THIEVING JANITORS ARE CAUGHT IN TRAP

Frank Arthur and O. W. Hendrick were haled before Justice Webster this morning by Sheriff Esch on the charge of larceny of moneys belonging to Dr. T. C. Smith and Dr. J. C. Griffith, dentists in the United States National bank building. The young men waived examination and were bound over to the grand jury under $100 each, which they furnished. Sheriff Esch arrested the two men last night.

Arthur and Hendrick have been doing janitor work in the bank building for some time and they possessed keys to all of the offices in the building. The evidently learned the combinations of the safes in the offices of Drs. Smith and Griffith as the two dentists missed funds and gold from time to time.

Arthur and Hendrick were caught by means of marked bills, which were placed in the dentists' office.
