PORTLAND SAN FRANCISCO

The bride came to Oregon four years ago from Oxford, Nebraska; remaining two years in Woodburn when she removed to Salem. The lovely gifts of cut glass, silver, hand painted china and linen, manifest the regard of many friends.

Reverend Richard N. Avison read the marriage service Tuesday, September the ninth, when Helen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Winslow in Polk county, became the bride of Mr. Oliver Wesley Whitney, a resident of Marion.

Quantities of English ivy and golden yellow dahlias made beautiful garnishing for the great living room where under a white satin true lover's knot, in a bower of the glossy green vine, the ring ceremony was performed at four o'clock in the company of about twenty five relatives and close friends.

Previous to the entrance of the bridal party, Mr. Franklin A. Winslow sang, Carrie Jacobs-Bond's "I Love You Truly," and Jannelle Van Devor played Mendelssohn's wedding march.

The pretty bride wore a gown of white silk voile embellished with hand embroidery. She carried an armload of shell pink asters with maiden hair fern.

Miss Amy Martin and Miss Carrie Baker sang during the reception, and a dainty luncheon was served by Mrs. U. J. Lehman and Mrs. Luella Stone, who assisted Mrs. Winslow.

After a short stay at the beach Mr. and Mrs. Whitney will reside in Salem. On Friday, previous to the wedding, the bride-elect was made honor guest at a miscellaneous shower when Mrs. U. J. Lehman entertained very delightfully in her home at 265 South Church street.

The living room was a bower of ferns from the center of which hung a garden sprinkler concealed with brilliant nasturtium blossoms and their vines, and loaded with daintily wrapped packages.

During the merry pastimes the honor guest was enticed to a seat placed directly under this receptacle, which at a signal was inverted, spilling its surprising contents over the bride-elect.

For the delicate refreshments the garden shower sentiment was carried out in flower pots which were used to serve ice cream hidden by a big pink rose. Miss Ophelia Doyle assisted the hostess and guests for the very pretty affair were Mrs. Luella Stone, of Portland, Mrs. Henry Vandervort, Mrs. Mary Reynolds, Mrs. James Hettzel, Mrs. E. M. Vandervort, Mrs. Van Fleet, Mrs. Laura Kiooppin, Miss Pearl Baker, Miss Helen Winslow, Miss Martha Bowerman, Miss Eva Dimit, Miss Lelia Bigdon, Miss Amy Martin and Jannelle Vandervort.

The Markets

The hop market had another lift Thursday, going up a cent and is still climbing. It is a foregone conclusion that the price will not stop short of 25 cents, and how much higher it will go is a matter of individual guessing. Reports from England and the old country hop yards show steadily falling estimates, and they are not alone on this, for here in Oregon the yield is now estimated at about 130,000 bales as against the first estimate of 145,000, and this may be too high.

Wheat is unchanged, but firm. The government report shows the potato crop is about 18 per cent below that of last year. Of all the states, Maine alone shows an increase over last year. The total production of the United States last year was 414,289,000 bushels. Oregon's crop is only 7 per cent below normal, and last year was one per cent above. The total yield in 1912 for the state was 10,385,000 bushels. The peach market is demoralized. Tomatoes are scarce and firm at from 50 to 65 cents.

SOCIETY

churches who called during the evening were Reverend and Mrs. Henry Babcock, Doctor Fletcher Homan, Reverend Antonio Moore, Reverend James Lylo and Mr. George P. Litchfield.

Reverend Robert S. Gill conducted his first service in Salem Sunday morning September the seventh.

Among the recent arrivals in Salem are a number of Episcopalians who have as yet not associated themselves with their church work or identified themselves with the services. A most cordial invitation is extended to such members. The church needs all of its people; not only to fill the office at regular services, but to assist with guild work and social affairs.

Mrs. William Clark was hostess this week for the Pringle and Pleasant Valley club. Seventeen members enjoyed a delightful social afternoon with needle work and luncheon. Mrs. Emmet Clark assisted in serving.

St. Paul's church was beautifully decorated last Wednesday afternoon when Reverend Robert S. Gill read the lines of the Episcopal marriage service for Miss Athaline Prime, daughter of Mr.

and Mrs. W. F. Prime, and Herbert John Milson.

Great, fluffy white chrysanthemums were used in clusters on the altar, and combined with smilax, formed a graceful arch under which the bridal party assembled for the ceremony.

Miss Lora Marie Wilson attended the bride and wore a lovely gown of white cecilian silk, with shadow lace and white fur.

The bride's beauty was enhanced by a robe of white crepe de chine with chiffon cloth over drupe and elaborations of baby Irish lace and delicate feather bands. Her head dress was a white aigrette, and she carried a prayer book.

Mr. Frank Prime, of Albany, gave his sister into the groom's keeping and Doctor Glenn E. Prime was the groom's attendant.

Miss Eleanor Colony presiding at the organ, played Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus for professional and Engleman's recessional as the bridal party left the church.

The nuptial hymn was sung by Miss Lora Wilson. After the marriage, which was solemnized at two-thirty o'clock, Mr. and Mrs. Milson left for Portland to enjoy a honeymoon trip, and returning to Salem for residence will be at home at 263 State street.

Mrs. Milson's going away gown was gray, tailored, worn with white satin hat, hair.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. Herbert Holman and Miss Augusta Marshall, of Portland, arrived in Salem yesterday and will be the week's end guests of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Boot, at their suburban home, and of Mr. and Mrs. Asabel Bush, Jr. Mr. Holman is expected today for Sunday guest.

Mrs. Spencer Schaefer was the house guest of Portland friends last week.

Miss Alice Bingham went to Portland Thursday for a visit with Mrs. B. E. Haney and with Doctor J. F. Calbreath's family.

Miss Florence Sutherland, Miss Emily Webster, Mr. W. P. Powers and Mr. R. W. Pichard, of Portland, were dinner guests last Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Donald McCarthy in their attractive ranch home near Independence.

Miss Sophie Catlin is passing the week in Eugene for the university festivities and is a guest at the Gamma Phi Beta sorority house.

Owing to Miss Genevieve Thompson's sudden illness, her trip with Mrs. Harriett McArthur from Portland around the world is postponed indefinitely. Miss Thompson is improving and has been given assurance of a speedy recovery. Possibly they may be able to start in a fortnight's time.

Miss Elsie Hamilton, of South Salem, is leaving Portland with Mr. and Mrs. John Crutcher and the party will sail Saturday, September twenty-seventh, for a trip around the world.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Waters and their two children motored from Portland Tuesday, returning early the following morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chauncey Bishop and their two little sons returned Monday from Pendleton.

Mrs. Seba Case Wall left Thursday morning for Newport to be away until Monday night.

Frances Mattie Martin, the two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carey P. Martin, met with a serious accident Wednesday while playing with two of three small children. During a romp one of the little playmates accidentally toppled the baby girl, dislocating her right shoulder and injuring the ligament of her wrist. The result of this mishap will be a six weeks' use of splints.

Miss Cully Cook, of Portland, will be an October bride. The date of her marriage to Maurice E. Crumpacker has been set for the twenty-second, and the wedding will be a smart home affair.

Miss Gertrude Cunningham who has been in Salem this summer with her grandmother, Mrs. D. W. Matthews, returned to Portland Saturday and will resume her studies in the high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar L. Martin, of from Portland. Mrs. Hofer and the children will remain for a longer visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Dent.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Starr are leaving Salem the first of the week for Portland where they will reside permanently, Mr. Starr having located in business.

Miss Cora Small, supervisor of music in Salem public schools, arrived from Wabash, Ohio, and will make her home with Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Underhill, at 879 South Twelfth street.

Mrs. George Haack, of Portland, was guest for the week's end of her parents Mr. and Mrs. L. U. Josse. Little Clea Haack, who has been with her grandparents all summer, accompanied her mother home.

After three week's sojourn in Newport, Doctor and Mrs. L. F. Griffin and their little daughters, Margaret and Ruth, returned home Tuesday.

Clarence Byrd is leaving today for Olivet, Michigan, and will take up his studies in Olivet college of which Doctor Lancaster, a man of brilliant and note, is director.

Allan Byron, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick S. Byron, is leaving home tomorrow to enter the state university. His fraternity is the Sigma Chi.

Woman loses her suitly when she attempts to fail her rights through militancy. There is a way so much more pleasant and so much more certain.
