

Introduce Your Head to a New Hat This Week at Meyers

$3.00 and $3.50 Kind for $2.00

A special hat offering of unusual merit in our men's section this week. Our excellent assortment of good felt hats in the popular shapes and colorings—models to suit every style of face. They are extra good qualities, but we have too many, hence this reduction. Regular $3.00 and $3.50 hats, your choice at $2.00 each.

Men's and Young Men's Suits at Small Prices, too

Decidedly good values priced extremely low, for we must move them, as we need the room for new arrivals. If you intend to get a suit now, "Get it at Meyers."

Extra! Extra!

For the first time in the history of Salem the people of Marion and Polk counties can secure all kinds of sacks at right prices in this city, instead of spending their time and money in going to Portland. We are paying one cent a pound for all kinds of rags. We also are paying $13 per ton for all kinds of cast iron. Highest prices paid for all kinds of old clothes, household goods and furniture. We buy and sell everything from a needle to a piece of gold. All kinds of tools and machinery and pipe bought and sold. The house of a half a million bargains.

Fire Chief Mark Savage is being visited by his brother, Bert Savage, of Lewiston, Idaho. The visitor is well known in Salem, and at present is connected with the Lewiston Tribune.

Henry Schroeder yesterday filed a complaint in the circuit court for $35,000 damages against the Silverton Lumber Co. The plaintiff alleges in his complaint that by reason of negligence and oversight on the part of the defendant, he lost a leg.

Pears and apples will soon be coming into the Fruit Union at the corner of Trade and High streets in large numbers, according to the managers of that market place. There are some plums and apples already on hand, but the rush will be on shortly.

Blood poison contracted from a wound in the hand caused by a gopher gun, caused the death of Walter Kantelberg, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Kantelberg, yesterday. The funeral will be held this afternoon at 3:30 from the German Baptist church. The remains will be buried in Lee Mission cemetery.

The fire department made a speedy run to the corner of Shipping and Front streets last night in response to an alarm in from residents located near a vacant house owned by A. J. Anderson, of the city. A fire was in progress in the rear of the building when the department arrived, but the firemen succeeded in quenching it before any serious damage was done.

These changes in the weather have not made any difference to the people buying goods at our removal sale. Summer goods sell just as readily as reasonable fall goods. It will pay you to buy now, and have your purchases laid away until September 1. No charge for storage. Salem Furniture Company, Chemeketa near Commercial street.

The members of the Salem Commercial Club, under the direction of Secretary Fred Bryson, will show the Portland newspaper men a good time when that delegation, along with several prominent officials of the Portland, Eugene & Eastern Railroad Company arrive on a special train en route for points in the southern end of the valley. The excursion has been made up in the metropolis, and will visit every city on the P. E. & E. lines. The party will arrive here next Sunday at 12:30 and will remain until 2:30. They will be met at the train with autos and escorted about the city, after being received by the members of the Commercial Club, in the organization's new quarters.

The work of fitting up the quarters for the Salem Motorcycle Club will commence immediately, according to the report made at a meeting held by the organization last night. The club will be over the Belle confectionery store, on North Commercial street. It is hoped the work will have been completed in ten days, at least.

Milton A. Miller, of Lebanon, Ore., who will succeed David M. Dunne on Saturday as collector of internal revenue for Oregon, has tendered his resignation as a member of the state senate to Governor West. A successor will not be necessary unless the legislature shall be called into extraordinary session before the next election, and one probably not be chosen unless such an emergency should arise. In his letter of resignation Mr. Miller says: "In my new field of duty I trust I may prove an efficient and worthy official, worthy of the confidence reposed in me by my friends."

Mrs. Eva Brigham, an inmate of the state industrial school for girls, and who was sent to the institution, in lieu of being committed to the penitentiary for the crime of burglary, attempted to escape from the school last Monday by climbing down a fire escape. Mrs. Brigham nearly succeeded in getting away, when she was discovered by the officers of the place and returned to her quarters. The young woman used an improvised rope made of sheets to reach the fire escape, and had with her a suit case. On account of her act constituting a violation of the parole granted her by the Portland court, it is likely that she will be compelled to serve out the original sentence, which is from six months to three years in the penitentiary. Mrs. Brigham is being held in the city jail, pending the return of Governor West, who will investigate the case.

Much to the relief of both pedestrians and those traveling the streets in vehicles, the Portland, Eugene & Eastern Company has completed the work of replacing the old broken bricks with new ones in its street car line on State street, and is filling the young eaves which have broken many auto and wagon springs, and caused the lowly pedestrian to cuss when he runs amuck with the chuck-holes.

Loren Curtis has returned from a week's vacation at Agate Beach. He reports that summer resort all in good shape, and the only grievance he has is that he couldn't frequent the place longer.

T. G. Bligh has returned from an extended business visit in Portland. Mrs. Bligh has now left for the coast to enjoy a vacation after attending to business at the theatre during her husband's absence.

J. C. Miles and wife left this morning for New York, where they will visit relatives for a few weeks. Mr. Miles will visit relatives in Maine before returning home.

The ordinance creating the office of police matron will go into effect tomorrow, and it is expected that the council will appoint some woman to fill the position at the next regular meeting.

Newberg's commercial club already has under discussion plans for celebrating the formal opening of the new bridge across the Willamette, which event is due at some mid-winter date.

A Rare Farm Bargain

81 acres fine black loam, well drained, 64 acres under cultivation and about 15 acres good timber, family orchard, bearing. Fine big barn, sufficient for 40 head of stock, small house. Two springs, running water, also windmill. Located on a good road within a mile of Oregon Electric station, two hundred yards from school and church. Phone and rural delivery service. This would make an ideal dairy farm and the soil is admirably adapted for clover. Price $110 per acre, if sold before September 1.

Large lot 66x132 on paved street, only $260. This is a snap.

Ask your grocer for Ridgways Tea
England's favorite for over 70 years

That the English language can be greatly misconstrued was manifested this morning when a well known local character attempted to relieve himself of his opinion in regard to the Japanese murder which occurred here last Thursday. He said: "I tell you that I don't believe that Koda did the job—nosiroe—he couldn't. It is as plain as the nose on your face that he proved his 'alimony,' and he could not have been around his wife at the time she was killed." Thus, alibi and alimony got sadly mixed.

As the result of one hour's soliciting Heppner citizens put up $1275 for the Morrow county fair, and the city council followed with $500 more.

Once More

We Defy Anyone to Prove That We Did Not Buy Edwin Clapp Shoes

Six months before Hanan Shoes were bought by any Salem store. Or that we did not quit buying Hanan Shoes when we bought EDWIN CLAPP SHOES. Or that we ever offered to discontinue EDWIN CLAPP SHOES. Does it look reasonable that we would buy EDWIN CLAPP SHOES and then discontinue them in favor of a line that had not given us satisfaction? We would rather be small merchants in the public's estimation than be large merchants in our own estimation ONLY. We are credited with sense enough to know we COULD NOT misquote values, run so-called hundred thousand dollar sales, remodeling sales and try to mislead the public in many other ways and still maintain the confidence of intelligent people.

We have some Hanan Shoes. Come compare them with others at the same price.
