with the beautiful Willamette at its very doors? Of course, folks go away for the summer—go to Tillamook and Newport and the Santiam.

But that's because they want a change of scene and surroundings, as much as anything else.

When it comes to keeping cool and sleeping comfortably, you can't improve on a room overlooking the river—or within a few blocks of the river.

This is the time of the year when everybody in the river zone who has rooms to rent should make the most money—should do a regular summer resort business.

Men and women crowd to the river front during the summer, but many who have rooms to rent near the river do not fully appreciate their location.

If you are in the vicinity of the riverside, and have one or more desirable rooms to rent, sit down now and write the right sort of an ad. When it is finished the Pacific Coast, is willing to box Sam Langford, at 158 pounds ringside, after he goes through with his match with Bob McAllister here August 8.

Petroskey will box Langford any way the latter wants to split the purse, for 50 rounds only. The match could not be put on until September.

Petroskey declares he is not afraid of the negro, but will not consent to let him go over the middleweight limit. Langford feels ure of making the weight.

MISSING NINE YEARS.

New York, July 23.—Nine years ago today the mysterious mists of the metropolis enshrouded Godfrey Louis Michon, M. D., Bellevue University, class of '87.

Never since that day has his wife (or widow), Mary Fallon Michon, seen him or heard directly of him. She has had clues at times—but not in recent years—but all of them proved false.

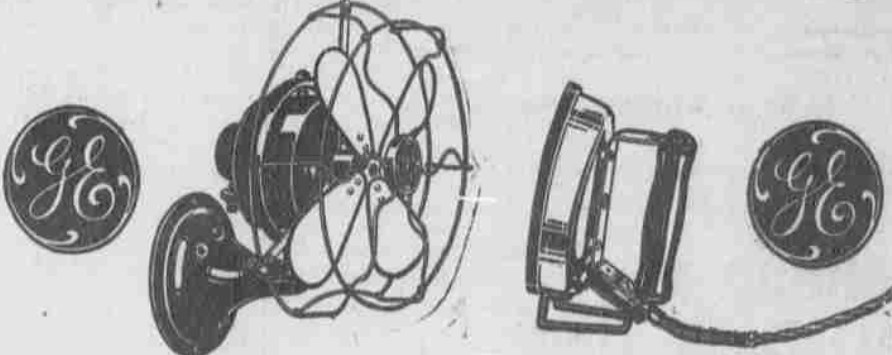

With two daughters to support Mrs. Michon went naturally into nursing, for it was while she was in training at North Brothers Island where Dr. Michon was head doctor, that she met and married the man who drifted so mysteriously to the Port of Missing Men. With a natural love for babies Mrs. Michon turned to that branch of work, and as near as she can calculate today, she has ushered in and started properly on the road of life just two hundred and forty-three babies since that day nine years ago, when her physician-husband faded away.

"I have long ago given up hope of ever finding him," she said today. "But I would give my right hand to clear up the mystery of his disappearance. I pay the insurance on his life out of my earnings every month—if now comes to $150 per year and you can realize that it comes hard. I may never get anything for it, as the officials of the Catholic Benevolent Legion inform me that death must be positively proved before I can realize on the policy. In all I have paid nearly $2000 on the $5000 policy and I shall continue as long as I can raise my hand and as long as this terrible mystery remains unsolved. Nine years is a long time. I guess it's only because of the dear little babies—I love them all—and because they keep me busy that I can stand it. My goodness, there's the telephone now—"

And Mary Michon, victim of mystery was off to meet a very material, maternal emergency.
