Meyers---Salem's and the Willamette Valley's Logical Style Center

Here you will find beautiful models direct from New York and the newest style creations imported from that fashion city of Europe--Paris. Owing to the immense buying power of Salem's big store, coupled with the fact that our Mr. Henry W. Meyers journeyed to the great markets and personally bought the new models for fall and winter in Ladies' Suits, Coats, Dresses and other garments, and that we have a permanent buyer in New York who constantly looks after our needs, we are therefore in a position to bring before the people of this locality the season's advanced styles as they are created. Salem women will indeed appreciate this fact when they view the complete stock of fall and winter ready to wear garments. We can say without exaggeration that the coming season's display will far out-class any previous showing ever brought to Salem. At present we are displaying an advance collection of the new suits and coats, and cordially invite an inspection at your convenience. No obligation to buy, just come in and ask to see the new garments.

ladies were also provided with necessary clothing to take the place of their drenched dresses. Mr. Hamilton stated this morning that the baby suffered none from the ducking, while his wife and visitor were well and in good spirits today.
However, it was a very narrow escape, and Mr. Hamilton can thank the ladies for the fine manner in which they conducted themselves when the canoe turned over. The baby, being helpless, was the first one to receive aid, and it was saved without much trouble, but had Mrs. Hamilton or the other lady been unable to swim and had got excited in the least, it is more than probable that some one would have been drowned.

DEATH NOTICES.
FALE.
The one-day-old infant of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Fale, August 26, 1913, at the family residence on Salem Heights.
The funeral was held this morning at 10 o'clock from the residence. The burial took place at City View cemetery.

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS.
The board of equalization will meet at the court house in said county on Monday, September 8, 1913, at 10 o'clock a. m., and publicly examine the assessment rolls and correct all errors in valuation, description or quality of land, lots or other property, and continue in session until such work is completed.
All persons interested are notified to appear and examine their assessment for the year 1913, and if not satisfied with the same, file application in writing, properly verified, for a reduction or alteration of the same during the first week of such meeting, as no complaints can be received thereafter.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.
Sealed proposals for furnishing labor and material required for full completion of two separate and distinct buildings and the finishing only of a brick hospital building (aggregating in cost about $13,000) to be erected on property located about one and one-half miles north of the city of Salem, and known as the Oregon State School for the Deaf, will be opened by the Oregon State Board of Control, Friday, August 25, 1913, at 2 p. m., at the state capitol building.
Plans, specifications and proposal sheet may be obtained at the office of W. C. Knighton, architect capitol building, Salem, Ore. R. B. GOODIN, Secretary Oregon State Board of Control.

Notice of Assesment 18th Street Improvement.
Notice is hereby given that the common council of the city of Salem, Oregon, will at or about 8 o'clock p. m. on the 1st day of September, 1913, or at the same hour at any subsequent regular council meeting thereafter, at the common council chambers in the city of Salem, Oregon, proceed to assess upon each lot or part thereof or parcel of land liable therefor, its proportionate share of the total cost of improving North Eighteenth street from the south line of State street to the south line of Center street.
All persons interested in said assessment are hereby notified to appear at said time before the said common council and present their objections, if any they have, to said assessment and apply to said common council on or before the said 1st day of September, 1913, to equalize their proportionate share of the total cost of improving said North Eighteenth street, and their said assessment.

WILSON ADMITS
Tells of Huerta's Reply.
The president then set forth that Huerta's reply, through Foreign Minister Gamba, said the dictator realized that the American proposals were intended to be friendly otherwise they would have been immediately rejected on account of their humiliating character. Huerta refused to promise that he would not be a candidate for the presidency, asserted that pacification of the country was proceeding and refused the proposal for an armistice on the ground he must punish outlaws now in the field.
Gamba's note, the president said, urged American neutrality, recognition of Huerta as president, and, deploring the tension with America, denied that Mexico was responsible therefor. Gamba also recalled the recognition of Huerta by Ambassador Henry Lane Wilson. It concluded thus:
"When the situation reaches a happy conclusion no mention will be made of causes which might carry us, if the present tension persists, to nobody know what extremities for two people under obligation to continue friendly, provided that friendship is based on mutual respect."

Utterly Wretched
Nervous Prostration Long Endured Before Remedy was Found.
Miss Minerva Reisinger, Upper Bern, Pa., writes: "For several years I had nervous prostration, and was utterly wretched. I lived on bread and beef tea because my stomach would not retain anything else. I took many remedies, but obtained no relief until I took Hood's Sarsaparilla, when I began to gain at once. Am now cured!"
Pure, rich blood makes good, strong nerves, and this is why Hood's Sarsaparilla, which purifies and enriches the blood, cures so many nervous diseases. Get it today in usual liquid form or chocolate tablets called Sarsotabs.
