Queen Maud of Norway and Son She Fears May Be Assassinated

QUEEN MAUD of Norway is able to verify the saying, "Uneasy lies the head that wears a crown." She is the mother of Crown Prince Olaf, and recently there have been stories of plots to assassinate the boy and Queen Maud is a mother as well as a queen, and she does not find life comfortable when the fear of assassination is ever with her. She may leave Norway because of these tales of assassination. There is a bill now before the parliament providing that if the present ruler dies without a male heir the crown shall become a republic.

O.S.P. TEAM SHUTS OUT PORTLAND BOYS

No Hits and No Runs Allowed By McClure, Who Is at His Best in Great Ball Contest.

SUCCESSFUL SQUEEZE PLAY ONE OF FEATURES OF GAME

Visiting Pitcher Is Also Stingy With His Hits, But Lets Local Boys Walk at Wrong Time

Pitcher McClure was invincible yesterday afternoon and the O. S. P. team won from the Portland Transportation club by a score of 3 to 0. McClure established a new season's record for the Senators' grounds by allowing neither hits nor runs. He was splendidly backed by his teammates and the fielding was sharp and at times spectacular.

No hits or runs were made by either side until Christianson of the O. S. P. got a single in the fifth frame. Poor coaching resulted in his being caught at second and Clarke and McClure failed to reach first on infield grounders.

The O. S. P. scored in the sixth inning. Dupont walked. Kemp sacrificed and Dupont reached second. Hoffman sacrificed Dupont to third. LaBarge reached first when Leslie failed to handle the ball at first, and Dupont scored. LaBarge stole second. Griggs struck out.

Squeeze Play Worked.
 In the eighth inning McClure walked. Dupont was also given a base. Kemp struck out. Hoffman filled the bases with a single. Then a signal for a squeeze play was given and McClure was almost at the home plate when LaBarge bunted. McClure scored and LaBarge was safe on first when Leslie juggled the ball and it drifted over toward the bleachers. Dupont scored before Leslie got it back in action. Griggs flew out to McCafferty and Hoffman was caught off second.

The visitors had a chance in the fourth inning. Manning flew out to Henderson. Petty walked. Leslie struck out. Miller was hit by the pitcher. Petty reached third on a passed ball. Chamberlain hit a long fly and it looked safe, but Dupont retired the side by a running catch. The score:

CROSS CONFIDENT HE WILL WIN MATCH

Believes He Will Have No Difficulty in Beating Barrien Within 12 Rounds of Fight.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
 Vancouver, B. C., Sept. 1.—Considering the fact that neither had time in which to train properly, Leach Cross, the New York fighter, and Frank Barrien, the Northwest lightweight, were in good condition for their scheduled 12-round bout at Brigousse this afternoon. The advance sale was a trifle disappointing on account of the match being arranged at such a late date, but the indications were that a goodly crowd would be on hand when the boys entered the ring. All cars headed for the arena were jammed.

Cross looks to be 10 pounds lighter than his opponent, who is of stocky build, although both boys are natural lightweights.

Both took a complete rest Sunday, and neither left his hotel until a late hour this morning.

"I do not anticipate any trouble in disposing of Barrien within 12 rounds, although I understand he is a clever boxer," said Cross today. "The training I did at Los Angeles for the bout with Johnny Dundee, which was called off on account of Young's death, has stood me in good stead, and I am in fine fettle."

Barrien would not discuss his chances of winning over Cross, but declared that meeting a real lightweight contender had not affected his nerve, and that he would put up the best fight he was capable of.

Freddie Welsh and Willie Ritchie, who will box here September 20 for the lightweight championship of the world, will be at the ringside. During his stay here Cross will endeavor to arrange conferences with Welsh and Ritchie, with a view of securing a match with the winner of the September bout.

Former Champion Ticked as an Easy Winner, But Many Believe Azevedo May Surprise Him.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
 Oakland, Cal., Sept. 1.—Ad Wolgast and Joe Azevedo had things all to themselves today, pugilistically, around San Francisco bay, no other glove contests being scheduled for Labor day. The two lightweights met in a 10-round bout at the Oakland Wheelmen's club this afternoon. Wolgast was a 2 to 1 favorite in the betting, with practically no Azevedo money in sight. Wolgast, though he did little training, seemed to be in pretty fair shape, and apparently was not suffering from his injured hand.

Azevedo trained as if for a championship battle and was in splendid condition. He declared he did not fear either Wolgast's reputation nor his much touted body wallop. The champion has regarded the match lightly, and this led many to believe that he might meet with a surprise, for Azevedo is an exceptionally strong lad and of late has shown considerable improvement.

Four preliminary bouts, the first starting at 2:30, preceded the main event. It was expected that Wolgast and Azevedo would enter the ring about 2:30 p. m. Jim Griffith refereed the feature bout.

ODDS ON WOLGAST 2 TO 1 BEFORE FIGHT

Jabs and Jolts

It is said that fighters can't come back, but every day we note otherwise. For instance, there is Jack Heinen, the heavyweight. As he was leaving the place some philanthropist said, "Wait a minute, Jack! We're going to buy another." He came back.

We are indebted to the Federal league for the custom of granting magnates an occasion leave of absence. If the practice only spreads to the National league all will be well.

Fable: Once there was a man with so strong a memory that he could recall the time when the White Sox had a regular 300 hitter.

Old King Cole looms up like a world beater in the American association. So, also, did Laverne Chappell.

Johnny Kilbane plans a trip around the world with two objects in view. One is to look for trouble abroad and the other is to dodge it at home.

In walks one Frank Kline, pugilist, who avers that he can whip Thom Langford and Joe Jeannette. We have been unable to learn whether Mr. Kline carries accident insurance.
