BOARD DECIDES TO BUY DUNIWAY PLAN

Disregards Recommendations of Harris to Buy New Modern Plant for Very Little More.

HARRIS THINKS IT WOULD BE ECONOMY TO BUY NEW PLANT

However Board Decides to Buy and Will Pay Salem Scale to Printers Employed at Capitol.

Demands of R. A. Harris, state printor, for a new printing plant and the Portland union wage scale, which is $4.50 more a week for each employe than the Salem union scale, were rejected yesterday afternoon by a unanmous vote of the state printing board, consisting of Governor West, State Willis Scott Duniway, widow of the late and G. W. Orton of Portland, a majority of the appraisement committee. arey Hayter of Dallas, the other member, appraised the plant at about $16,-

When Mr. Harris demanded that the 3 7 3 Portland scale of $25,50 a week be put 4 11 5 into effect Mesers. Kay and Olcott said they saw no reason why the state should pay its men more than private oncerns. Governor West said he saw no reason why the present scale should 8 10 1 not be adopted, explaining that the most expert men conta be paid what

Mr. Harris declared he could not get good workmen for the Salem scale, and pleaded that it would be economy to adopt the Portland scale.

TALKING PICTURES AT THE GRAND

Thomas A. Edison's latest invention, the Kinetophone, or talking pictures, has taker its place among the high class theatrical attractions now touring the country. A program of 12 excellent subjects, combining musical and dramatic numbers, comedy, vaudeville in which prominent statesmen and notopera house September 8 and 9.

Several companies have been organzed by Mr. Edison, each equipped with its force of operators and uccessary mechanical accessories of machines, etc., and having its advance agent and business manager. These companies are competing successfully with the largest dramatic and musical organizations or more leading cities of the United material.

States where the Kinetophone has al ready been seen during engagements varying from thre days to as many months, the recognized dramatic critics have been unanimous in declaring it an unqualified success.
