

THE BEST NEWSPAPER

The Daily Capital Journal

THE LARGEST CIRCULATION

THIRTY-SIXTH YEAR. SALEM, OREGON, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1913. PRICE TWO CENTS. ON TRAINS AND NEWS STANDS, FIVE CENTS.

TRAIN HELD UP AND ROBBERS SECURE $100,000

BATTLE WITH POSSE FOLLOWS

Bandits Takes Locomotive of Train and Officers Pursue on Switch Engine—Many Shots Exchanged, But Outlaws Outdistance Pursuers and Make Escape in Lonely Woods—Deputy Sheriff Killed by Another Officer by Accident—Firemen Felled With Revolver Butt—Mail Clerk Wounded Slightly.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
Tuscaloosa, Ala., Sept. 25.—Three armed bandits held up and robbed the New York-New Orleans express on the Alabama Great Southern railroad at Englewood early today, and escaped with $100,000.
The gang fled on the locomotive of the train they had robbed, exchanging shots with a posse pursuing them on a switch engine. Distancing their pursuers, the outlaws evidently abandoned the engine at some lonely spot on the line, for the locomotive ran wild through Tuscaloosa and stopped 40 miles from the scene of the holdup, when its steam was exhausted.
Kills Officer by Mistake.
During the pursuit one of the deputy sheriffs shot and killed another officer by accident.
The train was brought to a stop by a block at Englewood, a station five miles south of here. While the posse was investigating, the robbers rushed them.
Keeping Engineer Daniels covered with their revolvers, the bandits ordered the fireman to cut off the coach from the engine and express and mail cars. The fireman refused and was killed by a blow with a revolver butt.
Safe Is Dynamited.
Having cut the train to pieces, the highwaymen compelled Daniels to fill the express and mail cars with a short distance ahead, broke into the cars with dynamite, exchanged a few shots with Express Messenger Kelly and Mail Clerk Saunders, Phillips and Poole, in which Saunders was slightly wounded in the head, and then ordered the engineer, messenger and clerks to lie down while they attacked the express cars and registered mail.
Dynamite quickly shattered the safe, scattering up two sacks filled with money, and with their pockets bulging with cash, the trio were just boarding the engine again when they saw the sheriff's posse on the switch engine, summoned by telephone by the conductor of the abandoned portion of the train, approaching.
Fire Upon Pursuers.
Still hanging on to their sacks of loot, the bandits tumbled into the cab, one of them acting as engineer, opened the throttle and they were off in the direction of Tuscaloosa, firing from the rear at the pursuing posse.
As soon as it was learned that the fugitives had abandoned the engine, posse with bloodhounds began scouring the nearby country on both sides of the track from Englewood to Bibbville. Will Probably Escape.

The Alabama Great Southern road is controlled by the Queen & Crescent system. The passengers on the train held up were not molested. Deputy Sheriff James Bonner, of Birmingham, was the man accidentally killed in the pursuit of the bandits.
The shot which killed Bonner was fired by Deputy Sheriff Cope of Birmingham.
Try to Deny Big Loss.
After express company officials had announced the loss of a large sum they changed their minds and declared the robbers secured little. It was the general impression that the reports of a $100,000 haul were correct, however.
Postoffice officials were still checking the registered mail and said they were not yet certain as to the extent of their loss.
No Trace Secured.
Telephone messages from Cottdale, just north of here, the center of the region posses have been scouring for the men who robbed the New York-New Orleans Express early today, were that no trace of the fugitives had been found this afternoon. If they are overtaken, it was believed there would be a desperate battle.

He Cannot Blacken Girl's Character in Defending Act

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
Stockton, Cal., Sept. 26.—Following the example set by United States Judge Cox in the Diggs-Caminetti white slave trials, Judge Norton, presiding in the trial of P. Herbert Bra Me, a Stockton newspaper man, who is charged with contributing to the delinquency of Miss Florence Cavender, a 15-year-old telephone girl, has shut out all attempts of the defense to blacken the character of the girl previous to her meeting with Bra Me.
The case first attracted attention

Politician is Resort Owner

Charges Filed Against Hugh C. Wallace, of Tacoma, on Ground Hotel Is Used Unlawfully.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
Tacoma, Wash., Sept. 26.—Information charging violations of Washington's new red light abatement law, were filed in the superior court late yesterday afternoon against Hugh C. Wallace, of national prominence in the Democratic party, and his wife, Mildred Wallace.
Wallace and his wife are alleged to be the owners of the Antlers hotel property, and as such are accused, following convictions in the police court of several men and women arrested in a police raid upon the Antlers hotel last Wednesday night.

GETS 15 DAYS IN JAIL FOR PACKING GUN UNLAWFULLY

George Teakman, an English sailor, was given a sentence of 15 days in jail this morning by Judge Elgin, for carrying concealed weapons. The young man "took his medicine" cheerfully, and when locked up last night he entertained the other prisoners with songs and dances.

The capture of Teakman and his pal, Fred Beck, was somewhat sensational. Day Officer Welch received information that Teakman was trying to sell a small calibre revolver on the streets yesterday afternoon. After chasing the lads about the alleys for some time, Officers Welch and Irvine lost them, and soon afterwards were told that the boys were in the neighborhood of Twelfth and Chemske streets. Officer Irvine took an auto and headed the couple off as they were making out of the city north on Twelfth street, but the boys refused to stop, until the policeman hauled out a young rifle, and, waving it around in the air menacingly, called to the fleeing fellows to halt.

THROWN FROM RIG AND HAS JAW BROKEN AND OTHER INJURIES

As the result of his team becoming frightened and running away yesterday afternoon on South Commercial street, Herman Hencel, of Oak Grove, sustained a broken jaw and many other painful bruises when he and his young son, were pitched to the ground from the wagon in which they were riding.

Hencel was driving toward the city and when within a short distance of the City View cemetery a northbound street car passed him. The horses became frightened and bolted across the street car track just as the car had passed. The jolting of the wagon threw Mr. Hencel and his son out of the rig and Motorman Moore, who had charge of the car, ran out and caught the team before it had proceeded any distance.

The boy was not hurt in the least, but Mr. Hencel received a badly broken jaw and suffered other injuries that were painful, but not serious. The injured man was taken to the Salem hospital and he is resting as easily as could be expected today.

The Weather

The Dickey Bird says: Oregon: Rain tonight or Saturday, west; fair tonight and Saturday east portion; cooler interior west portion Saturday; light frost east portion tonight; southerly winds.

BIXBY'S ATTORNEYS TRYING TO HEAD OFF FURTHER INQUISITION

Defendant Becomes Excited as His Counsel Battles With Prosecutor.

KEYES ARGUES POINT

Prosecutor Wants to Produce Certain Girls to Show Bixby Contributed to Downfall.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 25.—Desperate efforts were made today by counsel for George H. Bixby to save him from further inquisition upon the subject of his relations with minor girls. Bixby is being tried on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of Cleo Helen Barker, aged 19.
After the defense had re-opened its case to introduce testimony by F. S. Parsons, a bank official, regarding checks alleged to have been drawn by Octavious V. Morgan, a witness who also claims he was blackmailed, Prosecutor Keyes announced that he would produce certain girls to face Bixby and charge him with contributing to their downfall.
Heated objections were interposed by Bixby's attorneys. The defendant became excited and frequently offered suggestions to his attorneys, as they skirmished with the state's representatives.

Jury Excluded.
After half an hour of pointed argument, Judge Bledsoe sent the jury out of the room, and the dispute was renewed, with little hope of an early settlement.

Bixby took the stand yesterday afternoon and asserted that his knowledge of certain inmates of the Jonquil "hotel" had been gained through philanthropy, and he had given large sums of money to enable girls to lead a better life. He carried on his work on with Mrs. Emma J. Goldman, proprietress of the Jonquil, who is now serving a year in the county jail, and who was known to him as Mrs. Josie Rosenberg. Bixby gave a girl named Marion $900, and she is now happily married. He gave one named Helen Scott $4300 and Cleo Baker received $650.

ISOLATION OF PROVINCE OF ULSTER IN NOW THREATENED

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
London, Sept. 26.—Isolation of the province is threatened today by British postal officials if Ulster secedes, to show its disapproval of the home rule bill and establishes a provisional government.
Unionists, it was stated, are inquiring just how far the government could go along this line. The telegraph lines also are controlled by the government.

QUEER STUNTS ON STREET LEAD TO MAN'S ARREST

O. E. Cox was arrested this afternoon by Constable Cooper and Policeman Irvine on the charge of being drunk and disorderly and for a time the two officers had their hands full before an auto could be summoned to take the man to the city jail.
Cox is thought by the officers to be insane. He was first noticed at the intersection of Commercial and Ferry streets about 12 o'clock. He attracted the attention of many by cutting sapeps on the street corner. Constable Cooper was notified that the man was dancing, throwing his hands in the air and carrying on all kinds of evolutions, and the officer took him in custody after Cox attempted to fight and run away several times. Officer Irvine assisted Constable Cooper after the latter had finally captured the insane man and an auto was called to take him to the jail. Cox has been arrested several times before on the charge of being drunk and disorderly according to the records.

THIS IS BUSIEST DAY SO FAR AT GROUNDS AND MANY ARE HERE

Exhibitors Are Hurrying to Get in Shape for Big Opening Monday.

RACE HORSES ARE HERE

Practically All of Entries Have Arrived and Will Be Ready for Big Event to Be Staged.

The state fair grounds are getting in shape for the big events to be staged there next week and today was the most active so far. Many cars are being unloaded and drays are having a busy time carrying exhibits to the grounds. The big rush will continue tomorrow and Sunday and everything will be in pretty good shape Monday morning. Exhibitors who were late in securing space are getting up tents and will endeavor to make the best of the situation. Machinery exhibitors already have a large share of their goods arranged and nearly everything in the line of farm equipment is in place. Tomorrow will be a record-breaker from a busy standpoint, it is certain.

Race Horses Here

Practically all the horses have arrived for the races and it is already doped out that the Oregon speeders will have a show this year. There is a big entry list from Canada.

President Booth and wife are expected here tonight. They will go into camp.

Sickness of his daughter will prevent Hon. D. H. Looney of Jefferson, from attending this year. For the first time in 32 years he will not be a camper or exhibitor.

Superintendent of the Pavilion O. E. Freytag and wife have arrived from Clackamas county.

The fair management urges Salem people particularly to go to the grounds and pitch tents. It is argued that they can very much handier entertain friends and relatives there.

There is much interest in the barn dance scheduled for tomorrow night.

WILL AID STATE

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
New York, Sept. 25.—Dr. Ernest Muret, the dentist, who was Hans Schmidt's partner in the counterfeiting business, will be a witness for the state against the confessed murderer of Anna Ammiller. Whitman plans to start Schmidt's trial October 23. Alienists are now examining him.

RUSSIA AND CHINA ARE FIGHTING

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
Peking, China, Sept. 26.—Strong probability of war between China and Russia is seen here today as a result of the attacks made yesterday by the Russian army upon two Chinese forts and the occupation by Cossacks of the cities of Koldo and Tchougoutchak. President Yuan Shi Kai and his advisers consider Russia's latest move as equivalent to a declaration of war, and commanding officers of all Chinese brigades have been ordered to mobilize their forces.
The latest trouble, it was announced here today has arisen over the insistence of the Russian government that China to quell the disturbance in certain provinces of Western Mongolia. Sixteen regiments of Cossacks yesterday captured Koldo and Tchougoutchak, after a short, but bloody battle.

Wants Million for Her Husband

Mrs. Clarence MacKay Defendant in Suit Brought By Wife of a Prominent Surgeon.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
New York, Sept. 26.—Mrs. Clarence H. MacKay, society leader and prominent suffragette, was today served with a $1,000,000 damage suit by Mrs. Joseph H. Blake, wife of a prominent New York surgeon, for alleged alienation of the affections of her husband, a prominent New York surgeon.
"Dr. Blake has the highest ideals," Mrs. Blake said in an interview today. "After living with him for 21 years I ought to know something about him. No woman has a more devoted husband than he has been."
"He came to New York a stranger and succeeded on absolute merit. He became the greatest surgeon in New York—yes, in the world. His achievements made me the happiest woman imaginable."
"Then this terrible thing happened."
Mrs. MacKay's friends asserted the gossip concerning her and Dr. Blake was started by persons jealous of her prominence as an advocate of woman suffrage.

SOCIAL WORKER WHO IS ACCUSED DISAPPEARS FROM HER HOME

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
San Francisco, Sept. 26.—Mrs. May E. Vaughn, a prominent social worker, recently indicted on a charge of attempting to blackmail Judge R. M. Widney, of Los Angeles, has disappeared from her home here, according to the police. Judge Widney, who is here defending his son, Arthur, on charges of accepting money from a woman of the underworld, alleged that Mrs. Vaughn offered to secure the dismissal of charges against his son for $500. The police allege Mrs. Vaughn disappeared three days ago.

After a week's stay at the home of Mrs. Vaughn, Mrs. Vivien Lyons, of Denver, involved in several affairs with Robert J. Widney, also a son of Judge Widney, alleges she is a nervous wreck, and is taking the rest cure at a local sanitarium. Mrs. Lyons alleges she was so badly treated that she was on the verge of collapse when taken from the Vaughn home.

Other officers were elected as follows: Deputy grand commander, Dillon B. Grant, Ashland; grand generalissimo, Louis G. Clarke, Portland; grand captain-general, W. T. Laraway, Hood River; grand senior warden, Edward E. Kiddle, Island City; grand junior warden, George G. Brown, Salem; grand treasurer, John B. Cleland, Portland.

Grand Commander Jewell named appointive officers as follows: Grand sword bearer Frank S. Balle, Sumpter; grand warden, W. G. Shellenbarger, Portland; grand captain of the guards, D. L. Carmell, Eugene. The appointment of a grand prelate is yet to be made.

Ashland was chosen as the meeting place next year.

The installation of the new officers completed the business session, and the grand commandery closed with a big reception in the Armory in the evening.

ASKED BY SULZER TO SWEAR LIE

State Superintendent of Public Work Peck Accuses Governor of Crime.

INSTRUCTED HIM TO FORGET DEAL

Executive Said That Was What He Was Going to Do When He Testified.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
Albany, N. Y., Sept. 26.—Sworn testimony that Governor William Sulzer of New York asked him to commit perjury before the Frawley senate committee was given before the impeachment court here today by State Superintendent of Public Works Peck.
Immediately after Sulzer was nominated for governor, Peck declared he gave him $500. On July 4 Peck said he was subpoenaed by the Frawley committee.

"I went to the executive offices," Peck testified, "showed Sulzer the letter and asked him what I should do. He said 'forget it.' I asked him what I could do if they had me under oath, and he answered 'oh, do as I am going to do—forget it.'"
Technical Victory.
Sulzer won an important technical victory. His victory took the form of a vote, 49 to 2 to let contributors to his campaign fund tell whether their contributions were given with the understanding that they were to be used only for campaign purposes or if they meant to let Sulzer spend them as he pleased.

If Sulzer can prove that the latter was the case, the bottom will be knocked out of the prosecution's claim that he used a part of the fund in personal stock market speculations and that, in doing so, he committed a crime.

Could Not Do It.
Henry Morgenthau, who contributed $1000, said Sulzer begged him to treat it as a personal transaction if asked concerning it before the impeachment court. Morgenthau told him he could not do it.

J. Temple Gwathmey, cotton broker, told the court that he intended the $100 check he gave to Sulzer to be used "for campaign purposes only."

Dr. John Cox, who followed Gwathmey, scored for the governor. He gave $300 to the campaign fund. Sulzer's counsel asked whether it was for campaign or for personal use. The prosecution did not want to permit an answer. Chief Justice Cullen overruled the objection and the court sustained him 33 to 24.

"I intended Sulzer to have the $300 for his own personal use, to do with as he pleased," said Cox.

COMMERCIAL CLUB WILL TONIGHT PLAN BIG DAY AT FAIR

A meeting has been called by Secretary Bynon, of the Salem Commercial Club, for tonight at 8 o'clock, at which arrangements will be made to fittingly celebrate Salem Day at the state fair. The business men will attend and state their wishes and a general talkfest in regard to the honor given this city by the state fair board will be in order. The Commercial Club hopes to prepare a program for the eventful date of the fair and it is more than likely that all the stores will close on Salem Day.